Art An Everyday Experience:

The Museum Establishment and Contemporary Art Rebecca J. DeRoo, 2006-01-09 This book provides an in depth account of the protests that shook France in 1968 and which served as a catalyst to a radical reconsideration of artistic practice that has shaped both art and museum exhibitions up to the present Rebecca DeRoo examines how issues of historical and personal memory the separation of public and private domains and the ordinary objects of everyday life emerged as central concerns for museums and for artists as both struggled to respond to the protests She argues that the responses of the museums were only partially faithful to the aims of the activist movements Museums in fact often misunderstood and misrepresented the work of artists that was exhibited as a means of addressing these concerns Analyzing how museums and critics did and did not address the aims of the protests DeRoo highlights the issues relevant to the politics of the public display of art that have been central to artistic representation in France as well as in North America

Life Kirsteen Paton,2023-11-28 Exploring the issues of class through in depth studies of housing sport art music and politics in Britain Class and Everyday Life persuasively demonstrates the pervasive influence of class on everyday life and the need to centre a radical understanding of class within emancipatory political movements The need for a more expansive understanding of class is politically urgent There is a disconnect between descriptive and analytical approaches to class and the politics of class and realities around how class is lived Discourse has been shaped by top down frameworks of analysis and measurements which have stripped the study of class of its political radicalism This book makes the case for a sociology of class which is informed by a politics of class based upon using the everyday as the point of enquiry It presents a sociology of class from the bottom up which focuses on everyday life and the point at which class is made and remade In doing so it advocates for an attentiveness to class and everyday life through a conjunctural analysis Using an everyday lens this book examines how the shifting conjunctures manifest in everyday spaces in classed ways and how such changes are negotiated resisted and shape the working class subject and communities This is based upon an understanding of everyday classed experiences which identifies and challenges inequalities while also recognising value and hope This perspective aims to offer a recognition of both the opportunities and challenges of class as a way of developing a stronger more politicised understanding of class which takes solidarity and class community power seriously to resist inequality and develop emancipatory politics This urgent and impassioned book will be essential reading for students academics and activists with an interest in the lived experience of class in Britain today The Aesthetics of Everyday Life Andrew Light,Jonathan Smith,2005-02-23 The aesthetics of everyday life originally developed by Henri Lefebvre and other modernist theorists is an extension of traditional aesthetics usually confined to works of art It is not limited to the study of humble objects but is rather concerned with all of the undeniably aesthetic experiences that arise when one contemplates objects or performs acts that are outside the traditional realm of aesthetics It is concerned with the nature of the relationship between subject and object One significant aspect of everyday aesthetics is environmental aesthetics whether constructed as a building or manipulated as a landscape Others also discussed in the book include sport weather smell and taste and food Everyday Life Roger Abrahams,2011-06-07 A folklorist and ethnographer who has written about the Southern Appalachians African American communities in the United States and the West Indies Roger D Abrahams goes up against the triviality barrier Here he takes on the systematics of his own culture He traces forms of mundane experience and the substrate of mutual understandings carried around as part of our own cultural longings and belongings Everyday Life explores the entire range of social gatherings from chance encounters and casual conversations to well rehearsed performances in theaters and stadiums Abrahams ties the everyday to those more intense experiences of playful celebration and serious power displays and shows how these seemingly disparate entities are cut from the same cloth of human communication Abrahams explores the core components of everyday ness including aspects of sociability and goodwill from jokes and stories to elaborate networks of organization both formal and informal in the workplace He analyzes how the past enters our present through common experiences and attitudes through our shared practices and their underlying values Everyday Life begins with the vernacular terms for old talk and offers an overview of the range of practices thought of as customary or traditional Chapters are concerned directly with the terms for intense experiences mostly forms of play and celebration but extending to riots and other forms of social and political resistance Finally Abrahams addresses key terms that have recently come front and center in sociological discussions of culture in a global perspective such as identity ethnicity creolization and diaspora thus taking on academic jargon words as they are introduced into vernacular discussions

Koefoed,Bo Kristian Holm,Christopher B. Brown,Günter Frank,Barbara Mahlmann-Bauer,Tarald Rasmussen,Violet Soen,Zsombor Tóth,Günther Wassilowsky,Siegrid Westphal,2023-11-13 The European reformations meant major changes in theology religion and everyday life Some changes were immediate and visible in a number of countries monasteries were dissolved new liturgies were introduced and married pastors were ordained others were more hidden Theologically as well as practically the position of the church in the society changed dramatically but differently according to confession and political differences This volume addresses the question of how the theological liturgical and organizational changes brought by the reformation within different confessional cultures throughout Europe influenced the everyday life of ordinary people within the church and within society The different contributions in the book ask how lived religion space and everyday life were formed in the aftermath of the reformation and how we can trace changes in material culture in emotions in social structures in culture which may be linked to the reformation and the development of confessional cultures

Artistic Visions and the Promise of Beauty Kathleen M. Higgins, Shakti Maira, Sonia Sikka, 2017-03-06 This volume examines the motives behind rejections of beauty often found within contemporary art practice where much critically acclaimed art is deliberately ugly and alienating It reflects on the nature and value of beauty asking whether beauty still has a future in art and what role it can play in our lives generally The volume discusses the possible end of art what art is and the relation between art and beauty beyond their historically Western horizons to include perspectives from Asia The individual chapters address a number of interrelated issues including art beauty and the sacred beauty as a source of joy and consolation beauty as a bridge between the natural and the human beauty and the human form the role of curatorial practice in defining art order and creativity and the distinction between art and craft The volume offers a valuable addition to cross cultural dialogue and in particular to the sparse literature on art and beauty in comparative context It demonstrates the relevance of the rich tradition of Asian aesthetics and the vibrant practices of contemporary art in Asia to Western discussions about the future of art and the role of beauty

Aesthetics of Everyday Life Curtis L. Carter, Liu Yuedi, 2014-10-02 As a new trend in aesthetics appearing concurrently in the West and the East in the last ten years the aesthetics of everyday life points to a growing diversification among existing methodologies for pursuing aesthetics alongside the shift from art based aesthetics The cultural diversity manifest in global aesthetics offers common ground for the collaborative efforts of aesthetics in both the West and the East

Given the rapidly growing interest and its potential for attracting new audiences extending beyond the more narrowly focused traditions of twentieth century analytic and environmental aesthetics it stands to command its own share of attention in the future of aesthetic studies The aesthetics of everyday life has become a stream of thought with a global ambition This interest has led to numerous systematic and in depth works on this topic some of which were conducted by the authors represented in this volume A salient feature of this book is that it not only represents the recent developments of the aesthetics of everyday life in the West but also highlights the interaction between scholars in the West and the East on this topic Thus the project is a contribution toward mutual progress in the collaboration between Western and Eastern aesthetics What distinguishes this book from other anthologies and monographs on this topic is that it reconstructs the aesthetics of everyday life through cultural dialogue between the West and the East with a view to building a new form of aesthetics of everyday life as seen from a global perspective At present the aesthetics of everyday life as a newly emergent approach to aesthetics may encounter skepticism among aestheticians accustomed to the rigors of analytic philosophers who prefer to discuss aesthetics at the level of abstract concepts and argument and who tolerate the particulars of experience mainly as illustrations But there is no reason to abandon the pursuit of the aesthetics of everyday life in the face of such objections On the contrary there are many benefits to gain in bringing aesthetics to bear on a wider sphere of human life made possible through efforts to show the relevance of aesthetics to a broader range of human actions
