Art and Artists of Twentieth-century China Michael Sullivan,1996 This visually stunning book focuses on the rebirth of Chinese art in the twentieth century under the influence of Western art and culture Sullivan discusses artists and their work against China's background of oppression and relaxation despair and hope Art and Artists of Twentieth-Century China Michael Sullivan,2023-12-22 This visually stunning book focuses on the rebirth of Chinese art in the twentieth century under the influence of Western art and culture Michael Sullivan recognized throughout the world as a leading scholar of Chinese art vividly documents the conflicting pulls of traditional and Western values on Chinese art and provides 364 illustrations in color and black and white to show the great range of artistic expression and the historical processes that occurred within various movements A substantial biographical index of twentieth century Chinese artists is a valuable addition to the text Sullivan discusses artists and their work against China's background of oppression and relaxation despair and hope He expertly conveys the diverse and at times bizarre intertwining of Chinese cultural history and art during this century Included are the intense debates between traditionalists and reformers the creation of the first art schools and the birth of the idea shocking in ethnocentric China that art is a world language that obliterates all frontiers The scholarly traditions of classical Chinese painting the belated discovery of Western modernism the artistic upheaval under Communism and China's rethinking of the very nature of art all have a place in Sullivan's fascinating history Michael Sullivan has known many of the major figures in China's modern art movement of the 1930s and 1940s and has also gained the confidence of younger artists who rose to prominence following the 1979 Peking Spring This long awaited book richly documented and abundantly illustrated is a capstone to Sullivan's work and will be enthusiastically welcomed by art lovers everywhere Literature and the Arts in Twentieth Century China Adolphe Clarence Scott,1963 An Index to Reproductions of Paintings by Twentieth-Century Chinese Artists Ellen Johnston Laing,2021-01-19 In the second half of the twentieth century studies in Chinese painting history have been greatly aided by several major lists of Chinese artists and their works Published between 1956 and 1980 these lists were limited to Imperial China The current index covers the period from 1912 to around 1980 It includes the names of approximately 3 500 traditional style artists along with lists of their works reproduced in some 264 monographs books journals and catalogs published from the 1920s to around 1980 With a few exceptions artists working after 1949 outside continental China are excluded Revised Edition 1998 first published by the Asian Studies Program University of Oregon 1984 Subversive Strategies in Contemporary Chinese Art Mary Wiseman,Liu Yuedi,2011-03-21 What is art and what is its role in a China that is changing at a dizzying speed These questions lie at the heart of Chinese contemporary art Subversive Strategies paves the way for the rebirth of a Chinese aesthetics adequate to the art whose sheer energy and imaginative power is subverting the ideas through which western and Chinese critics think about art The first collection of essays by American and Chinese philosophers and art historians Subversive Strategies begins by showing how the art reflects current crises and is working them out through bodies gendered and political The essays raise the question of Chinese identity in a global world and note a blurring of the boundary between art and everyday life Museum Representations of Maoist China Amy Jane Barnes, 2016-04-15 The collection interpretation and display of art from the People's Republic of China and particularly the art of the Cultural Revolution have been problematic for museums These objects challenge our perception of Chineseness and their style content and the means of their production question accepted notions of how we perceive art This book links art history museology and visual culture studies to examine how museums have attempted to reveal discuss and resolve some of these issues Amy Jane Barnes addresses a series of related issues associated with collection and display how museums deal with difficult and controversial subjects the role they play in mediating between the object and the audience the role of the Other in the creation of Self and national identities the nature role and function of art in society the museum as image maker the impact of communism and Maoism on the cultural history of the twentieth century and the appropriation of communist visual iconography This book will be of interest to researchers and students of museology visual and cultural studies as well as scholars of Chinese and revolutionary art Chinese Art Maxwell K. Hearn, Judith G. Smith, Metropolitan Museum of Art (New York, N.Y.), 2001 China's entry into the modern era was shaped by unprecedented internal turmoil and external pressures which brought a forceful end to two millennia of imperial rule and cultural insularity The essays in this volume offer a variety of perspectives on the impact of the West on indigenous literature architecture painting and calligraphy during this period ca 1860-1980 This book is published in conjunction with the exhibition Nineteenth and Twentieth Century Chinese Paintings from the Robert H. Ellsworth Collection in The Metropolitan Museum of Art held at the museum from 30th January-19th August 2001 Total Modernity and the Avant-Garde in Twentieth-Century Chinese Art Minglu Gao, 2011-04-29 A groundbreaking book that describes a distinctively Chinese avant-gardism and a modernity that unifies art politics and social life To the extent that Chinese contemporary art has become a global phenomenon it is largely through the groundbreaking exhibitions curated by Gao Minglu China Avant-Garde Beijing 1989 Inside Out New Chinese Art Asia Society New York 1998 and The Wall Reshaping Contemporary Chinese Art Albright Knox Art Gallery 2005 among them As the first Chinese writer to articulate a distinctively Chinese avant-gardism and modernity one not defined by Western chronology or formalism Gao Minglu is largely responsible for the visibility of Chinese art in the global art scene today Contemporary Chinese artists tend to navigate between extremes either embracing or rejecting a rich classical tradition Indeed for Chinese artists the term modernity refers not to a new epoch or aesthetic but to a new nation modernity inextricably connects politics to art It is this notion of total modernity that forms the foundation of the Chinese avant-garde aesthetic and of this book Gao examines the many ways Chinese artists engaged with this intrinsic total modernity including the 85 Movement political pop cynical realism apartment art maximalism and the museum age encompassing the emergence of local art museums and organizations as well as such major events as the Shanghai Biennial

He describes the inner logic of the Chinese context while locating the art within the framework of a worldwide avant garde. He vividly describes the Chinese avant garde's embrace of a modernity that unifies politics, aesthetics, and social life, blurring the boundaries between abstraction, conception, and representation. Lavishly illustrated with color images throughout, this book will be a touchstone for all considerations of Chinese contemporary art. New Histories of Art in the Global Postwar Era Flavia Frigeri, Kristian Handberg, 2021-03-24. This book maps key moments in the history of postwar art from a global perspective. The reader is introduced to a new globally oriented approach to art, artists, museums, and movements of the postwar era, 1945-70. Specifically, this book bridges the gap between historical artistic centers such as Paris and New York and peripheral loci. Through case studies, previously unknown networks, circulations, divides, and controversies are brought to light. From the development of Ethiopian modernism to the showcase of Brazilian modernity, this book provides readers with a new set of coordinates and a reassessment of well-trodden art historical narratives around modernism. This book will be of interest to scholars in art historiography, art history, exhibition, and curatorial studies, modern art, and globalization.

Art History, Narratology, and Twentieth-Century Chinese Art Lian Duan, 2023-07-28. This study constructs a framework of narratology for art history and rewrites the development of twentieth-century Chinese art from a narratological perspective. Theoretically and methodologically oriented, this is a self-reflective meta-art history studying the art historical narratives while narrating the story of modern and contemporary Chinese art. Thus, this book explores the three layers of narrative within the narratological framework: the first-hand fabula, the secondary narration, and the tertiary narrativization. With this tertiary narrativization, the reader/author presents three types of narrative: the grand narrative of the central thesis of this book, the middle-range narrative of the chapter theses, and case analyses supporting these theses. The focus of this tertiary narrativization is the interaction between Western influence on Chinese art and the Chinese response to this influence. The central thesis is that this interaction conditioned and shaped the development of Chinese art at every historical turning point in the twentieth century. The book will be of interest to scholars working in art history, critical theory, Chinese studies, and cultural studies.

The Making of a Modern Art World Pedit Pui Chan, 2017-03-06. The Making of a Modern Art World explores the artistic institutions and discursive practices prevailing in Republican Shanghai, aiming to reconstruct the operational logic and the stratified hierarchy of Shanghai's art world. Using guohua as the point of entry, this book interrogates the discourse both of guohua itself and the wider discourse of Chinese modernism in the visual arts. In the light of the sociological definition of art world, this book contextualizes guohua through focusing on the modes of production and consumption of painting in Shanghai, examining newly adopted modern artistic practices, namely art associations, periodicals, art colleges, exhibitions, and the art market.

The Art of Modern China Julia F. Andrews, Kuiyi Shen, 2012-09-24. In the early twentieth century, China occupies a place on center stage in the international art world.
