The Buddha Image Yuvraj Krishan, 1996 Illustrations 247 b w illustrations Description This book deals with crucial though controversial questions in Buddhist art the origin of the Buddha image and the iconography of the Buddha images The earliest Buddhist art of Sanchi and Bharhut is aniconic The Buddha is represented in symbols only In the later Buddhist art of Gandhara and Mathura the Buddha is represented in human form he is the principal subject of sculptural art The book seeks to explore the geographical area in which the image of the Buddha first emerged and whether the Buddhist doctrines Hinayana or Mahayana had anything to do with this transformation The Buddha image as developed eventually at Sarnath became the model for the Buddha images in whole of Asia south east central and eastern Asia The iconographic features of the Buddha image are superficially an aberration being in apparent conflict with the doctrine The Buddha had cut off his hair at the time of his renunciation the rules of the order enjoin that a monk must be tonsured and must discard and eschew all riches However in his images the Buddha has hair on his head later he is also endowed with a crown and jewels After an exhaustive examination of the views of various scholars the book answers these questions and resolves the controversies on the basis of literary numismatic and epigraphic sources More importantly it makes use of the valuable evidence from the contemporaneous Jaina art Aniconism of early Jaina art and the iconographic features of Jaina images The implications of this study are also important Does India owe idolatry to Buddhism Was this of foreign inspiration Was the Buddha image fashioned after the Vedic Brahma and whether the Buddha's usnisa and Buddhist art motifs are rooted in the Vedic tradition The book is profusely illustrated and provides rich and stimulating fare to students of Indian art in general and of Buddhist art in particular

The Many Faces of Christ Michele Bacci, 2014-03-15 Thanks to current portrayals of Jesus of Nazareth we are apt to think of him as having long hair and a short beard But the holy scriptures do not describe Christ s physiognomy and his representations are inconsistent in early Christian and medieval arts How did this long haired archetype come to be accepted in the late ninth century as the standard iconography of the Son of God To answer this question The Many Faces of Christ examines the complex historical and cultural dynamics underlying the making and final establishment of Christ's image between late antiquity and the early Renaissance. Taking into account a broad spectrum of iconographic and textual sources, Michele Bacci describes the process of creating Christ's image against the backdrop of ancient and biblical conceptions of beauty and physicality as indicators of moral ascetic or messianic qualities. He investigates the increasingly dominant role played by visual experience in Christian religious practice which promoted belief in the existence of ancient documents depicting Christ's appearance and he shows how this resulted in the shaping of portrait-like images that were said to be true to life. With glances at analogous progressions in the Jewish, Muslim, Buddhist, Hindu, Jain and Taoist traditions, this beautifully illustrated book will be of interest to specialists of Late Antique, Byzantine and medieval studies as well as anyone interested in the shifting controversial conceptions of the historical figure of Jesus Christ.

Most travellers to Vietnam will at some point visit a Cham tower or view some Cham artefacts in a museum. These were left behind by the Cham people of the now vanished kingdom of Champa. They are unique, exquisite and mythical. The people who built and carved these beautiful works once inhabited central Vietnam and the northern part of the south which stretches over 1 000 kilometres from north to south. Today, with a population of less than 200 000, the Chams live primarily in Ninh Thuận, Bình Thuận and other provinces in the Mekong Delta. Champa's history is broadly divided into three eras: the First Era (5th to 10th centuries), the Second (10th to 15th centuries) and the Third (15th to 19th centuries). This book deals with the First Era, including the three great Houses of Gajraj, Vicitrāsagara and Ujora at three locations. The first house is associated with Simhapura, modern Trại Kieu in Quảng Nam province. The second house is connected with Virapura and Po Nagar in Panduranga and Kauthara, present-day Ninh Thuận, Bình Thuận and Khánh Hòa provinces. The third house is linked with Indrapuranga, D'ng Monastery in Quảng Nam province. The book also presents an overview of Champa, a description of the Cham tower and maps of Cham ruins in Quảng Bình, Quảng Trị and Thừa Thiên Huế provinces. To collect materials for this volume, the author visited most of the sites mentioned in the book and referred to Cham inscriptions, Chinese and Vietnamese historical works. Dr Anne Valérie Schweyer, the Research Director at CNRS, The French National Centre for Scientific Research, an epigraphist and a world-leading scholar in Champa studies, commented and wrote the foreword for the book. She concludes: "Through his travels, Tan Pham unravels the history and art of the Cham kingdoms from the time of their creation to their apogee while at the same time making their present-day presence visible. It is a great pleasure to follow in his footsteps which lead to a better understanding of a glorious part of Vietnam's history." This book is Volume 3B of the book series A Traveller's Story of Vietnam's Past; it continues where Volume II, One Thousand Years: The Stories of Gao Chou, the Kingdoms of Linyi, Funan and Zhenla, ends. The book has 384 pages and contains 235 figures and illustrations. A shortened Table of Contents is shown below.
