

A vintage black and white photograph of four women and a child in front of a house. The women are dressed in early 20th-century attire, including long dresses and hats. One woman is seated on the left, another stands next to her holding a child. A third woman is seated in the center, and a fourth stands on the right. The background shows a two-story house with a chimney and a large window. The photograph is framed by a dark border with a red inner line.
