The purpose of the book is to provide an overall view of advertising in the twentieth century while filling in the gap of information that exists in Italy where just a few names are known The book also provides a leading thread about those professionals who in the second half of the 20th century were the protagonists of the creative revolution and whose influence has been seminal on both American and English advertising The book has no historical intentions nor aims at classifying people into schools or categories as such an approach would be pretentious and inadequate in a profession so deeply entangled with economics and consumer attitudes The content in brief The book is made up of short biographies of famous and well known advertising people mainly art directors and copywriters interspersed with a few explanatory chapters that are simply summaries on certain subjects For instance The Big Agencies outlines the origins of historical agencies such as J W Thompson BBDO and Young Rubicam The State of Things explains what happened after the so called Creative Revolution The Spot Makers presents people like Howard Zieff Joe Pytko Rick Levine and Bob Giraldi Old School Ties and Colonels is about British advertising before Collett Dickinson and Pearce La Grande Parade depicts the peculiarities of French advertising and Carosello and its Victims explains the unusual features of the Italian Carosello an early TV format that hosted commercials etc Biographies are structured differently along the lines of individual stories and generally tend to highlight the meaningful events in one s career rather than their early life and experiences This way of telling a story is of course somewhat influenced by the author s experiences and point of view and represents the original aspect of the book Among the influentials Americans and Britons outnumber French and Italians A final section with Contributions by various authors and famous copywriters Gossage Della Femina Abbott S gu la Marcantonio Pirella etc completes the book
