Armies and Politics in the Early Medieval West Bernard S. Bachrach, 2024-10-28

In these articles Professor Bachrach starts by looking at aspects of the barbarian occupation of the land of the Roman Empire from Britain to the Alan settlements in southern Gaul His particular interest however is in the political and above all in the military structures that grew out of the Early Middle Ages He has sought to demonstrate that there was a fundamental continuity in military organisation and tactics from the Merovingian through the Carolingian period As he shows there is no reason to connect the origins of feudalism with Charles Martel s wish to create a force of cavalry and it is a fallacy that he grasped the potential of the stirrup for enabling mounted shock combat On the contrary its use in the West progressed only slowly and it had nothing to do with the origins or growth of feudalism Le professeur Bachrach d bute par l analyse de certains aspects de l occupation barbare des terres de l empire romain de la Grande Bretagne aux campements alans en Gaule m ridionale Il s attache en suite aux structures politiques et surtout militaires qui furent issues du Haut Moyen Age Selon lui et il tente d en faire ici la d monstration l organisation et les tactiques militaires ont fait preuve d une continuit fondamentale de l poque m rovingienne celle des Carolingiens Comme il le demontre il n y a pas lieu d tablir de liens entre l origine du f odalisme et le d sir qu avait Charles Martel de cr er une cavalerie il est galemment tout fait erron de dire que ce dernier s tait rendu compte du potentiel de l trier en tant que facteur de mener des combats cheval de choc Bien contraire l utilisation de l trier l Ouest ne fit que progresser lentement et aucun rapport n existe entre cet instrument et l origine ou la croissance de la f odalit

Journal of Medieval Military History: Volume XXI Kelly DeVries, Clifford J. Rogers, John France, 2023-06-06 The leading academic vehicle for scholarly publication in the field of medieval warfare Medieval Warfare The twenty first volume of the Journal of Medieval Military History begins with three studies examining aspects of warfare in the Latin East an archaeological report on the defenses of Jerusalem by Shimon Gibson and Rafael Y Lewis a study of how military victories and defeats viewed through the lens of carefully shaped reporting affected the reputation and the flow of funds and recruits to the Military Orders by Nicolas Morton and an exploration of how the Kingdom of Jerusalem quickly recovered its military strength after the disaster of Hattin by Stephen Donnachie Turning to the other side of the Mediterranean Donald J Kagay analyzes how Jaime I of Aragon worked to control violence within his realms by limiting both castle construction and the use of mechanical artillery Guilhem P pin also addresses the limitation of violence using new documents to show that the Black Prince's sack of Limoges in 1370 was not the unrestrained bloodbath described by Froissart The remaining three contributions deal with aspects of open battle Michael John Harbinson offers a large scale study of when and why late medieval men at arms chose to dismount and fight on foot instead of acting tactically as cavalry Laurence W Marvin reconsiders the Battle of Bouvines concluding that it was far from being a ritualized mass duel Finally Michael Livingston elucidates some principles for understanding medieval battles in general and the battle of Agincourt in particular
