Ward,2024-12-17 I Am a Child of the Most High God is a book about our identity in Christ and who God made us to be So often we identify with who this world says that we are but that is not who we are at all God created us in His image That means we are spiritual beings with three parts spirit soul and body Also God created us as male and female with distinct roles and gifts that He has given to us So often we try to be someone we are not This causes us pain and heartache in this life It has been the same for me until God started talking to me about the truths in this book He told me to start saying what He says about me not what I see or perceive that the world is saying about me Once I started doing this His Word began to transform my life As I began to quote what His Word says about me I began to see changes in how I thought about myself My outlook on life began to change and it is still changing I might add When a contractor builds a house in order for it to look like its initial design he must follow the blueprint for the house from beginning to end It is the same for us In order for our lives to be truly fulfilled and full of happiness we must follow God's blueprint for our lives which is His Word I challenge you to read the truths in this book and dare you to apply them to your own life Also don't stop with just these nine concepts Dig deeper on your own and discover more of who He created you to be

H.,1855 The Sunday at Home ,1883 The Targum Onqelos to Exodus ,2024-04-24 The Onqelos Targums are the most literal translations of the Targumim When translated by Bernard Grossfeld the foremost scholar of Aramaic in the United States these Torah volumes represent some of the most scholarly and accurate translations in existence Christian Examiner and Theological Review ,1867 The Christian Examiner ,1867 Jews and the Qur'an Meir M. Bar-Asher,2024-08-20 In this book Meir Bar Asher shines light on the deeply ambivalent views toward Jews and Judaism in the Qur an and in post Qur anic Islamic writing On the one hand these texts clearly recognize the Jews as a people chosen by God a people of the Book deserving of respect and communal protection for their contribution On the other hand an undeniably darker view is also on offer and is found for example in passages that accuse Jews of falsifying their own Torah to suppress all pronouncements of the advent of Muhammad the final Prophet whose message is the culmination of the good news brought by all the prophets from Moses to Jesus Bar Asher s view is that one must concede the existence of such polemical anti Jewish passages while keeping in mind that they do not constitute the final word of the Qur an or Islam on the Jews Bar Asher argues that passages concerning Jews and Judaism in the Qur an need to be examined alongside the post Qur anic Islamic literature rather than read in isolation His book thus concerns not only Islam s holy scripture but also Hadith the authoritative oral tradition of sayings attributed to the Prophet Muhammad along with other Islamic commentaries on Jews and Judaism The book begins with a historical overview of the Jewish presence in the Arab peninsula before the time of Muhammad and covers what scholars have uncovered to date about the relationship between Muhammad his followers and the Jews of Medina in particular Then the book turns to the Qur an and the aforementioned post Qur anic traditional materials
