Art And The Academy In The Nineteenth Century:

Art and the Academy in the Nineteenth Century Rafael Cardoso Denis, Colin Trodd, 2000 Throughout the nineteenth century academies functioned as the main venues for the teaching promotion and display of art Contemporary scholars have for the most part denigrated academic art calling it formulaic unoriginal and repetitious The contributors to Art and the Academy in the Nineteenth Century challenge this entrenched notion and consider how academies worldwide have represented an important system of artistic preservation and transmission Their essays eschew easy binaries that have reigned in academia for more than half a century and that simply oppose the avant garde to academicism

The Academy and French Painting in the Nineteenth Century Albert Boime, 1986 Using words and works of both pupils and masters of the French Academy of Beaux Arts this fascinating book provides a wealth of information about the environment and studio practices of French official art from 1830 to 1890 Albert Boime describes the training of new pupils in the Academic ateliers from the time they began and were set to copy engravings and casts to their copying of the old masters in the Louvre to their work before the live model and landscape painting out of doors Boime's account includes not only a history of the transition from guild controlled arts sanctioned by the church to an academic system sponsored by the state but also a reassessment of the positive role played by the Academy's teaching program in the evolution of the independent movements of the nineteenth century Publisher's description

The Academy and the Limits of Painting in Seventeenth-century France Paul Duro, 1997 The Academy and the Limits of Painting in Seventeenth Century France is the first study in over a century devoted to the creation of one of the most important European institutions of art the French Académie Royale Founded in the mid 1660s the Academy institutionalised the discourse around painting and thus had an immediate impact on the making of art in France becoming a decisive influence on painting until the close of the nineteenth century In the process of forging an identity for itself the Academy redefined almost every aspect of art the nature of art training the sources of patronage the social standing of the artist and the place of the arts in national life

The King's Artists : The Royal Academy of Arts and the Politics of British Culture 1760-1840 Holger Hock, 2003-11-13 This is the story of the forging of a national cultural institution in late eighteenth and early nineteenth century Britain The Royal Academy of Arts was the dominant art school and exhibition society in London and a model for art societies across the British Isles and North America This is the first study of its early years re-evaluating the Academy's significance in national cultural life and its profile in an international context Holger Hock reassesses royal and state patronage of the arts and explores the concepts and practices of cultural patriotism and the politicization of art during the American and French Revolutions By demonstrating how the Academy shaped the notions of an English and British school of art and influenced the emergence of the British cultural state he illuminates the politics of national culture and the character of British public life in an age of war revolution and reform

Artists of the Nineteenth Century and their Works. A Handbook Containing Two Thousand and Fifty Biographical Sketches Clara Erskine Clement

Waters,2024-01-08 Reprint of the original first published in 1883      Creativity and Reproduction Susanne Anderson-Riedel,2010-02-19 The study investigates the engravers rise within the French academic system and demonstrates their success in transforming a reproductive medium into a creative and original art genre In the nineteenth century graphic artists developed an artistic language that was independent and on par with the original model that they reproduced The Acad mie royale de peinture et de sculpture welcomed graphic artists into its ranks in 1655 As talented reproductive artists were able to disseminate works of art produced at the Academy engravers rose to occupy administrative positions at the compagnie in the eighteenth century Their success notwithstanding graphic artists remained unable to overcome the perception of being reproductive artisans rather than creative and original fine artists The proof of their predicament was the continuous refusal of advanced artistic training for graphic artists within the French academic system The Section de Gravure at the Institut de France established in 1803 was the first academic institution that distinguished between imitative and creative artistic execution in the reproductive graphic arts Through patronage the supervision of competitions and the administration of the Prix de Rome program for graphic artists the Engraving Department established specific guidelines for artistic reproduction and encouraged the formulation of an independent artistic language in the reproductive arts Finally it defined the characteristics of fine engraving as a creative art medium The Prix de Rome for engraving was crucial in consolidating the new understanding of engraving as an original art form The engravers participation in the Grand Prix competition transformed their artisanal training practice in the master s workshop into an artistic and academic education of graphic artists in the engraving ateliers Furthermore their sojourn at the French Academy in Rome encouraged the collegial collaboration between painters sculptors and engravers leading engravers to develop a free and graphic interpretation of their model The reproductive engraver was now able to rival painters and sculptors and consequently he emerged as a creative and original artist      Urban Space as Heritage in Late Colonial Cuba Paul Niell,2015-05-15 According to national legend Havana Cuba was founded under the shade of a ceiba tree whose branches sheltered the island s first Catholic mass and meeting of the town council cabildo in 1519 The founding site was first memorialized in 1754 by the erection of a baroque monument in Havana s central Plaza de Armas which was reconfigured in 1828 by the addition of a neoclassical work El Templete Viewing the transformation of the Plaza de Armas from the new perspective of heritage studies this book investigates how late colonial Cuban society narrated Havana s founding to valorize Spanish imperial power and used the monuments to underpin a local sense of place and cultural authenticity civic achievement and social order Paul Niell analyzes how Cubans produced heritage at the site of the symbolic ceiba tree by endowing the collective urban space of the plaza with a cultural authority that used the past to validate various place identities in the present Niell s close examination of the extant forms of the 1754 and 1828 civic monuments which include academic history paintings neoclassical architecture and idealized sculpture in tandem with period documents and printed texts reveals a dissonance of heritage in other words a lack of agreement as to the works significance and use He considers the implications of this dissonance with respect to a wide array of interests in late colonial Havana showing how heritage as a dominant cultural discourse was used to manage and even disinherit certain sectors of the colonial population

The Invention of the Model Susan Waller,2006 This study of the artist s model in Paris between 1830 and 1870 incorporates three histories a social history of professional models a cultural history of models as social types and an art history of representations of the model in elite and popular visual culture It takes as its starting point the artist model transaction demonstrating that stereotypes of the model that figured in the public imagination were framed both by gender and ethnicity the book develops a nuanced typology of different types of models Interwoven with the analysis of the constructed identities of models are accounts of the lives of particular models and the histories of the urban population groups from which they emerged The Invention of the Model Artists and Models in Paris 1830 1870 is an adept exploration of a major issue in nineteenth century art which will be of interest not only to art historians but also to social and French cultural historians
