Ansar Cult In Americathe:

The Ansar Cult in America Abu Ameenah Bilaal Philips,1990 A History of Conversion to Islam in the United States, Volume 2 Patrick D. Bowen,2017-09-11 In A History of Conversion to Islam in the United States Volume 2 The African American Islamic Renaissance 1920 1975 Patrick D Bowen offers an in depth account of African American Islam as it developed in the United States during the fifty five years that followed World War I Having been shaped by a wide variety of intellectual and social influences the African American Islamic Renaissance appears here as a movement that was characterized by both great complexity and diversity Drawing from a wide variety of sources including dozens of FBI files rare books and periodicals little known archives and interviews and even folktale collections Patrick D Bowen disentangles the myriad social and religious factors that produced this unprecedented period of religious transformation Metaphysical Africa Michael Muhammad Knight,2020-09-15 The Ansaru Allah Community also known as the Nubian Islamic Hebrews AAC NIH and later the Nuwaubians is a deeply significant and controversial African American Muslim movement Founded in Brooklyn in the 1960s it spread through the prolific production and dissemination of literature and lecture tapes and became famous for continuously reinventing its belief system In this book Michael Muhammad Knight studies the development of AAC NIH discourse over a period of thirty years tracing a surprising consistency behind a facade of serial reinvention It is popularly believed that the AAC NIH community abandoned Islam for Black Israelite religion UFO religion and Egyptosophy However Knight sees coherence in AAC NIH media explaining how in reality the community taught that the Prophet Muhammad was a Hebrew who adhered to Israelite law Muhammad s heavenly ascension took place on a spaceship and Abraham enlisted the help of a pharaonic regime to genetically engineer pigs as food for white people Against narratives that treat the AAC NIH community as a postmodernist deconstruction of religious categories Knight demonstrates that AAC NIH discourse is most productively framed within a broader African American metaphysical history in which boundaries between traditions remain quite permeable Unexpected and engrossing Metaphysical Africa brings to light points of intersection between communities and traditions often regarded as separate and distinct In doing so it helps move the field of religious studies beyond conventional categories of orthodoxy and heterodoxy challenging assumptions that inform not only the study of this particular religious community but also the field at large Religious Diversity and American Religious History Walter H. Conser,Sumner B. Twiss,1997 The ten essays in this volume explore the vast diversity of religions in the United States from Judaic Catholic and African American to Asian Muslim and Native American traditions Chapters on religion and the South religion and gender indigenous sectarian religious movements and the metaphysical tradition round out the collection The contributors examine the past present and future of American religion first orienting readers to historiographic trends and traditions of interpretation in each area then providing case studies to show their vision of how these areas should be developed Full of provocative insights into the complexity of American religion this volume helps us
