Bertman, 2018-02-06 For nearly three decades York as both a place and an idea Sandra Bertman has been exploring the power of the arts and belief symbols metaphors stories to alleviate psychological and spiritual pain not only of patients grieving family members and affected communities but also of the nurses clergy and physicians who minister to them Her training sessions and clinical interventions are based on the premise that bringing out the creative potential inherent in each of us is just as relevant perhaps more so as psychiatric theory and treatment models since grief and loss are an integral part of life Thus this work was compiled to illuminate the many facets that link grief counseling and creativity. The multiple strategies suggested in these essays will help practitioners enlarge their repertoire of hands on skills and foster introspection and empathy in readers The London Literary Gazette and Journal of Belles Lettres, Arts, Sciences, Etc., 1823 The Last Man To Die Shruti Sedani, 2025-05-13 What happens when humanity no longer fears death because it no longer exists In a future where a discovery called Eterna grants eternal life the world celebrates its victory over mortality But one man Ishan Verma dares to walk the opposite path he chooses to die His decision becomes a spark in a silent world awakening buried questions about the soul purpose and the forgotten beauty of impermanence Set in the spiritual heartlands of India The Last Man to Die is a haunting exploration of immortality identity and the search for meaning in a world that has erased endings As science triumphs over nature this story reminds us that sometimes the most radical act is to let go Emotional unsettling and deeply philosophical this novel invites readers to reflect on what it truly means to live and why we must someday die
