Four Central Asian Shrines R.D. McChesney, 2021-05-25 In Central Asia Muslim shrines have served as community centers for centuries particularly the large urban shrines that seem in many cases to have served as the inspiration as well for a city's architectural development In Four Central Asian Shrines A Socio Political History of Architecture R D McChesney documents the histories of four such long standing shrines Gur i Mir at Samarqand Khwajah Abu Nasr Parsa Mazar at Balkh the Noble Rawzah at Mazar i Sharif and the Khirqat al Nabi at Qandahar In all four cases the creation and evolution of the architecture of these shrines is traced through narratives about their social and political histories and in the past century and a half through the photographic record

The Creation of Kazakh National Identity Dmitry V. Shlapentokh, 2023-10-31 This monograph utilizes three theoretical models to explain Kazakhstan's emergence as an independent state and its changing relationships with the broader world particularly Russia since the beginning of the twentieth century The book first explores the construction of Kazakh national identity and the ways in which intellectuals appealed to history to substantiate their claims about Kazakhstan's future Secondly the narrative demonstrates that not all segments of totalitarian machinery work in unison While terror reached its peak in the 1930s cultural and ideological control was not as rigid as it would become in the late 1940s and early 1950s Most importantly the work is grounded in the study of the social universe The book introduces the notion of cosmos the peculiar connections between social economic and political forces While not necessarily directly dependent on each other they nevertheless created a unique interplay among the segments of societal structures and the state's relationship with the wider universe Taking this framework as the point of departure this research analyzes Kazakhstan's multi vectorism as uniquely fit to contemporary global arrangements when no global power dominates and the lines between friend and foe are blurred This compelling approach to Kazakhstan's history will appeal to postgraduate students and scholars in Russian history and world history

Genealogical History in the Persianate World Jo-Ann Gross, Daniel Beben, 2025-07-24 While genealogical sources have received attention in scholarship on the Arab world it remains mostly unstudied in Persianate societies The chapters in this book offer reflections on theoretical and methodological issues concerning the study of genealogical documentation combined with case studies based on previously unpublished unstudied source materials The topics explored span the full breadth of the Persianate world from Anatolia to the Ferghana Valley in Central Asia to the Gujarat region of India utilizing sources dating from the fourteenth to the twentieth century The book demonstrates the value of genealogical documentation as historical sources for scholars and students of Islamic history and the Persianate ecumene and beyond Provided by publisher
