showing the historic dimension of arguments about what images are or should be What is knowledge is as much a philosophic question as What is an image Visual epistemology is a new and promising research field that is best investigated using an interdisciplinary approach that addresses a range of interconnected areas such as internal and external images and the interplay of producer and perceiver of images This publication outlines this territory by gathering together several approaches to visual epistemology by many distinguished authors Artistic Theory in Italy, 1450-1600 Anthony Blunt, 1940 Leonardo da Vinci Alberti Michelangelo Vasari Social position of the artist Religious art Minor writers of the High Renaissance Later mannerists Art and Art-Attempts Christy Mag Uidhir, 2013-06-27 Christy Mag Uidhir presents a new theory of art Few philosophers agree about what it is for something to be art but most or all agree that art must be somehow intention dependent Mag Uidhir shows that this requirement has radical implications for the nature of art and of art forms for the ontology of art and for issues about authorship Semiotics and Art Theory Madeleine Schechter, 2008
