Everything We Thought We Knew Carolyn Niethammer, 2025-02-10. In 1970 Christie left behind the comforts of L.A. and joined a New Age commune in rural Arizona. But building a new social order is no easy task especially when free love psychedelics and a war protest gone horribly wrong are thrown into the mix. While dancing under the moon in an Indian ruin Christie reconnects with a lover from a past life setting in motion events that reverberate through their futures. The end of the commune is not the end of the story. Thirty years later a child born there forces long held secrets to be revealed and everyone's lives are changed forever.
