Art Revolution In Latin America:

Art and Revolution in Latin America, 1910-1990 David Craven, 2006-01-01 In this uniquely wide ranging book David Craven investigates the extraordinary impact of three Latin American revolutions on the visual arts and on cultural policy The three great upheavals in Mexico 1910 40 in Cuba 1959 89 and in Nicaragua 1979 90 were defining moments in twentieth century life in the Americas Craven discusses the structural logic of each movement s artistic project by whom how and for whom artworks were produced and assesses their legacies In each case he demonstrates how the consequences of the revolution reverberated in the arts and cultures far beyond national borders The book not only examines specific artworks originating from each revolution s attempt to deal with the challenge of socializing the arts but also the engagement of the working classes in Mexico Cuba and Nicaragua with a tradition of the fine arts made newly accessible through social transformation Craven considers how each revolution dealt with the pressing problem of creating a dialogical art one that reconfigures the existing artistic resource rather than one that just reproduces a populist art to keep things as they were In addition the author charts the impact on the revolutionary processes of theories of art and education articulated by such thinkers as John Dewey and Paulo Freire The book provides a fascinating new view of the Latin American revolutionaries from artists to political leaders who defined art as a fundamental force for the transformation of society and who bequeathed new ways of thinking about the relations among art ideology and class within a revolutionary process Art and Revolution

America Marta Traba, 1994-01-01 Marta Traba one of Latin America s most controversial art critics examines the works of over 1 000 artists from the first 80 years of the 20th century This book is an indispensable reference for anyone interested in studying the evolution of Latin American art Dimensions of the Americas Shifra M. Goldman, 1995 This volume presents an overview of the social history of modern and contemporary Latin American and Latino art This collection of thirty three essays focuses on Latin American artists throughout Mexico Central and South America the Caribbean and the United States The author provides a chronology of modern Latin American art a history of social art history in the United States and synopses of recent theoretical and historical writings by major scholars from Mexico Cuba Brazil Peru Uruguay Chile and the United States In her essays she discusses a vast array of topics including the influence of the Mexican muralists on the American continent the political and artistic significance of poster art and printmaking in Cuba Puerto Rico and among Chicanos the role of women artists such as Guatemalan painter Isabel Ruiz and the increasingly important role of politics and multinational businesses in the art world of the 1970s and 1980s She explores the reception of Latin American and Latino art in the United States focusing on major historical exhibits as well as on exhibits by artists such as Chilean Alfredo Jaar and Argentinean Leandro Katz Finally she examines the significance of nationalist and ethnic themes in Latin American and Latino art Latin American Art at The Museum of Modern Art Miriam M. Basilio Gaztambide, 2025-06-13 This book sheds light on an as yet unstudied aspect of The Museum of Modern Art s MoMA preeminent role in establishing the definition of the problematic term Latin American art in the United States from the 1930s to the present through its collection displays In examining the shifting categorization of Latin American works according to stylistic and geographic taxonomies we gain a greater understanding of the organization of the Museum s collections as a whole during the 1940s and 1950s This book is the first to document these institutional precedents crucial for the understanding of the articulation of a Modernist canon and its contested legacy today The MoMA is widely recognized as the preeminent institution that defined 20th century art through its collection shaping our understandings of the history of art with its hierarchies and exclusions as they sediment over time MoMA s holdings of art from Latin America shed light on a key period when the stylistic categories that have since come to be accepted by many today as the Modernist canon developed MoMA's collection displays suggest ways in which artists from areas of the world formerly excluded can be incorporated within today's increasingly global museums MoMA's approach may be compared to initiatives adopted by several museums since the 2000s creating geographically defined curatorial positions as a way to redress gaps in collecting art from Latin America and other areas of the world In this book author Miriam M Basilio Gaztambide offers a closer study of the history of collection displays as a means to understand canon formation in modern art museums This work will be of interest to those researching Latin American modern and contemporary art and curatorial and museum studies

Surrealism in Latin America Dawn Ades, Rita Eder, Graciela Speranza, 2012-10-16 This collection of essays the first major account of surrealism in Latin America that covers both literary and visual production explores the role the movement played in the construction and recuperation of cultural identities and the ways artists and writers contested embraced and adapted surrealist ideas and practices Surrealism in Latin America provides new Latin American centric scholarship not only about surrealism's impact on the region but also about the region's impact on surrealism It reconsiders the relation between art and anthropology casts new light on the aesthetics of primitivism and makes a strong case for Latin American artists and writers as the inheritors of a movement that effectively went underground after World War II In so doing it expands our understanding of important fascinating figures who are less well known than their counterparts active in Europe and New York Deriving from a conference held at the Getty Research Institute the book is rich in new materials drawn from the GRI's diverse Mexican and South American surrealist collections which include the archives of Vicente Huidobro Enrique Gómez Correa César Moro Enrique Lihn and Emilio Westphalen
