Arizona The Last Frontier:

The Strip Stefan Al, 2017-03-03 The transformations of the Strip from the fake Wild West to neon signs twenty stories high to starchitecture and how they mirror America itself The Las Vegas Strip has impersonated the Wild West with saloon doors and wagon wheels it has decked itself out in midcentury modern sleekness It has illuminated itself with twenty story high neon signs then junked them After that came Disney like theme parks featuring castles and pirates followed by replicas of Venetian canals New York skyscrapers and the Eiffel Tower It might be noted that forty two million people visited Las Vegas in 2015 ten million more than visited the real Paris More recently the Strip decided to get classy with casinos designed by famous architects and zillion dollar collections of art Las Vegas became the implosion capital of the world as developers driven by competition got rid of the old to make way for the new offering a non metaphorical definition of creative destruction In The Strip Stefan Al examines the many transformations of the Las Vegas Strip arguing that they mirror transformations in America itself The Strip is not as popularly supposed a display of architectural freaks but representative of architectural trends and a record of social cultural and economic change Al tells two parallel stories He describes the feverish competition of Las Vegas developers to build the snazziest most tourist grabbing casinos and resorts with a cast of characters including the mobster Bugsy Siegel the eccentric billionaire Howard Hughes and the would be political kingmaker Sheldon Adelson And he views the Strip in a larger social context showing that it has not only reflected trends but also magnified them and sometimes even initiated them Generously illustrated with stunning color images throughout The Strip traces the many metamorphoses of a city that offers a vivid projection of the American dream Crime Fiction and Film in the Southwest Steve Glassman, Maurice J. O'Sullivan, 2001 When Joe Leaphorn and Jim Chee Tony Hillerman's oddly matched tribal police officers patrol the mesas and canyons of their Navajo reservation they join a rich tradition of Southwestern detectives In Crime Fiction and Film in the Southwest a group of literary critics tracks the mystery and crime novel from the Painted Desert to Death Valley and Salt Lake City In addition the book includes the first comprehensive bibliography of mysteries set in the Southwest and a chapter on Southwest film noir from Humphrey Bogart's tough hood in The Petrified Forest to Russell Crowe's hard nosed cop in L A Confidential The Bicentennial of the United States of America American Revolution Bicentennial Administration, 1977 Glimpses of Phoenix David William Foster, 2013-04-19 Part of the self image of Phoenix is that the city has no history and that anything of importance happened yesterday Also that Phoenix the Arizona state capital is a clean city despite a past of police corruption and social oppression The real Phoenix easygoing sun drenched a place of ever expanding development and economic growth guarantees it is said an enviable lifestyle low taxes and unfettered personal freedom and opportunity Little of this is true Phoenix has been described as one of the least sustainable cities in the country This sixth largest urban area of the United States has an alarmingly superficial and tourism oriented discourse among its leaders This book examines a series of narrative works novels theater chronicles investigative reporting personal accounts editorial cartooning even a children s television program that question this discourse in a frequently stinging fashion The works examined are anchored in a critical understanding of the dominant urban myths of Greater Phoenix and an awareness of how all the newness modernity and fun in the sun mentality mask a uniquely dystopian human experience The Tour to End All Tours James E.
