Squier, 2000-11-15 Although the themes of women's complicity in and resistance to war have been part of literature from early times they have not been fully integrated into conventional conceptions of the war narrative Combining feminist literary criticism with the emerging field of feminist war theory this collection explores the role of gender as an organizing principle in the war system and reveals how literature perpetuates the ancient myth of arms and the man The volume shows how the gendered conception of war has both shaped literary texts and formed the literary canon It identifies and interrogates the conventional war text with its culturally determined split between warlike men and peaceful women and it confirms that women's role in relation to war is much more complex and complicitous than such essentializing suggests The contributors examine a wide range of familiar texts from fresh perspectives and bring new texts to light Collectively these essays range in time from the Trojan War to the nuclear age The contributors are June Jordan Lorraine Helms Patricia Francis Cholakian Jane E Schultz Margaret R Higonnet James Longenbach Laura Stempel Mumford Sharon O'Brien Jane Marcus Sara Friedrichsmeyer Susan Schweik Carol J Adams Esther Fuchs Barbara Freeman Gillian Brown Helen M Cooper Adrienne Auslander Munich and Susan Merrill Squier Women and Romance Susan Ostrov Weisser, 2001-07 Weisser English Adelphi U writes that her anthology is for anyone who is interested in understanding the conflicted but powerful female urge to experience the pleasure and endure the pain of romantic love In particular she explores the collision of pervasive media images of romance with feminist values of independence and self assertion Several dozen historic and contemporary works of criticism personal essays and letters by feminist and anti feminist thinkers consider changing images of romantic love and whether romance fundamentally weakens or empowers women Contributors include Jean Jacques Rousseau Charlotte Bronte Karen Horney Simone de Beauvoir Rita Mae Brown bell hooks Vivian Gornick and Carolyn Heilbrun c Book News Inc

Congress, 1983 The Congressional Record is the official record of the proceedings and debates of the United States Congress It is published daily when Congress is in session The Congressional Record began publication in 1873 Debates for sessions prior to 1873 are recorded in The Debates and Proceedings in the Congress of the United States 1789 1824 the Register of Debates in Congress 1824 1837 and the Congressional Globe 1833 1873 Harper's New Monthly Magazine , 1858 Important American periodical dating back to 1850 Harper's New Monthly Magazine Henry Mills Alden, 1858 Harper's informs a diverse body of readers of cultural business political literary and scientific affairs The World and the Parish Willa Cather, 1970-01-01 One of the few really helpful words I ever heard from an older writer Willa Cather declared in 1922 I had from Sarah Orne Jewett when she said to me Of course one day you will write about your own country In the meantime get all you can One must know the world so well before one can know the parish Although Cather's first novel about her own country O Pioneers did not appear until 1913 the process of knowing the world and of mastering her craft so far as it can be traced in her published writing already had been going on for some twenty years The World and the Parish Willa Cather's Articles and Reviews 1893 1902 is the fourth in a series collecting the work of these years of experiment and discovery More specifically it offers a representative collection of Cather's nonfiction writing for newspapers and periodicals during her first decade as a professional writer Selected from 520 articles and columns the text is divided into three parts corresponding to major developments in Cather's career the period from 1893 to 1896 when she first began to write regularly for Lincoln newspapers the years in Pittsburgh when she was working for the Home Monthly and the Leader and sending her famous Passing Show column back to Nebraska and the period from the spring of 1900 to 1903 when she freelanced in Pittsburgh and Washington taught in a Pittsburgh high school and made her first trip abroad The text has been edited with three main objectives 1 to enable the reader to trace Cather's development as a writer 2 to group the material so that the reader interested in a particular subject the theatre or music or literature for example can readily locate pertinent selections and 3 to provide a context sufficient to relate these pieces to Willa Cather's life and to the times and to suggest some of their connections with the body of her work Chronologies have been included for each of the three parts and the Bibliography is the most complete yet available for the for the nonfiction writing up to 1903 Not the least remarkable feature of this collection is the range and variety of forms and subject matter reviews of books plays operas concerts art exhibits lectures feature stories interviews straight reportage columns of miscellaneous comment and travel letters Seemingly with no apparent effort Willa Cather could adjust her sights to any assignment and any audience And if it is astonishing that she could write so much about so many matters at so many levels it is perhaps even more astonishing that so much of it was so good Undeniably however the chief interest to the general reader and the peculiar value to the scholar of these journalistic writings reside in their manifold and crucial connections with Cather s later work and in the unparalleled insights they afford into the process by which a gifted writer becomes a great artist Primitive Love and Love-stories Henry T. Finck,1899
