Storytelling Mizoguchi or Modulation Angelopoulos or Melancholy Hou or Constraints Staging and stylistics Jean-Luc Godard, Cinema Historian Michael Witt, 2013-11-07 Originally released as a videographic experiment in film history Jean Luc Godard's Histoire(s) du cinéma has pioneered how we think about and narrate cinema history and in how history is taught through cinema In this stunningly illustrated volume Michael Witt explores Godard's landmark work as both a specimen of an artist's vision and a philosophical statement on the history of film Witt contextualizes Godard's theories and approaches to historiography and provides a guide to the wide ranging cinematic aesthetic and cultural forces that shaped Godard's groundbreaking ideas on the history of cinema Ed Ruscha and the Great American West Karin Breuer, D.J. Waldie, Ed Ruscha, 2016-07-12 The renowned artist Ed Ruscha was born in Nebraska grew up in Oklahoma and has lived and worked in Southern California since the late 1950s Beginning in 1956 road trips across the American Southwest furnished a conceptual trove of themes and motifs that he mined throughout his career The everyday landscapes of the West especially as experienced from the automobile gas stations billboards building facades parking lots and long stretches of roadway are the primary motifs of his often deadpan and instantly recognizable paintings and works on paper as well as his influential artist books such as Twentysix Gasoline Stations and All the Buildings on the Sunset Strip His iconic word images declaring Adios Rodeo Wheels over Indian Trails and Honey I Twisted through More Damn Traffic to Get Here further underscore a contemporary Western sensibility Ruscha's interest in what the real West has become and Hollywood's version of it plays out across his oeuvre The cinematic sources of his subject matter can be seen in his silhouette pictures which often appear to be grainy stills from old Hollywood movies They feature images of the contemporary West such as parking lots and swimming pools but also of its historical past covered wagons buffalo teepees and howling coyotes Featuring essays by Karin Breuer and D J Waldie plus a fascinating interview with the artist conducted by Kerry Brougher this stunning catalogue produced in close collaboration with the Ruscha studio offers the first full exploration of the painter's lifelong fascination with the romantic concept and modern reality of the evolving American West Published in association with the Fine Arts Museums of San Francisco Exhibition dates de Young San Francisco July 16 October 9 2016 Snap to Grid Peter Lunenfeld, 2001 A vibrant guide to the artistic cultural and social faces of the new media Possessed Stefan Andriopoulos, 2008-09-15 Silent cinema and contemporaneous literature explored themes of mesmerism possession and the ominous agency of corporate bodies that subsumed individual identities At the same time critics accused film itself of exerting a hypnotic influence over spellbound audiences Stefan Andriopoulos shows that all this anxiety over being governed by an outside force was no marginal oddity but rather a pervasive concern in the late nineteenth and early twentieth centuries Tracing this preoccupation through the period's films as well as its legal medical and literary texts Andriopoulos pays particular attention to the terrifying notion of murder committed against one's will He returns us to a time when medical researchers described the hypnotized subject as a medium who could be compelled to carry out violent crimes and when films like The Cabinet of

Dr Caligari and Dr Mabuse the Gambler famously portrayed the hypnotist's seemingly unlimited power on the movie screen. Juxtaposing these medicolegal and cinematic scenarios with modernist fiction, Andriopoulos also develops an innovative reading of Kafka's novels which center on the merging of human and corporate bodies. Blending theoretical sophistication with scrupulous archival research and insightful film analysis, Possessed adds a new dimension to our understanding of today's anxieties about the onslaught of visual media and the expanding reach of vast corporations that seem to absorb our own identities.

The Cinema Alone Michael Temple, James S. Williams, 2000. This volume of essays constitutes a comprehensive and interdisciplinary engagement with Jean-Luc Godard's current film and video work. Its key focus is the eight-part magnum opus Histoire(s) du cinéma (1988-1998), an extraordinary experiment in film history that attempts to tell all the stories of cinema whilst remaining true to the specificity of what the cinema alone contributed to twentieth-century culture. The Cinema Alone features contributors from France, Britain, and America who discuss Godard's recent work both in the context of his earlier corpus and in relation to subjects such as literature, art history, philosophy, silent cinema, European culture, film theory, video, and digital technology. The collection will make an important contribution to critical debates on the past, present, and future of Film and Media Studies as cinema enters its second century.

A Companion to Fritz Lang Joe McElhaney, 2015-01-27. A Companion to Fritz Lang. Fritz Lang's movie-making spans a major part of the history of cinema across genres, styles, and national contexts. With smartness and sharpness, the essays in this essential volume come from many angles to capture the richness of Lang's cinema and bring great insight to its study. Dana Polan, Cinema Studies, NYU. Fritz Lang's influence on cinema cannot be overstated, with a career that stretched from the silent era in Germany to the decline of the Hollywood studio system in the late 1950s, from the Weimar Republic to Nazi Germany, from Depression America to the McCarthy era. One of the best-known migrants from Germany's school of Expressionism, Lang is also credited with influencing the emergence of film noir. A Companion to Fritz Lang offers the first full-scale collection of scholarship available in English on one of the most important filmmakers of all time. Addressing much of Lang's voluminous body of work, from Metropolis and M to lesser-known titles such as Western Union and Clash by Night, this volume offers a superb overview of Lang's cinema with revealing insights into his enduring influence on directors such as Godard, Scorsese, Chabrol, and Tarantino. The two dozen essays presented here are an unrivaled and up-to-the-minute assessment of the prolific and resilient life and vision of one of cinema's greatest auteurs.

Film, Art, New Media: Museum Without Walls? Angela Dalle Vacche, 2012-06-12. In the footsteps of André Bazin, this anthology of 15 original essays argues that the photographic origin of twentieth-century cinema is anti-anthropocentric. Well aware that the twentieth century stands out as the only period in history with its own photographic film record for posterity, Angela Dalle Vacche has convened international scholars at The Sterling and Francine Clark Art Institute and asked them to rethink the history and theory of the cinema as a new model for
