Heritage Auctions Vintage and Contemporary Photography Auction Catalog #5060, Dallas Carrie Hunnicutt, 2011-03 Vintage & Contemporary Photography Heritage Auction Galleries (Dallas, Tex.), 2009 New Deal Art in Arizona Betsy Fahlman, 2009-11-15 Arizona's art history is emblematic of the story of the modern West and few periods in that history were more significant than the era of the New Deal. From Dorothea Lange and Ansel Adams to painters and muralists including Native American Gerald Naylor, the artists working in Arizona under New Deal programs were a notable group whose art served a distinctly public purpose. Their photography, paintings, and sculptures remain significant exemplars of federal art patronage and offer telling lessons positioned at the intersection of community history and culture. Art is a powerful instrument of historical record and cultural construction, and many of the issues captured by the Farm Security Administration photographers remain significant today: migratory labor, the economic volatility of the mining industry, tourism, and water usage. Art tells important stories too, including the work of Japanese American photographer Toyo Miyatake in Arizona's internment camps, murals by Native American artist Gerald Naylor for the Navajo Nation Council Chamber in Window Rock, and African American themes at Fort Huachuca. Illustrated with 100 black and white photographs and covering a wide range of both media and themes, this fascinating and accessible volume reclaims a richly textured story of Arizona history with potent lessons for today. Landscape in Photographs Karen Hellman, Brett Abbott, 2012 Like painters and draftsmen before them, photographers turned to the landscape as a source of inspiration after the invention of the medium in 1839. This title provides a look at the evolution of the landscape as photographic subject. Modern Arts Criticism, 1991 A biographical and critical guide to painters, sculptors, photographers, and architects from the beginning of the modern era to the present. The Tree in Photographs Françoise Reynaud, 2010 This surprising selection of photographs by Ansel Adams, Eugene Atget, Alfred Stieglitz, Carleton Watkins, and others focuses on the tree as subject matter. American Modern: Hopper to O'Keeffe Esther Adler, Kathy Curry, 2013-08-11 The Museum of Modern Art is known for its prescient focus on the avant-garde art of Europe, but in the first half of the twentieth century it was also acquiring work by Stuart Davis, Georgia O'Keeffe, Charles Sheeler, Alfred Stieglitz, and other less well-known American artists whose work sometimes fits awkwardly under the avant-garde umbrella. American Modern presents a fresh look at MoMA's holdings of American art from that period. The still lifes, portraits, and urban, rural, and industrial landscapes vary in style, approach, and medium. Melancholy images by Edward Hopper and Andrew Wyeth bump against the eccentric landscapes of Charles Burchfield, and the Jazz Age sculpture of Elie Nadelman. Yet a distinct sensibility emerges, revealing a side of the Museum that may surprise a good part of its audience and throwing light on the cultural preoccupations of the rapidly changing American society of the day. Modern Arts Criticism Joann Prosykiuk, 1991 The Museum of Fine Arts, Houston Museum of Fine Arts, Houston, Janet Landay, 2000 Presents color reproductions of more than 500 works from the vast collection with
