Arming Equipping The United States Cavalry 186519:

Arming and Equipping the U.S. Cavalry, 1865-1902 Dušan P. Farrington, 2004-01-01 A reference for US Cavalry weapons from the end of the Rebellion through the Indian Wars as well as the Spanish American War It is packed with serial numbers issue information reports from the field and more Meticulously researched and up to date it is a complete reference to all the arms and accoutrements

Weapons of the Civil War Cavalryman John Walter, 2020-09-22 Replete with specially commissioned artwork this lively study assesses the effectiveness of the various weapons equipping the Civil War cavalryman and the decisions made concerning the armament of the US cavalry after 1865 During the American Civil War the mounted soldiers fighting on both sides of the conflict carried a wide array of weapons from sabers and lances to carbines revolvers and other firearms Though some sections of the cavalry placed their trust in the sabre the advent of viable breechloading carbines especially repeaters such as the Spencer was to transform warfare within little more than a decade of General Lee's final surrender at Appomattox However output struggled to keep up with unprecedented demands on manufacturing technology and distribution in areas where communication was difficult and in states whose primary aim was to equip their own men rather than contribute to the arming of Federal or Confederate regiments In addition the almost unparalleled losses of men and equipment ensured that almost any firearm effectual or not was pressed into service Consequently the sheer variety of weaponry carried reflected the mounted soldiers various roles in different theaters of operation but also the availability or otherwise of weapons notably on the Confederate side Fully illustrated this study assesses the effectiveness of the many different weapons arming the Civil War cavalryman and analyses the strengths and weaknesses of the decisions made after 1865 concerning the armament of the US cavalry
