 Reading by Numbers Recalibrating the Literary Field is the first book to use digital humanities strategies to integrate the scope and methods of book and publishing history with issues and debates in literary studies By mining visualising and modelling data from AustLit an online bibliography of Australian literature that leads the world in its comprehensiveness and scope this study revises established conceptions of Australian literary history presenting new ways of writing about literature and publishing and a new direction for digital humanities research The case studies in this book offer insight into a wide range of features of the literary field including trends and cycles in the gender of novelists the formation of fictional genres and literary canons and the relationship of Australian literature to other national literatures The Pirates' Chronicles:
