Choosing a Blend

- Identify the emotion you might be feeling or the emotional aromatherapy wheel.
- Select the corresponding essential oil blend that is right for you. (You may find that two or more blends are appropriate to balance your varied emotions at any given moment.) As essential oil chemistry is extremely complex and each person is unique in their response to specific aromas, you may also personalize your aromatherapy selections by using single botanical essential oils from the personal scent families corresponding to the emotions found on the system aromatherapy wheel and blends.

Emotional Blends Use Instructions

- Use aromatically in an essential oil diffuser.
- Apply 1 or 2 drops in your hands, rub hands together and inhale or your neck and rub gently (do not touch hands to your eyes).
- Grate and apply directly to an aching body part such as the back of the neck, on the wrists, and over the feet.
- For children with sensitive skin, dilute with a carrier oil and apply directly to the soles of the feet, particularly when going to bed or waking up each day.
- Add a few drops to add-on oil for a mood-reassuring massage.
