Art And Patronage In The Medieval Mediterranean:

Art and Patronage in the Medieval Mediterranean Jill Caskey, 2004-12-06 An important trade center in the medieval Mediterranean Amalfi and its surrounding regions sustained impressive art production and patronage from the eleventh through thirteenth centuries With the rise of the Angevin kingdom however a demise of Amalfi's eclectic art tradition took place and by the fourteenth century its painting and sculpture reflected compromises between local and Neapolitan styles demonstrating the erosion of its autonomy The Grove Encyclopedia of Medieval Art and Architecture Colum Hourihane, 2012 This volume offers unparalleled coverage of all aspects of art and architecture from medieval Western Europe from the 6th century to the early 16th century Drawing upon the expansive scholarship in the celebrated Grove Dictionary of Art and adding hundreds of new entries it offers students researchers and the general public a reliable up to date and convenient resource covering this field of major importance in the development of Western history and international art and architecture Postcolonising the Medieval Image Eva Frojmovic, Catherine E. Karkov, 2017-03-16 The concept of this book involves the application of postcolonial theories and or concepts used in postcolonial and cognate studies to the field of medieval European art including Byzantine art and Byzantine art in Asia Minor A Companion to Medieval Art Conrad Rudolph, 2019-05-07 A fully updated and comprehensive companion to Romanesque and Gothic art history This definitive reference brings together cutting edge scholarship devoted to the Romanesque and Gothic traditions in Northern Europe and provides a clear analytical survey of what is happening in this major area of Western art history The volume comprises original theoretical historical and historiographic essays written by renowned and emergent scholars who discuss the vibrancy of medieval art from both thematic and sub disciplinary perspectives Part of the Blackwell Companions to Art History A Companion to Medieval Art Second Edition features an international and ambitious range of contributions covering reception formalism Gregory the Great pilgrimage art gender patronage marginalized images the concept of spolia manuscript illumination stained glass Cistercian architecture art of the crusader states and more Newly revised edition of a highly successful companion including 11 new articles Comprehensive coverage ranging from vision materiality and the artist through to architecture sculpture and painting Contains full color illustrations throughout plus notes on the book's many distinguished contributors A Companion to Medieval Art Romanesque and Gothic in Northern Europe Second Edition is an exciting and varied study that provides essential reading for students and teachers of Medieval art Experiencing Medieval Art Herbert L. Kessler, 2019-09-23 Renowned art historian Herbert L Kessler authors a love song to medieval art inviting students teachers and professional medievalists to experience the wondrous complex art of the Middle Ages Medieval Italy Katherine L. Jansen, Joanna Drell, Frances Andrews, 2011-09-21 Medieval Italy gathers together an unparalleled selection of newly translated primary sources from the central and later Middle Ages a period during which Italy was famous for its diverse cultural landscape of urban towers and fortified castles the spirituality of Saints Francis and Clare and the vernacular poetry of Dante Petrarch and Boccaccio The texts highlight the continuities with the medieval Latin West while simultaneously emphasizing the ways in which Italy was exceptional particularly for its cities that drove Mediterranean trade its new communal forms of government the impact of the papacy's temporal claims on the central peninsula and the richly textured religious life of the mainland and its islands A unique feature of this volume is its incorporation of the southern part of the peninsula and Sicily the glittering Norman court at Palermo the multicultural emporium of the south and the kingdoms of Frederick II into a larger narrative of Italian history Including Hebrew Arabic Greek and Lombard sources the documents speak in ethnically and religiously differentiated voices while providing wider chronological and geographical coverage than previously available Rich in interdisciplinary texts and organized to enable the reader to focus by specific region topic or period this is a volume that will be an essential resource for anyone with a professional or private interest in the history religion literature politics and built environment of Italy from ca 1000 to 1400 The Politics of Culture in

Quattrocento Europe Oren Jason Margolis, 2016 A study of Rene of Anjou a French prince and exiled king of Naples and how he engaged his Italian network in a programme of cultural politics conducted with an eye towards a return to power in the peninsula this volume seeks to understand the politics of culture in early Renaissance Europe through the lens of Italian humanism and art The French in the Kingdom of Sicily, 1266-1305 Jean Dunbabin, 2011-03-03 Charles of Anjou's conquest of the Sicilian Regno in 1266 transformed relations between France and the kingdom of Sicily This original study of contact and exchange in the Middle Ages explores the significance of the many cultural religious and political exchanges between the two countries arguing that the links were more diverse and stronger than simply the rulers family connections Jean Dunbabin shows how influence flowed as much from south to north as vice versa and that France was strongly influenced by the experiences of those who returned after years of fighting in the Regno As well as considering the experiences of notable crusading families she sheds new light on the career of Robert II d Artois who virtually ruled the Regno for six years before returning to France to remodel the government of Artois This comparative history of two societies offers an important perspective on medieval Western Europe Medieval Amalfi and Its Diaspora, 800-1250 Patricia Skinner, 2013-03-28 The first full length study in any language of the medieval Italian maritime republic of Amalfi during and after its period of political independence Explores Amalfi's significance in the history of the medieval Mediterranean world

Medieval Boundaries Sharon Kinoshita, 2013-03-01 In Medieval Boundaries Sharon Kinoshita examines the role of cross cultural contact in twelfth and early thirteenth century French literature Starting from the observation that many of the earliest and best known works of the French literary tradition are set on or beyond the borders of the French speaking world she reads the Chanson de Roland the lais of Marie de France and a variety of other texts in an expanded geographical frame that includes the Iberian peninsula the Welsh marches and the eastern Mediterranean In Kinoshita's reconceptualization of the geographical and cultural boundaries of the medieval West such places become significant not only as sites of conflict but also as spaces of intense political economic and cultural negotiation An important contribution to the emerging field of medieval postcolonialism Kinoshita's work explores the limitations of reading the literature of the French Middle Ages as an inevitable link in the historical construction of modern discourses of Orientalism colonialism race and Christian Muslim conflict Rather drawing on recent historical and art historical scholarship Kinoshita uncovers a vernacular culture at odds with official discourses of crusade and conquest Situating each work in its specific context she brings to light the lived experiences of the knights and nobles for whom this literature was first composed and in a series of close readings informed by postcolonial and feminist theory demonstrates that literary representations of cultural encounters often provided the pretext for questioning the most basic categories of medieval identity Awarded honorable mention for the 2007 Modern Language Association Aldo and Jeanne Scaglione Prize for French and Francophone Studies Italy, Cyprus, and Artistic Exchange in the Medieval Mediterranean Anthi Andronikou, 2022-09-08 In this volume Anthi Andronikou explores the social cultural religious and trade encounters between Italy and Cyprus during the late Middle Ages from ca 1200 1400 and situates them within several Mediterranean contexts Revealing the complex artistic exchange between the two regions for the first time she probes the rich but neglected cultural interaction through comparison of the intriguing thirteenth century wall paintings in rock cut churches of Apulia and Basilicata the puzzling panels of the Madonna della Madia and the Madonna di Andria and painted chapels in Cyprus Lebanon and Syria Andronikou also investigates fourteenth century cross currents that have not been adequately studied notably the cult of Saint Aquinas in Cyprus Crusader propaganda in Santa Maria Novella in Florence and a unique series of icons crafted by Venetian painters working in Cyprus Offering new insights into Italian and Byzantine visual cultures her book contributes to a broader understanding of cultural production and worldviews of the medieval Mediterranean Memorializing the Middle Classes in Medieval and Renaissance Europe Anne Leader, 2018-12-17 Offering a broad overview of memorialization practices across Europe and the Mediterranean this book examines local customs through particular case studies These essays explore complementary themes through the lens of commemorative art including social status personal and corporate identities the intersections of mercantile intellectual and religious attitudes upward and downward mobility and the cross cultural exchange Quaderni D'italianistica, 2005 Medieval Islamic Civilization: L-Z, index Josef W. Meri, 2006 Publisher description Art and Material Culture in the Byzantine and Islamic Worlds Evanthia Baboula, Lesley Jessop, 2021-04-19 Dedicated to Erica Cruikshank Dodd Art and Material Culture in the Byzantine and Islamic Worlds offers new perspectives on the Christian and Muslim communities of the east Mediterranean from medieval to contemporary times The contributors examine how people from diverse religious backgrounds adapted to their changing political landscapes and show that artistic patronage consumption and practices are interwoven with constructed narratives The essays consider material and textual evidence for painted media architecture and the creative process in Byzantium Crusader era polities the Ottoman empire and the modern Middle East thus demonstrating the importance of the past in understanding the present Contributors Evanthia Baboula Lesley Jessop Anthony Cutler Jaroslav Folda John Osborne Glenn Peers Annemarie Weyl Carr Mat Immerzeel Bas Snelders Angela Andersen May Farhat Marcus Milwright Rico Franses Byzantine Art and Italian Panel Painting Jaroslav Folda,2015-07-28 Jaroslav Folda traces the appropriation of the Byzantine Virgin and Child Hodegetria icon by thirteenth century Crusader and central Italian painters and explores its transformation by the introduction of chrysography on the figure of the Virgin in the Crusader Levant and in Italy Medieval Art, Modern Politics Brigitte Buettner,William J Diebold,2024-12-02 Medieval Art Modern Politics is an innovative volume of twelve essays by international scholars prefaced by a comprehensive introduction It examines the political uses and misuses of medieval images objects and the built environment from the 16th to the 20th century In case studies ranging from Russia to the US and from catacombs mosques cathedrals and feudal castles to museums and textbooks it demonstrates how the artistic and built legacy has been appropriated in post medieval times to legitimize varied political agendas whether royalist imperial fascist or colonial Entities as diverse as the Roman papacy the Catholic Church local arts organizations private owners of medieval fortresses or organizers of exhibitions and publishers are examined for the multiple ways they co opt medieval works of art Medieval Art Modern Politics enlarges the history of revivalism and of medievalism by giving it a uniquely political twist demonstrating the unavoidable but often ignored intersection of art history knowledge and power Raqqa Revisited Metropolitan Museum of Art (New York, N.Y.),Marilyn Jenkins,2006 What follows in these pages is the chronicle of ceramic objects unearthed in Raqqa in the first quarter of the twentieth century Marilyn Jenkins Madina Curator Emerita of Islamic Art at the Metropolitan Museum describes the dramatic journey of these ceramics from their discovery in the medieval city to the emporiums of Paris and New York the drawing rooms of the great collectors and the galleries of the Metropolitan Museum Using art historical detective work archival documents and scientific data the author convincingly establishes provenance and dating placing these objects some of the most exquisite ever produced by Islamic potters in a secure historical context for the first time BOOK JACKET
