The National Union Catalog, Pre-1956 Imprints ,1968      The Development of Marketing Management Kazuo Usui,2024-11-01 There has been much discussion about the origin of marketing and marketing thought and whether it was truly American in origin Nevertheless it is true that US marketing management thought was very influential throughout the world in the latter half of the twentieth century becoming dominant after the Second World War In order to recognize why and how this kind of thought developed in the USA it is necessary to explore the historical contexts in which the marketing management thought was produced and developed at this time as well as the contents of the thought This work argues that while doubts about the US origin of marketing are acceptable marketing management thought which especially appeals to mass producers such as the USA developed according to their particular needs This book looks at the relationship between theories of marketing and the historical context in which they were developed rescuing them from later generalizations that failed to take into account contemporary social and economic factors      Alberta Lawrence's Authors Biographical Service (monthly), June, 1944- Alberta Chamberlain Lawrence,1940      Dictionary Catalog of the Research Libraries of the New York Public Library, 1911-1971 New York Public Library. Stanard,2012-01-01 Belgium was a small neutral country without a colonial tradition when King Leopold II ceded the Congo his personal property to the state in 1908 For the next half century Belgium not only ruled an African empire but also through widespread enduring and eagerly embraced propaganda produced an imperialist minded citizenry Selling the Congo is a study of European pro empire propaganda in Belgium with particular emphasis on the period 1908 60 Matthew G Stanard questions the nature of Belgian imperialism in the Congo and considers the Belgian case in light of literature on the French British and other European overseas empires Comparing Belgium to other imperial powers the book finds that pro empire propaganda was a basic part of European overseas expansion and administration during the modern period Arguing against the long held belief that Belgians were merely reluctant imperialists Stanard demonstrates that in fact many Belgians readily embraced imperialistic propaganda Selling the Congo contributes to our understanding of the effectiveness of twentieth century propaganda by revealing its successes and failures in the Belgian case Many readers familiar with more popular histories of Belgian imperialism will find in this book a deeper examination of European involvement in central Africa during the colonial era

The Corporate Eye Elspeth H. Brown, 2008-03 Winner Association of American Publishers Professional and Scholarly Publishing Award in Business Management and Accounting In the late nineteenth century corporate managers began to rely on photography for everything from motion studies to employee selection to advertising This practice gave rise to many features of modern industry familiar to us today consulting scientific approaches to business practice illustrated advertising and the use of applied psychology In this imaginative study Elspeth H Brown examines the intersection of photography as a mass technology with corporate concerns about efficiency in the Progressive period Discussing among others the work of Frederick W Taylor Eadweard Muybridge Frank Gilbreth and Lewis Hine Brown explores this intersection through a variety of examples including racial discrimination in hiring the problem of photographic realism and the gendered assumptions at work in the origins of modern marketing She concludes that the goal uniting the various forms and applications of photographic production in that era was the increased rationalization of the modern economy through a set of interlocking managerial innovations technologies that sought to redesign not only industrial production but the modern subject as well
