Art And Revolution Writings On Literature Politics And Culture:

Art and Revolution Leon Trotsky, Literature and Revolution Leon Trotsky, 2005 Roll over Derrida Literature and Revolution is back in print Nothing in the postmodern canon comes close to the intellectual grandeur of Trotsky's vision of art and literature in an age of revolution or his extraordinary meditations on the popular ownership of culture Mike Davis Re-reading Trotsky on literature 40 years later is a delight Tariq Ali Leon Trotsky penned this engaging book to elucidate the complex way in which art informs and can alter our understanding of the world Features new reader friendly explanatory notes Leon Trotsky was a leader of the Russian Revolution in 1917 and is the author of My Life William Keach is a professor of English at Brown University He is editor of Coleridge's Complete Poems Music and Revolution Robin D. Moore, 2006-04-28 Annotation A history of Cuban music during the Castro regime 1950s to the present C. L. R. James and Creolization Nicole King, 2011-01-01 C L R James 1901 1989 one of the most important intellectuals of the twentieth century expressed his postcolonial and socialist philosophies in fiction speeches essays and book length scholarly discourses However the majority of academic attention given to James keeps the diverse mediums of James's writing separate focuses on his work as a political theorist and subordinates his role as a fiction writer This book however seeks to change such an approach to studying James Defining creolization as a process by which European African Amerindian Asian and American cultures are amalgamated to form new hybrid identities and cultures Nicole King uses this process as a means to understanding James's work and life She argues that throughout his career whether writing a short story or a political history James articulated his attempt to produce revolutionary radical discourses with a consistent methodology James a Trinidad born scholar who migrated to England and then to the United States and who described himself both as a black radical and a Victorian intellectual serves as a definitive model of creolization King argues that James's writings also fit the model of creolization for each is influenced by diverse types of discourses James rarely wrote from within the confines of a single discipline instead choosing to make the layers of history literature philosophy and political theory coalesce in order to make his point As his West Indian and Western European influences converge in his work and life he creates texts that are difficult to confine to a specific category or discipline No matter which writerly medium he uses James was preoccupied with how to represent the individual personality and at the same time represent the community The C L R James that emerges from King's study is a man made more compelling and more human because of his complicated multilayered and sometimes contradictory allegiances Architecture as Revolution Luis E. Carranza, 2010-06-15 The period following the Mexican Revolution was characterized by unprecedented artistic experimentation Seeking to express the revolution's heterogeneous social and political aims which were in a continuous state of redefinition architects artists writers and intellectuals created distinctive sometimes idiosyncratic theories and works Luis E Carranza examines the interdependence of modern architecture in Mexico and the pressing sociopolitical and ideological issues of this period as well as the interchanges between post revolutionary architects and the literary philosophical and artistic avant gardes Organizing his book around chronological case studies that show how architectural theory and production reflected various understandings of the revolution s significance Carranza focuses on architecture and its relationship to the philosophical and pedagogic requirements of the muralist movement the development of the avant garde in Mexico and its notions of the Mexican city the use of pre Hispanic architectural forms to address indigenous peoples the development of a socially oriented architectural functionalism and the monumentalization of the revolution itself In addition the book also covers important architects and artists who have been marginally discussed within architectural and art historiography Richly illustrated Architecture as Revolution is one of the first books in English to present a social and cultural history of early twentieth century Mexican architecture Musical Worlds Philip A.

Maerhofer,2009-05-27

How has political revolution figured into the development of avant garde cultural production Is the vanguard an antiquated concept or does its influence still resonate in the 21st century Focusing closely on the convergence of aesthetics and politics that materialized in the early part of the twentieth century this study offers a re interpretation of the historical avant garde from 1917 to 1962 a turbulent period in intellectual history which marked the apex crisis and decline of vanguardist authority Moving from the impact of the Bolshevik Revolution to the anti imperialist and decolonizing movements in the Third World to the emergence of neo vanguardism in the wake of postmodernity this study opens the way for understanding the transformation of vanguardist cultural paradigms from a global perspective the implications of which also reveal its relevance and application to the contemporary period Media Authorship Cynthia Chris,David A. Gerstner,2013-02-15 Contemporary media authorship is frequently collaborative participatory non site specific or quite simply goes unrecognized In this volume media and film scholars explore the theoretical debates around authorship intention and identity within the rapidly transforming and globalized culture industry of new media Defining media broadly across a range of creative artifacts and production cultures from visual arts to videogames from textiles to television contributors consider authoring practices of artists designers do it yourselfers media professionals scholars and others Specifically they ask What constitutes media and authorship in a technologically converged globally conglomerated multiplatform environment for the production and distribution of content What can we learn from cinematic and literary models of authorship and critiques of those models with regard to authorship not only in television and recorded music but also interactive media such as videogames and the Internet How do we conceive of authorship through practices in which users generate content collaboratively or via appropriation What institutional prerogatives and legal debates around intellectual property rights fair use and copyright bear on concepts of authorship in new media By addressing these issues Media Authorship demonstrates that the concept of authorship as formulated in literary and film studies is reinvigorated contested remade even reauthored by new practices in the digital media environment

Totalitarian Space and the Destruction of Aura Saladdin Ahmed, 2019-02-14 We live today within a system in which state and corporate power aim to render space flat transparent and uniform for only then can it be truly controlled The gaze of power and the commodity form are capable of infiltrating even the darkest of corners and often we invite them into our most private spaces We do so as a matter of convenience but also to placate ourselves and cope with the alienation inherent in our everyday lives The resulting dominant space can best be termed totalitarian It is space stripped of uniqueness deprived of the spatial aura necessary for authentic experience In Totalitarian Space and the Destruction of Aura Saladdin Ahmed sets out to help us grasp what has been lost before no trace remains He draws attention to that which we might prefer not to see but despite the bleakness of this indictment of reality the book also offers a message of hope Namely it is only once we comprehend the magnitude of the threat to our spatial experience and our own complicity in sustaining this system that we can begin to resist the totalizing forces at work

Leon Trotsky Helen Gilbert, 2003 This concise look at the life of Trotsky begins with his first meeting with Lenin in exile in 1902 and ends with Trotsky's assassination in Mexico in 1940 Ideological and practical conflicts with the other major personalities of the Russian revolution are detailed and a brief descriptive bibliography of Trotsky's key writings is included

Constructivism in Central Europe Esther Levinger, 2022-01-31 The book is a comparative study of the constructivist avant garde artists in Central Europe the Hungarian MA group in exile in Vienna the Blok group in Warsaw and the Czech Dev tsil association of artists in Prague The author examines the similarities and significant differences among them Contrary to often repeated theses the study reveals that the artists unremittingly sought new formulations for an initial set of formal and theoretical issues It also demonstrates that they persistently believed that their works of art prefigured a future socialist society The long awaited socialist states that came into being after World War II betrayed the artists

Cultural Implications of Biosemiotics Paul Cogley, 2016-08-11 This is the first book to consider the major implications for culture of the new science of biosemiotics The volume is mainly aimed at an audience outside biosemiotics and semiotics in the humanities and social sciences principally who will welcome elucidation of the possible benefits to their subject area from a relatively new field The book is therefore devoted to illuminating the extent to which biosemiotics constitutes an epistemological break with modern modes of conceptualizing culture It shows biosemiotics to be a significant departure from those modes of thought that neglect to acknowledge continuity across nature modes which install culture and the vicissitudes of the polis at the centre of their deliberations The volume exposes the untenability of the culture nature division presenting a challenge to the many approaches that can only produce an understanding of culture as a realm autonomous and divorced from nature

Decolonial Environmentalisms David J. Vázquez, 2025 In Decolonial Environmentalisms David V zquez provides material strategies for understanding how Latinx environmental thinking over the past three decades interrogates environmental harm and the ways racial capitalism the idea that racism is a structuring logic of capitalism and colonialism are embedded in some forms of mainstream environmentalism V zquez critiques the ways that dialogues on environmental degradation have frequently ignored or minimally engaged with Latinx thought and cultural works on these issues As he points out and we frequently see now with climate change environmental damage does not affect everyone equally He argues that most ecocriticism when it does engage with Latinx work tends to draw from the same few sources again and again and often misreads their intentions Decolonial Environmentalisms considers multiple genres and forms novels films visual art and short stories created by authors from multiple ethnic communities Chicanx Puerto Rican Dominican Cuban American Peruvian and Central American into this conversation This approach makes it possible to shape a more nuanced account of how Latinxs from multiple racial class gender sexual and other identity positions think about and represent environmental ideas By doing so he asks what do Latinx environmental representations do How do they convey their imaginaries And especially how do Latinx authors and artists imagine a more just and equitable material outcome for the characters and situations they depict

Memory, Edited Abby Smith Rumsey, 2023-09-05 An exploration of historical memory and networks of meaning in the context of today s crises of extremism and polarization As authoritarianism continues to rise around the world the stories we tell ourselves about what has happened and what is happening become ever more relevant In Memory Edited Abby Smith Rumsey examines collective memory how it binds us and how it can be used by bad actors to manipulate us Bringing forward the voices of a rich cast of Eastern European artists from the past two hundred years from Fyodor Dostoevsky to Gerhard Richter Rumsey shows how their work and lives illustrate the devastation wrought by regimes dependent on entrenched lies to survive This hijacking of the narrative polarizes communities even as it commandeers our future Through an interdisciplinary lens that includes the best thinking from history the arts cognitive science psychology and political philosophy Rumsey lays bare our narratives showing how they are constructed and how they have changed over time Ever aware of resisting the false promise of utopia Rumsey argues that only by confronting the past and reckoning with the crimes that were committed can we ever hope to heal and gain self knowledge Memory Edited is an indispensable text for anyone who cares about democracy equality and freedom in our current age of crisis Between

Point Zero and the Iron Curtain, 2024-10-28 This volume edited by va Forg cs with contributions from art historians from across Europe and the Americas analyzes the artistic initiatives of the short time span between the end of World War II and the onset of the Cold War In this moment a new internationalism was anticipated by retrieving pre war modernism as well as creating the new era s new artistic lingua franca The chapters include in depth case studies that analyze the complex often interconnected projects throughout the world South America and Eastern and Western Europe that were soon ended by the Cold War Recovering the U.S. Hispanic Literary Heritage, Volume IV Jose Aranda, Silvio Torres-Saillant, 2002-11-30 This historic fourth volume of articles represents the finished re worked product of the biennial conferences of recovery providing theoretical and practical approaches and critical studies on specific texts Jose Aranda and Silvio Torres Saillant s introduction conceptualizes and unifies a broad historical swath that encompasses the Spanish and English language expression of Hispanic natives immigrants and exiles from the colonial period to 1960 Literature, Politics, and Culture in

Postwar Britain Alan Sinfield, 1989-01-01 Considers the social and political climate of postwar Great Britain and its effect on the literary scene of the time Writing Literary History Jose Duke S. Bagulaya, 2006 Music and Ideology Mark

Carroll, 2017-07-05 This volume gathers together a cross section of essays and book chapters dealing with the ways in which musicians and their music have been pressed into the service of political nationalist and racial ideologies Arranged chronologically according to their subject matter the selections cover Western and non Western musics as well as art and popular musics from the eighteenth century to the present day The introduction features detailed commentaries on sources beyond those included in the volume and as such provides an invaluable and comprehensive reading list for researchers and educators alike The volume brings together for the first time seminal articles written by leading scholars and presents them in such a way as to contribute significantly to our understanding of the use and abuse of music for ideological ends
