Armchair Travels:

Mind-Travelling and Voyage Drama in Early Modern England D. McInnis, 2012-12-15 Drawing on a wide range of drama from across the seventeenth century including works by Marlowe Heywood Jonson Brome Davenant Dryden and Behn this book situates voyage drama in its historical and intellectual context between the individual act of reading in early modern England and the communal act of modern sightseeing

Best and Worst Travels Ramon Carver, 2007-04 Carver writes in a style not unlike Bill Bryson candidly regaling readers with tales of his worst experiences Some of the worst were worse than others as well as the best I enjoyed a great Abercrombie Kent trip to China because it was a great adventure a great itinerary a great tour group with a great tour director great hotels except for a noisy Sheraton in Guilin great weather and great tour management Seven greats out of seven ain't bad He says Great expectations when traveling are usually the source of my greatest disappointments I'm like the guy in a New Yorker cartoon studying a brochure telling his travel agent I am so looking forward to this I can't wait to be disappointed He writes How to Survive Disasters like Theft Accidents etc and at the risk of seeming disingenuously obvious he provides an exhaustive list covering every possible thing that can go wrong Getting Sick Getting Killed Getting Lost etc offering suggestions for solving dilemmas He concludes with Did I fail to mention Getting Bored to Death He describes trips with Yale Exes and travels to Italy China and Romania where he taught English with Global Volunteers

Armchair Travels Rebecca King, 2000 Takes a pictorial tour around the world

The Art of Travel Philip Dodds, 2013-08-21 First published in 1982 The Art of Travel is the first collection of critical essays to be devoted to British travel writing It attempts to give a sense of the wealth of such writing to map some of its forms and conventions and implicitly to claim a place for travel writing in any revised definition of literature For this collection travel includes sea voyages European tours commissioned enquiries into social conditions and urban writing travel writing ranges from works such as Sea and Sardinia by D H Lawrence whose status as a novelist guarantees his travel books some attention through the essays and books of Victorian middle class travellers into working class London to the work of V S Naipaul a contemporary writer who has increasingly preferred the travel book to the novel

The Undiscovered Country Markus Zisselsberger, 2010 W G Sebald 1944-2001 is the most prominent and perhaps the most enigmatic German language writer of recent decades His books have had a more profound impact outside the German speaking world than those of any other His innovative approach to writing brings to the fore concerns that are central to contemporary culture the relationship between memory history and trauma the experience of exile and our relation to place and the role of literature and photography in the remembrance of the past This collection of essays places travel at the center of Sebald's poetics and shows how his appropriation of travel in its myriad historical and cultural forms tourism the pilgrimage the walking vacation travel as escape works to craft intertextual narratives in which the pursuit of individual life stories is mapped onto a wider European cultural history of loss and destruction Following these cues the contributors wander the various modalities of travel in Sebald's writing in order to discover how walking flying sojourning and other kinds of peregrination inform the relationship between writing reading memory and place in Sebald's work At the same time the essays uncover in innovative ways the affinities between Sebald and literary travelers like Bruce Chatwin Franz Kafka Adalbert Stifter Christoph Ransmayr and Joseph Conrad Contributors Christian Moser J J Long Carolin Duttlinger Martin Klebes Alan Itkin James Martin Brad Prager Neil Christian Pages Margaret Bruzelius Barbara Hui Dora Osborne Peter Arnds Markus Zisselsberger is Assistant Professor of German at the University of Miami Florida

Figures of Fantasy Susanna Paasonen, 2005 Figures of Fantasy explores the popularization of the idea of the Internet as a cyberspace and considers the implications this has for discussions of gender and identity The book analyzes the standard figures used to conceptualize and explain technology and gender and traces the ways in which these concepts have served to create the figure of the Internet as a cyberspace a manner of thinking that has come to dominate Internet research internationally making visible its historicity limitations and implications Figures of Fantasy offers an innovative theoretical approach to Internet research and provides a highly original systematic critique of the canonical works in the field

Watching Slavery Joe Lockard, 2008 How did witnesses of slavery relate their experiences and what effect did their reports have This book examines travel accounts fictions poetry and legal texts to analyze direct and indirect encounters with slavery in the antebellum United States It discusses the rhetorical politics of British and American and black and white observations of slavery The discussion raises critical questions about the role of witness and its link with political action both in antebellum and contemporary America

Traveling Bodies Nicole Maruo-Schröder, Sarah Schäfer-Althaus, Uta Schaffers, 2023-09-29 Traveling Bodies Interdisciplinary Perspectives on Traveling as an Embodied Practice explores the central role the body has in and for traveling and thus complements and expands upon existing research in travel studies with new perspectives on and insights in the entanglement of bodies and traveling The case studies assembled in this volume discuss a variety of traveling practices experiences and media with chapters featuring Asian American and European historical and contemporary perspectives Truly interdisciplinary in its approach the volume identifies and examines diverse literary historical and cultural texts contexts and modes in which traveling and the body intersect including classic travelogues new media e.g. film digital travel apps surf culture and travel inspired tattoos The contributions offer various avenues for further research not only for scholars working with body theory and travel writing but also for anyone interested in the intersections of literature culture media and embodied practices of traveling

Tourism Interventions Rami K. Isaac, Jeroen Nawijn, Jelena Farkić, Jeroen Klijs, 2024-07-10 This book brings together in one volume the various types of interventions that can steer tourism towards positive impacts and or prevent negative impacts on the destinations where tourism is taking place Interventions in tourism studies have been viewed primarily as public interventions and mainly in the sphere of public policies planning and development This book however adopts a larger viewpoint by considering the concept of intervention in areas other than the public sector The purpose therefore is to look into different meanings and uses of the notion of intervention which might involve the initiatives of a variety of actors or agents across locales borders or scales as well as how the impacts of tourism on a place have been dealt with To this end the book examines tourism interventions and their role in making or breaking places as initiated and implemented by a variety of stakeholders public private sector NGOs and local communities by exploring the realities of tourism interventions and how they are utilized to alleviate the negative impacts of tourism innovative and successful interventions that have contributed to tourism s making of places and the way in which certain interventions have not been particularly successful or failing forward This significant volume moves beyond considerations of just policy or just marketing and brings together different forms of action or inaction in one category which is a useful response to the variety of actors and initiatives in the tourism space This book provides students researchers and academics with new insight and understanding of how best to sustainably develop promote and manage tourism and how to help destinations become more resilient in the face of future crises

Turizm Anne E. Gorsuch, Diane P. Koenker, 2018-09-05 In the Soviet Union and the eastern bloc the idea of vacation was never as uncomplicated as throwing some suitcases in the car and heading for the beach The emphasis was on individual self improvement within the framework of the collective an approach manifest in everything from the scheduling of physical exercise to the group tours organized for factory workers Party cadres and other segments of society Like other Soviet style utopian projects socialist tourism which was often heavily laden with rules and prescriptions was a consciousness raising project part of the vast effort to forge new socialist men and women Turizm is the first book to examine the history of tourism in Russia and eastern Europe from the tsarist period to the age of Soviet and east European mass tourism in the 1960s and 1970s The contributors to this volume address topics including the roots of socialist tourism the role of tourism in the making of nations and maintenance of empire and ways in which the men and women of the margins of Europe understood themselves in relation to Europe Especially interesting are chapters that show how individuals pursued their own consumerist goals within the framework of collective tourism obliging the regimes to adapt Illustrated with period photographs and promotional materials Turizm will appeal not only to historians of the region but also to anyone with an interest in consumer culture travel leisure and nation building

Travelling Concepts in the Humanities Mieke Bal, 2002-11-02 Attempting to bridge the gap between specialised scholarship in the humanistic disciplines and an interdisciplinary project of cultural analysis Mieke Bal has written an intellectual travel guide that charts the course beyond cultural studies As with any guide it can be used in a number of ways and the reader can follow or willfully ignore any of the paths it maps or signposts Bal s focus for this book is the idea that interdisciplinarity in the humanities necessary exciting serious must seek its heuristic and methodological basis in concepts rather than its methods Concepts are not grids to put over an object The counterpart of any given concept is the cultural text or work or thing that constitutes the object of analysis No concept is meaningful for cultural analysis unless it helps us to understand the object better on its own terms Bal offers the reader a sustained theoretical reflection on how to do cultural analysis through a tentative practice of doing just that This offers a concrete practice to theoretical constructs and allows the proposed method more accessibility Please note illustrations have been removed from the ebook at the request of the rightsholder
