Collette, 2024-11-19 Examines how Armenia has been represented and imagined in texts from two periods in its history the Middle Ages and the nineteenth century Today most people who think of Armenia associate it with the genocide of 1915 the struggle Armenians waged after the First World War to reclaim their ancient lands in Anatolia a struggle complicated by centuries of subordination to the Ottomans by persistent Russian efforts to exert influence and claim territory and by Western indecision manifested in plentiful words but few deeds This book however tells a different story one of geo political importance strength struggle and diminishment narrated in texts largely created by and for Europeans and Americans It asks how the West imagined described and presented Armenia over time in historical and fictional accounts during two periods of close Armenian Western contact The first period spans the twelfth to fourteenth centuries it examines a variety of texts including the travel narratives of Marco Polo and John Mandeville William of Tyre s Deeds Done Beyond the Sea and romances such as King of Tars Bevis of Hampton and Le Roman de M lusine The second period is rooted in events during the nineteenth century American missionary movement It engages with a variety of popular and widely disseminated texts books pamphlets newspapers written and published in the United States from 1830 to the mid 1890s detailing the encounters between the missionaries and the Armenians frequently in the voices of women Muslim Military Architecture in Greater Syria Hugh N. Walsh, 2017-04-27 This book explores seven centuries of change in Cyprus and the Eastern Mediterranean world through the rise and fall of Famagusta s medieval Armenian Church An examination of the complex and its art escorts the reader from the era of the Crusades in Lusignan Cyprus through the rise and fall of the Venetian Ottoman and British Empires to the political stasis of the present day The Armenian church was a home for displaced villagers during the post independence era became a military storage facility post 1974 and eventually fell into abandonment once again This study represents a pioneering history of the Armenian community in Famagusta and a probing analysis of the art and architecture it left behind It is also a permanent record of the long term engagement and commitment of Nanyang Technological University Singapore the World Monuments Fund and the Famagusta Municipality to protect this precious site under extremely challenging circumstances Medieval Fortifications in Cilicia Dweezil

Vandekerckhove,2019-11-26 In Medieval Fortifications in Cilicia Dweezil Vandekerckhove offers an account of the origins development and spatial distribution of fortified sites in the Armenian Kingdom 1198 1375 Despite the abundance of archaeological remains the Armenian heritage had previously not been closely studied However through the examination of known and newly identified castles this work has now increased the number of sites and features associated with the Armenian Kingdom By the construction of numerous powerful castles the Armenians succeeded in establishing an independent kingdom which lasted until the Mamluk conquest in 1375 Dweezil Vandekerckhove convincingly proves that the medieval castles in Cilicia are of outstanding architectural interest with a significant place in the history of military architecture

Christian Thought in the Medieval Islamicate World Salam Rassi,2022 Christian Thought in the Medieval Islamicate World Abdisho of Nisibis and the Apologetic Tradition is the first monograph length study and intellectual biography of Abdisho of Nisibis d 1318 bishop and polymath of the Church of the East Focusing on his works of apologetic theology it examines the intellectual strategies he employs to justify Christianity against Muslim and to a lesser extent Jewish criticisms Better known to scholars of Syriac literature as a poet jurist and cataloguer Abdisho wrote a considerable number of works in the Arabic language many of which have only recently come to light He flourished at a time when Syriac Christian writers were becoming increasingly indebted to Islamic models of intellectual production Yet many of his writings were composed during mounting religious tensions following the official conversion of the Ilkhanate to Islam in 1295 In the midst of these challenges Abdisho negotiates a centuries long tradition of Syriac and Arabic apologetics to remind his readers of the verity of the Christian faith His engagement with this tradition reveals how anti Muslim apologetics had long shaped the articulation of Christian identity in the Middle East since the emergence of Islam Through a selective process of encyclopaedism and systematisation Abdisho navigates a vast corpus of Syriac and Arabic apologetics to create a synthesis and theological canon that remains authoritative to this day
