Prayer, Return of Prayer and the Saint's Jewel John Bunyan, Thomas Goodwin, Thomas Shepard, 2007 Prayer is an ordinance of God and that to be used both in public and private yea such an ordinance will bring those that have the spirit of supplication into great familiarity with God and is also so prevalent an action that it gets of God both for the person that prays and for them that are prayed for great things It is the opener of the heart of God and a means by which the soul though empty is filled By prayer the Christian can open his heart to God as to a friend and obtain fresh testimony of God's friendship to him I might spend many words in distinguishing between public and private prayer as also between that in the heart and that with the vocal voice Something also might be spoken to distinguish between the gifts and graces of prayer but as eschewing this method my business shall be at this time only to show you the very heart of prayer without which all your lifting up both of hands and eyes and voices will be to no purpose at all Prayer is a sincere sensible affectionate pouring out of the heart or soul to God through Christ in the strength and assistance of the Holy Spirit for such things as God has promised or according to the Word for the good of the Church with submission in faith to the will of God 1 For the first of these it is a sincere pouring out of the soul to God Sincerity is such a grace as runs through all the graces of God in us and through all the actings of a Christian and has the sway in them too or else their actings are not anything regarded of God and so of and in prayer of which particularly David speaks when he mentions prayer 7 cried unto the Lord with my mouth and He was extolled with my tongue If I regard iniquity in my heart the Lord will not hear me Psa 68 18 Part of the exercise of prayer is sincerity without which God looks not upon it as prayer in a good sense And ye shall seek Me and find Me when ye shall search for Me with all your heart Jer 29 13 The want of this made the Lord reject their prayers in Hos 7 14 where He says They have not cried to Me with their hearts that is in sincerity when they howled upon their beds But for a pretense for a show in hypocrisy to be seen of men and applauded for the same they pray Sincerity was that which Christ commended in Nathaniel when he was under the fig tree Behold an Israelite indeed in whom is no guile John 1 47 Probably this good man was pouring out of his soul to God in prayer under the fig tree and that in a sincere and unfeigned spirit before the Lord The prayer that has this in it as one of the principal ingredients is the prayer that God looks at The prayer of the upright is His delight Bunyan 1628 1688 rose from an humble beginning to being a preacher to a little house church to 12 years in jail because he would not agree to quit preaching to a huge church in London He wrote 66 books nearly all while in jail Goodwin 1600 1679 was rightly described as one of the twin pillars of the Puritan movement His 12 volumes are filled with information not to be found in any other works Thomas Shepard was an early New England Puritan His work was praised at once by eminent divines four of them being Westminster Confession participants Jonathan Edwards quoted from Shepard more than any other Literary Gazette and Journal of Belles Lettres, Arts, Sciences, &c ,1857 Commentary on the Name Walter Leslie McConnell,2021-12-07 Christians give a broad spectrum of answers to the question What is worship These include ascribing worth to God performing certain activities during worship services singing a particular style of song responding to God with our whole being and more That Christians have such a splintered understanding of something as important as worship is far from satisfactory How Majestic is Your Name aims to broaden our understanding of worship by engaging the subject biblically and theologically as developed in both Testaments of Scripture As we learn more of God s design our daily weekly and seasonal practices of private and public worship will be renewed Foundations are laid by identifying the Old and New Testament words for worship and demonstrating their importance The object of worship is brought into focus as we encounter the God who is experienced as Father Son and Holy Spirit The object identified we consider the people who worship within space and time by engaging in a variety of activities Not content with simply recounting biblical evidence about the worship of Israel and the early church the book challenges modern worshipers to allow this biblical theological study to guide their thinking and shape their practice Biographia Britannica: Or The Lives
