Between Homelands in Michael Ondaatje's Fiction Julie Mehta, Harish Mehta, 2024-09-13 Between Homelands in Michael Ondaatje's Fiction is a comprehensive study of the novels of the Sri Lankan Canadian author and poet Michael Ondaatje. This survey of the Booker Prize winning novelist's works locates him as a powerful voice that urges globalization and multiculturalism in a world that is closing its borders. It reconnoitres Ondaatje's search for a homeland by cracking open the core of his evocative inventive and innovative concepts that undergird his art of storytelling. The contributors in this volume examine themes such as literary cosmopolitanism Sri Lankan identity diasporic identity race and racism home and belonging trauma in the Sri Lankan civil war war games and uncertainty theory. An important contribution to Ondaatje studies, the book is an indispensable resource for students and researchers of Sri Lankan literature diasporic and world literatures South Asian and Canadian studies cultural studies postcolonial fiction and history.

Year 1966 Katarzyna Chmielewska, Tomasz Żukowski, 2025-05-30 Year 1966 analyzes the breakthrough moment in the culture of the Polish People's Republic when revolutionary social and cultural changes slowed down in the mid 1960s leading to a turn toward the idea of a nation as a field of ideological dispute between different social actors. The book explores the question of what happened in Polish culture at that time: how social ties were defined where sources of legitimization of power for the new order were sought beyond the slogans of the revolution equality advancement or prosperity how historical politics participated in this process the fate of the great emancipation projects of the 1950s such as emancipation of women or equality for ethnic minorities and how the meanings of the related narratives changed. It also shows how all important actors the diverse power camp the emerging opposition the Church participated in this process adapted their own narratives and built a new understanding of society social ties history and collective identity with effects that would weigh heavily on the democratic transformations of the 1990s. This volume is intended for researchers interested in the history and culture of Poland communist Central and Eastern Europe memory studies cultural and literary history social history and sociology.

Queering Masculinities in Language and Culture Paul Baker, Giuseppe Balirano, 2017-12-08 How do we learn what it means to be a man? And how do we learn to question what it means to be a man? This collection comprises a set of original interdisciplinary chapters on the linguistic and cultural representations of queer masculinities in a range of new and older media: television film online forums news reporting advertising and fiction. This innovative work examines new and emerging forms of gender hybridisation in relation to complex socialisation and immigration contexts including the role of EU institutions in ascertaining asylum seekers sexual orientation and the European laws on gender policy. The book employs numerous analytical approaches including critical discourse analysis corpus linguistics multimodal analysis literary criticism and anthropological and social research. The authors show how such texts can disrupt question or complicate traditional notions of what it means to be a man queering the idea that men possess fixed identities or desires instead arguing that masculinity is constantly changing and negotiated through the cultural and political overlapping contexts in which it is regularly produced These nuanced analyses will bring fresh insights for students and scholars of gender masculinity and queer studies linguistics anthropology and semiotics
