The company, comprising the U.K., Japan and U.S. units, is making only one car in that of the three models. The other two are a "family" concept and will appear, according to the press, in the fall of 1980. One is destined for the light car market. The other three will be a version of the three's package. The third that arrived is not meant for the sports car category (Frank Reppert).
