Another 30 New Zealand Stories For Children:

Laughing at the Dark Barbara Else, 2023-04-04 From the best selling and acclaimed author Barbara Else Laughing at the Dark is a funny moving memoir about how she rebelled against being a good girl By the time she was in her forties Barbara was married to a globally recognised academic physician and had two beautiful teenage daughters As her writing career developed her husband became angry at the prospect of her being anything but a housewife In a moment of madness or realisation she packed her car and took off to live with the man who would become her second husband With her trademark wit and humour Barbara poignantly describes her transformation from a shy but stubborn child into a fulfilled and successful adult I laughed and laughed and I cried and cried It's got everything in it except a murder Lesley Graham soprano and totally unbiased sister The Writers Directory, 2013 Empire's Children Ellen Boucher, 2014-03-13 A definitive history of child emigration across the British Empire from the 1860s to its decline in the 1960s Children's Books for ... Or Less Association for Childhood Education International, 1967 Australian national bibliography, 1961

Understanding Children's Literature Peter Hunt, 2005 Edited by Peter Hunt a leading figure in the field this book introduces the study of children's literature addressing theoretical questions as well as the most relevant critical approaches to the discipline The fourteen chapters draw on insights from academic disciplines ranging from cultural and literary studies to education and psychology and include an essay on what writers for children think about their craft The result is a fascinating array of perspectives on key topics in children's literature as well as an introduction to such diverse concerns as literacy ideology stylistics feminism history culture and bibliotherapy An extensive general bibliography is complemented by lists of further reading for each chapter and a glossary defines critical and technical terms making the book accessible for those coming to the field or to a particular approach for the first time In this second edition there are four entirely new chapters contributors have revisited and revised or rewritten seven of the chapters to reflect new thinking while the remaining three are classic essays widely acknowledged to be definitive Understanding Children's Literature will not only be an invaluable guide for students of literature or education but it will also inform and enrich the practice of teachers and librarians Exclusion from and Within School Alison Kearney, 2011-11-19 As societies become more diverse so too must they become more inclusive In inclusive societies all members regardless of their ethnicity religion socio economic status ability or disability are valued and free to participate and there is equity of access and reward Schools have a powerful role to play in creating inclusive societies and this begins with the notion of inclusive schools schools where all children belong where all children have a place and where difference is a natural part of what it is to be a human being Based on this understanding many countries around the world are moving towards more inclusive education systems However working against inclusive education are forces of exclusion factors that act to exclude and marginalize minority students from participation and learning at school Therefore in order to progress the principles and practices of inclusive education an examination of the construct of exclusion is critical Important questions to be interrogated if inclusive education is to be a reality are What is exclusion Why does it occur How can it be reduced and eliminated This book critically examines the construct of exclusion exploring how disabled students experience exclusion both from and within school and suggesting reasons why this occurs Finally key foci for change are proposed as platforms for interrogating reducing and eliminating the forces of exclusion

The Story of Suzanne Aubert Jessie Munro, 2009 Reissue of bestselling biography Published by Bridget Williams Books This beautifully written story of a radical nun who founded a religious congregation sold thousands of copies when it won the Book of the Year award in the 1997 Montana Book Awards Suzanne Aubert grew up in a French provincial family in the mid nineteenth century Lyon s Catholic missionary spirit brought her to live with Maori girls in war anxious 1860s Auckland She nursed Maori and Pakeha in Hawke s Bay as the settler population swelled Later living up the Whanganui River at Jerusalem she set up New Zealand s home grown Catholic congregation published a significant Maori text broke in a hill farm manufactured medicines and gathered babies and children through the family fracturing years of economic depression The turn of the century sent her windswept skirts through the streets of the capital city There she would be a constant sign of political commitment and caring for people of all creeds and none until she died in 1926 If any New Zealand book has earned the label long awaited it is this one This is a superb book scrupulously researched stylishly written generously illustrated and rewarding to read Most importantly it speaks to our times Michael King New Zealand Listener

Assessing Children's Learning (Classic Edition) Mary Jane Drummond, 2011-10-21 Now featuring a brand new foreword by Sue Swaffield this classic text Assessing Children s Learning examines some of the vital questions that teachers and other educators ask themselves as they assess children s learning across the curriculum

British Children's Literature of the 19th Century Patrick C. Fleming, 2025-02-13 Many beloved classics of children s literature including Alice s Adventures in Wonderland Peter Pan and The Tale of Peter Rabbit were written at the end of the nineteenth century an era known as the Golden Age of children s literature Notable figures like William Godwin Harriet Martineau Christina Rossetti and Charles Dickens contributed to children s literature while juvenile periodicals first appeared to young readers during this time This is the first comprehensive reference work about the Golden Age of children s literature and the emergence of juvenile literature as a major publishing phenomenon Alphabetical entries include foundational figures like Sarah Trimmer Maria Edgeworth and Mary Martha Sherwood who helped establish the market for children s literature New genres for the time like the moral tale religious fiction children s poetry school stories and prolific authors like Hesba Stretton L T Meade and G A Henty are also included

Child Sexual Abuse Inquiries and the Catholic Church: Reassessing the Evidence Virginia Miller, 2025-02-09 This book is an objective evidence based analysis of the empirical findings methodologies and conclusions of the main inquiries into child sexual abuse in the Catholic Church in Europe the US Canada the UK and Australasia Based on the evidence in these official inquiries it concludes that child sexual abuse in the Catholic Church in these countries while widespread from 1960 1990 is largely an historical problem there are relatively few instances of child sexual abuse in the Catholic Church in recent decades Safe guarding mechanisms introduced into the Catholic Church since the 1990s have been effective in curbing child sexual abuse The analysis in this book stands in contrast to sensationalistic uninformed media reporting on the problem The book is a second revised and expanded edition with previously unreleased content
