Refugees and Migrants in Contemporary Film, Art and Media Deniz Bayrakdar, Robert Burgoyne, 2025-10-01 Migration in the 21st century is one of the pre eminent issues of our present historical moment a phenomenon that has acquired new urgency with accelerating climate change civil wars and growing economic scarcities Refugees and Migrants in Contemporary Film Art and Media consists of eleven essays that explore how artists have imaginatively engaged with this monumental human drama examining a range of alternative modes of representation that provide striking new takes on the experiences of these precarious populations Covering prominent art works by Ai Weiwei and Richard Mosse and extending the spectrum of representation to refugee film workshops on the island of Lesbos as well as virtual reality installations of Alejandro G I rritu and works by Balkan and Turkish directors such as Melisa nel the chapters included here focus on the power of aesthetic engagement to illuminate the stories of refugees and migrants in ways that overturn journalistic clichés

Cinema Alain Badiou, 2013-09-25 For Alain Badiou films think and it is the task of the philosopher to transcribe that thinking What is the subject to which the film gives expressive form This is the question that lies at the heart of Badiou s account of cinema He contends that cinema is an art form that bears witness to the Other and renders human presence visible thus testifying to the universal value of human existence and human freedom Through the experience of viewing the movement of thought that constitutes the film is passed on to the viewer who thereby encounters an aspect of the world and its exaltation and vitality as well as its difficulty and complexity Cinema is an impure art cannibalizing its times the other arts and people a major art precisely because it is the locus of the indiscernibility between art and non art It is this argues Badiou that makes cinema the social and political art par excellence the best indicator of our civilization in the way that Greek tragedy the coming of age novel and the operetta were in their respective eras The Remembered Film Victor Burgin, 2004 The Remembered Film addresses a previously overlooked aspect of cinema the isolated fragments of films iconic images or scenes that fleetingly cross our perceptions and thoughts in the course of everyday life The Palgrave Handbook of
