Folk-taxonomies in Early English Earl R. Anderson, 2003 A folk taxonomy is a semantic field that represents the particular way in which a language imposes structure and order upon the myriad impressions of human experience and perception Thus for example the experience of color in modern English is structured around an inventory of twelve basic color terms but languages vary in the number of basic color terms used from thirteen or fourteen terms to as few as two or three Anthropological linguists have been interested in the comparative study of folk taxonomies across contemporary languages and in their studies they have sometimes proposed evolutionary models for the development and elaboration of these taxonomies The evolutionary models have implications for historical linguistics but there have been very few studies of the historical development of a folk taxonomy within a language or within a language family Folk Taxonomies in Early English undertakes this task for English and to some extent for the Germanic and Indo European language families The semantic fields studied are basic color terms seasons of the year geometric shapes the five senses the folk psychology of mind and soul and basic plant and animal life forms Anderson's emphasis is on folk taxonomies in Old and Middle English and also on the implications of semantic analysis for our reading of early English literary texts Anglo-Saxon Manuscripts Helmut Gneuss, Michael Lapidge, 2014-01-01 Anglo Saxon Manuscripts is the first publication to list every surviving manuscript or manuscript fragment written in Anglo Saxon England between the seventh and the eleventh centuries or imported into the country during that time Each of the 1 291 entries in Helmut Gneuss and Michael Lapidge's Bibliographical Handlist not only details the origins contents current location script and decoration of the manuscript but also provides bibliographic entries

Cotton Ms. Claudius B.iv Benjamin C. Withers, 2007-08-25 The Old English Hexateuch is a manuscript of the earliest vernacular translation of the Old Testament books of Genesis through Joshua The texts belong in part to the Anglo Saxon monk Aelfric 950 1010 and to several anonymous translators and at least one artist who compiled these translations and illustrated them with nearly four hundred narrative images which are carefully integrated into the manuscript The Hexateuch testifies to the creativity and innovation of Anglo Saxon bookmakers and stands as an important if little known witness to the relationship between early book making technology and the history of literacy Benjamin C Withers examines codicological features of the manuscript focusing on the working processes of the artist and scribes and seeking to understand how they integrated newly translated text with newly developed imagery so deftly Grounded in art history and literary theory this work considers the narrative relationships created by the careful design and seeks to place the Hexateuch within the broader social and cultural development of vernacular literacy in the eleventh century Saints and Scholars Hugh Magennis, Stuart McWilliams, 2012 Wide ranging survey of current research in Anglo Saxon studies from literature and material culture to religion and politics Anglo Saxon literature and culture and their subsequent appropriations unite the essays collected here They offer fresh and exciting perspectives on a variety of issues from gender to religion and the afterlives of Old English texts from reconsiderations of neglected works to reflections on the place of Anglo Saxon in the classroom As is appropriate they draw especially on Hugh Magennis own interests in hagiography and issues of community and reception Taken together they provide a state of the discipline account of the present and future of Anglo Saxon studies The volume also includes contributions from the leading Irish poets Ciaran Carson and Medbh McGuckian Dr Stuart McWilliams is a Newby Trust Fellow Institute for Advanced Studies in the Humanities University of Edinburgh Contributors Ciaran Carson Marilina Cesario Mary Clayton Ivan Herbison Joyce Hill Malcolm Godden Chris Jones Christina Lee Medbh McGuckian Stuart McWilliams Juliet Mullins Elisabeth Okasha Jane Roberts Donald Scragg Mary Swan John Thompson Elaine Treharne Robert Upchurch Gordon Whatley Jonathan Wilcox Anglo-Saxon England: Volume 28 Michael Lapidge, Malcolm Godden, Simon Keynes, 2000-06-22 This volume is framed by articles that throw interesting light on the achievement and reputation of the greatest of Anglo Saxon kings Alfred Figures of Authority in the Old English 'Exodus' Bryan Weston Wyly, 1999 Old English Newsletter, 2000 Anglo-Saxon Manuscripts in Microfiche Facsimile Phillip Pulsiano, Alger Nicolaus Doane, Ronald E.
