Office of Education,1885 Colonized Through Art Marinella Lentis,2017 Colonized through Art explores how the federal government used art education for American Indian children as an instrument for the colonization of consciousness hoping to instill the values and ideals of Western society while simultaneously maintaining a political social economic and racial hierarchy Focusing on the Albuquerque Indian School in New Mexico the Sherman Institute in Riverside California and the world s fairs and local community exhibitions Marinella Lentis examines how the U S government s solution to the Indian problem at the end of the nineteenth century emphasized education and assimilation Educational theories at the time viewed art as the foundation of morality and as a way to promote virtues and personal improvement These theories made the subject of art a natural tool for policy makers and educators to use in achieving their assimilationist goals of turning student savages into civilized men and women Despite such educational regimes for students however indigenous ideas about art oftentimes emerged from below particularly from well known art teachers such as Arizona Swayney and Angel DeCora Colonized through Art explores how American Indian schools taught children to abandon their cultural heritage and produce artificially native crafts that were exhibited at local and international fairs The purchase of these crafts by the general public turned students work into commodities and schools into factories The Reformation in Germany C. Scott Dixon,2008-04-15 The Reformation Movement in Germany provides readers with a strong narrative overview of the most recent work on the Reformation in the German lands The Building News and Engineering Journal ,1859 Reformation and the Visual Arts Sergiusz Michalski,2013-01-11 Covering a vast geographical and chronological span and bringing new and exciting material to light The Reformation and the Visual Arts provides a unique overview of religious images and iconoclasm starting with the consequences of the Byzantine image controversy and ending with the Eastern Orthodox churches of the nineteenth century The author argues that the image question played a large role in the divisions within European Protestantism and was intricately connected with the Eucharist controversy He analyses the positions of the major Protestant reformers Luther Zwingli Calvin and Karlstadt on the legitimacy of religious paintings and investigates iconoclasm both as a form of religious and political protest and as a complex set of mock revolutionary rites and denigration rituals The book also contains new research on relations between Protestant iconoclasm and the extreme icon worship of the Eastern Orthodox churches and provides a brief discussion of Eastern protestantizing sects especially in Russia Art Education Applied to Industry George Ward Nichols,2024-06-26 Reprint of the original first published in 1877 Art Education Applied to Industry NICHOLS (George Ward.),1877 Actas del VII Congreso Internacional de “Sinestesia: Ciencia y Arte”.
