Ark Sakura:

The Ark Sakura Kōbō Abe, 1988 The protagonist of Abe's creation nicknamed Mole by himself and Pig by others is a dreamer and something of a mad inventor He turns an underground quarry into an ark that can survive a nuclear war and starts to recruit passengers to accompany him on a voyage

The Ark Sakura Kobo Abe, 2021-06-03 One of Japan's most venerated writers David Mitchell In this unnerving fable from one of Japan's greatest novelists a recluse known as Mole retreats to a vast underground bunker only to find that strange guests booby traps and a giant toilet may prove even greater obstacles than nuclear disaster As is true of Poe and Kafka Abe creates an unexpected impulsion One continues reading on and on New Yorker Abe's depiction of the deadly game of survival is hilarious but at the same time leaves us with a chilling sense of apprehension about the brave new world that awaits us Los Angeles Times

Sublime Voices Christopher Bolton, 2020-03-17 Since the 1950s Abe K b 1924 1993 has achieved an international reputation for his surreal or grotesque brand of avant garde literature From his early forays into science fiction to his more mature psychological novels and films and finally the complicated experimental works produced near the end of his career Abe weaves together a range of voices the styles of science and the language of literary forms In Abe's oeuvre this stylistic interplay links questions of language and subjectivity with issues of national identity and technological development in a way that ultimately aspires to become the catalyst for an artistic revolution While recognizing the disruptions such a revolution might entail Abe's texts embrace these disjunctions as a way of realizing radical new possibilities beyond everyday experience and everyday values By arguing that the crisis of identity and postwar anomie in Abe's works is inseparable from the need to marshal these different scientific and literary voices Christopher Bolton explores how this reconciliation of ideas and dialects is for Abe part of the process whereby texts and individuals form themselves a search for identity that must take place at the level of the self and society at large
