White,1997 Seeing God in Art Richard Harris,2020-02-20 Over the centuries some of the world s greatest painters have explored and expressed their faith in God through their art Here Richard Harries invites you to reflect with him on thirty such artists and to see how their paintings illuminate important aspects of Christian faith and teaching Encompassing masterpieces by Rembrandt Leonardo Titian and Caravaggio as well as modern works by Chagall Spencer and Rouault this book presents the essentials of the faith in a way that will move the reader to respond with heart as well as head The Operation of Grace Gregory Wolfe,2015-10-27 The Operation of Grace collects a decade s worth of essays by Gregory Wolfe taken from the pages of Image the literary journal he founded more than a quarter century ago As he notes in the preface his Image editorials while they cover a wide range of topics focus on the intersection of art faith and mystery Wolfe believes that art and religion while hardly identical offer illuminating analogies to one another art deepening faith through the empathetic reach of the imagination and faith anchoring art in a vision beyond the artist s ego Several essays dwell on how aesthetic values like ambiguity tragedy and beauty enlarge our understanding of the spiritual life There are also a series of reflections that extend Wolfe s campaign to renew the neglected and often misunderstood tradition of Christian humanism Finally there are sections that contain more personal meditations arising from Wolfe s involvement in nurturing and promoting the work of emerging writers and artists The Operation of Grace demonstrates once again why novelist Ron Hansen has spoken of Wolfe as one of the most incisive and persuasive voices of our generation embed container position relative padding bottom 56 25% height 0 overflow hidden max width 100% embed container iframe embed container object embed container embed position absolute top 0 left 0 width 100% height 100% Art, Modernity and Faith George Pattison,1998 This book first published in hardback by Macmillan in 1991 appeared in paperback in 1998 with a new concluding chapter and extra illustrations After an opening chapter which tells the story of modern art George Pattison leads the reader through a more or less historical narrrative of the relationship between Christianity and the visual arts He begins with the deep rooted fear of images in the Judaeo Christian tradition through Thomism and the writings of Maritain Rukin and Forsyth into the uncertainties of the twentieth century There are concluding discussions on how respect for the integrity iof the visual image becomes a way of grace and how the Zen experience indicates a method which can be used by both theologians and artists It is rare to encounter an author so deeply informed in matters of religion and theology while being so obviously at home in the history and theory of the arts Combining tese spheres of learning George Pattison makes a distinctive contribution to understanding religiously significant aspects of art providing in the process a fresh perspective on why the religious or theological import of art cannot fully be captured in other media of human creation and reflection Theology George Pattison is Lady Margaret

Professor of Divinity in the University of Oxford and a Canon of Christ Church Cathedral Oxford ReVisioning James Romaine, Linda Stratford, 2014-05-20 ReVisioning Critical Methods of Seeing Christianity in the History of Art examines the application of art historical methods to the history of Christianity and art As methods of art history have become more interdisciplinary there has been a notable emergence of discussions of religion in art history as well as related fields such as visual culture and theology This book represents the first critical examination of scholarly methodologies applied to the study of Christian subjects themes and contexts in art ReVisioning contains original work from a range of scholars each of whom has addressed the question in regard to a well known work of art or body of work How have particular methods of art history been applied and with what effect The study moves from the third century to the present providing extensive treatment and analysis of art historical methods applied to the history of Christianity and art Art and Faith in the Venetian World Catherine R. Puglisi, William L. Barcham, 2019 A study of Christ as Man of Sorrows in the Venetian world from the late Medieval through the Baroque era Art and Faith in Venice is the first study of the Man of Sorrows in the art and culture of Venice and her dominions across three centuries A subject imbued with deep spiritual and metaphorical significance the image pervaded late Medieval Europe but assumed in the Venetian world an unusually rich and long life The book presents a biography first tracing the transmission of the image as a vertical half length figure devoid of narrative from the Byzantine East c 1275 and then exploring its gradual adaptation and diffusion across the Venetian state to a wide range of media reaching from small manuscript illuminations to panel paintings altarpieces tombs and liturgical furnishings Analyzing its nomenclature visual form and layered meanings the study demonstrates how this universal image played a prominent role responding to public and private devotions in the spiritual and cultural life of Venice and its larger political sphere of influence Catherine Puglisi and William Barcham have written extensively on the Man of Sorrows and co curated an exhibition on the subject in New York in 2011 Each also publishes separately Puglisi on Caravaggio and Bolognese art and Barcham on Venetian 18th century painting Art, Faith and Modernity Paul Liss, 2019-06-30 No account of 20th Century British art can overlook the numerous works of the period that were essentially religious in their content Art Faith Modernity examines this question in Paul Liss and Alan Powers essays and demonstrates the wide range of expression in more than 175 colour reproductions Anchored by Alan Power's defining essay Art Faith and Modernity presents a poignant argument both visual and cerebral for a reassessment of the important place that religious art continued to occupy in 20th century Britain Art Faith Modernity is part of Liss Llewellyn's on going programme of exhibitions produced in partnership with museums and cultural institutions which seeks to reappraise some of the unsung heroines and and heroes of Modern British art
