Power From On High John Greenfield, 2017-10-31 This is an edited study edition of John Greenfield's celebration of the 200th anniversary of the Great Moravian Revival that started in 1727. History is filled with stories of the Spirit of God that stir our souls and encourage our faith. One of the most exciting and practical is the account of the Moravians of Herrnhut who experienced a powerful revival in 1727 that continues to impact the world in our day. Many are writing on revival with the hope of seeing such a movement of God in our day. Power From On High grounds that hope in history and at the same time provides the practical help for a movement of prayer that prepares the way for the Spirit to do His work in the Church today.

God Still Matters Herbert McCabe, 2005-01-01 Herbert McCabe, who died in 2001, was one of the most intelligent Roman Catholic thinkers of the twentieth century. An influence on philosophers such as Anthony Kenny and Alasdair MacIntyre, he was also befriended by poets and literary critics such as Seamus Heaney and Terry Eagleton. Equally at home in philosophy and theology, he despised jargon and intellectual posturing as a substitute for reason and argument. At the time of his death, he left a wealth of unpublished material so outstanding in its quality and originality that it is surprising that it was never published in book form. This is now put to rights. In God Still Matters we have the chance to read McCabe on the topics that interested him most: philosophy of God, Christology, Fundamental theology, Sacramental theology, and ethics. No one who reads this volume will doubt that McCabe was one of the outstanding Christian thinkers of his generation and the epitome of Dominican intellectual openness and rigour.
