A concluding chapter reassesses Gorky's impact on the New York School in light of a new understanding of his aims and methods. Through close study of Gorky's oeuvre the author deciphers an iconography revealing the unexpected and systematic use of explicit ideas and symbols as well as commonplace objects, settings and personas from the artist's life. Humanities, 1998. Modernism for the Masses Jody Patterson, 2020-11-17. A mural renaissance swept the United States in the 1930s, propelled by the New Deal Federal Art Project and the popularity of Mexican muralism. Perhaps nowhere more than in New York City, murals became a crucial site for the development of abstract painting. Artists such as Stuart Davis, Arshile Gorky, Willem de Kooning and Lee Krasner created ambitious works for the Williamsburg Housing Project, Floyd Bennett Field Airport and the 1939 World's Fair. Modernism for the Masses examines the public murals realized and unrealized of these and other abstract painters and the aesthetic controversy, political influence and ideological warfare that surrounded them. Jody Patterson transforms standard narratives of modernism by reasserting the significance of the 1930s and explores the reasons for the omission of the mural's history from chronicles of American art. Beautifully illustrated with the artists' murals and little-known archival photographs, this book recovers the radical idea that modernist art was a vital part of everyday life. Benton, Pollock, and the Politics of Modernism Erika Doss, 1995-06. expressionism New
