ruthless atrocities inflicted on them the Pandits sole concern was ensuring their own physical safety and their resolve not to convert to Islam Over 350 000 Kashmiri Pandits were forced to flee en masse leaving their home and hearth This was the single largest forced displacement of people of a particular ethnicity after partition of India Pandits travails did not end with the exodus The obstructive and intimidating attitude of the State administration towards the Pandit refugees made their post exodus existence even more miserable The Government at the Centre too remained indifferent to their plight This book traces the Pandits economic and political marginalization in the State over the past six decades and covers in detail the events that led to their eventual exodus In the light of ethnic cleansing of Pandits from the Valley the book also examines some critical issues so crucial to India s survival as a multi cultural liberal and secular democracy
