Another Country Navigating The Emotional Terrain Of Our Elders:

Another Country Mary Bray Pipher, 1999 Scenarios to bridge the communication gap of children with their aging parents and grandparents Another Country Mary Bray Pipher, 1999 Aging: Culture, Health, and Social Change David N. Weisstub, David C. Thomasma, S. Gauthier, G.F. Tomossy, 2001-11-30 This is the first of three volumes on Aging conceived for the International Library of Ethics Law and the New Medicine Leading scholars from a range of disciplines contest some of the predominant paradigms on aging and critically assess modern trends in social health policy Fanny Lewald Margaret E. Ward, 2006 Fanny Lewald Between Rebellion and Renunciation provides the first comprehensive account in English of the life and work of Fanny Lewald 1811-1889 tracing the way she positioned herself sometimes precariously between rebellion and renunciation All genres are considered novels and stories autobiography travel literature essays diaries and letters Widely recognized as one of the early German advocates of women's right to education and work this study places Lewald's views on these issues in a broadly comparative cultural context This book will therefore be of interest not only to specialists in German literature but also to students and scholars of European cultural and social history Jewish studies and women's studies Publisher's website Community Health Nursing Karen Saucier Lundy, Sharyn Janes, 2014-12 Community Health Nursing Caring for the Public's Health Third Edition focuses on teaching nursing students about population health and community health nursing Family Re-union Robert Kuttner, Sharland Trotter, 2002 In this relevant new book a journalist husband and his psychologist wife offer wise and inspiring advice to middle-aged adults on how to have more meaningful relationships with their adult children and elderly parents The Gerontological Imagination Kenneth F. Ferraro, 2018 The power of the gerontological imagination Causality Life course analysis Multifaceted change Heterogeneity Accumulation process Ageism The gerontological imagination at work in scientific communities Death and Dying in Contemporary Japan Hikaru Suzuki, 2013-03-12 This book based on extensive original research explores the various ways in which Japanese people think about death and how they approach the process of dying and death It shows how new forms of funeral ceremonies have been developed by the funeral industry how traditional grave burial is being replaced in some cases by the scattering of ashes and forest mortuary ritual and how Japanese thinking on relationships the value of life and the afterlife are changing Throughout it assesses how these changes reflect changing social structures and social values When Walking Fails Lisa Iezzoni, 2003-06-10 Roughly one in ten adult Americans find their walking slowed by progressive chronic conditions like arthritis back problems heart and lung diseases and diabetes In this passionate and deeply informed book Lisa I Iezzoni describes the personal experiences of and societal responses to adults whose mobility makes it difficult for them to live as they wish partly because of physical and emotional conditions and partly because of persisting societal and environmental barriers Basing her conclusions on personal experience a wealth of survey data and extensive interviews with dozens of people from a wide social spectrum Iezzoni explains who has mobility problems and why how mobility difficulties affect people's physical comfort attitudes daily activities and relationships with family and friends throughout their communities strategies for improving mobility and how the health care system addresses mobility difficulties providing and financing services and assistive technologies Iezzoni claims that although strategies exist to improve mobility many people do not know where to turn for advice She addresses the need to inform policymakers about areas where changes will better accommodate people with difficulty walking This straightforward and engaging narrative clearly demonstrates that improving people's ability to move freely and independently will enhance overall health and quality of life not only for these persons but also for society as a whole

The Ethics of Sex and Alzheimer's John Portmann, 2013-07-18 A growing epidemic Alzheimer's punishes not only its victims but also those married to them This book analyzes how Alzheimer's is quietly transforming the way we think about love today Without meaning to become rebels many people who find themselves married to Alzheimer's deflate the predominant notion of a conventional marriage By falling in love again before their ill spouse dies those married to Alzheimer's come into conflict with central values of Western civilization personal sexual familial religious and political Those who wait sadly for a spouse's death must sometimes wonder if the show of fidelity is necessary and whom it helps Most books on Alzheimer's focus on those who have it as opposed to those who care for someone with it This book offers a powerful and searching meditation on the extent to which someone married to Alzheimer's should be expected to suffer loneliness The diagnosis of dementia should not amount to a prohibition of sexual activity for both spouses Portmann encourages readers to risk honesty in assessing the moral dilemma using high profile cases such as Nancy Reagan and Justice Sandra Day O'Connor to illustrate the enormity of the problem Ideal for classes considering the ethics of aging and sexuality

Happiness Is a Choice You Make John Leland, 2015-06-25 A New York Times Bestseller An extraordinary look at what it means to grow old and a heartening guide to well being Happiness Is a Choice You Make weaves together the stories and wisdom of six New Yorkers who number among the oldest old those eighty five and up In 2015 when the award winning journalist John Leland set out on behalf of The New York Times to meet members of America's fastest growing age group he anticipated learning of challenges of loneliness and of the deterioration of body mind and quality of life But the elders he met took him in an entirely different direction Despite disparate backgrounds and circumstances they each lived with a surprising lightness and contentment The reality Leland encountered upended contemporary notions of aging revealing the late stages of life as unexpectedly rich and the elderly as incomparably wise Happiness Is a Choice You Make is an enduring collection of lessons that emphasizes above all the extraordinary influence we wield over the quality of our lives With humility heart and wit Leland has crafted a sophisticated and necessary reflection on how to live better informed by those who have mastered the art
