Eliot first published his long poem The Waste Land in 1922 The revolutionary nature of the work was immediately recognised and it has subsequently been acknowledged as one of the most influential poems of the twentieth century and as crucial for the understanding of modernism The essays in this collection variously reflect on The Waste Land one hundred years after its original publication At this centenary moment the contributors both celebrate the richness of the work its sounds and rare use of language and also consider the poem's legacy in Britain Ireland and India The work here by an international team of writers from the UK North America and India deploys a range of approaches Some contributors seek to re read the poem itself in fresh and original ways others resist the established drift of previous scholarship on the poem and present new understandings of the process of its development through its drafts or as an orchestration on the page Several contributors question received wisdom about the poem's immediate legacy in the decade after publication and about the impact that it has had upon criticism and new poetries across the first century of its existence An Introduction to the volume contextualises the poem itself and the background to the essays All pieces set out to review the nature of our understanding of the poem and to bring fresh eyes to its brilliance one hundred years on Contributors Rebecca Beasley Rosinka Chaudhuri William Davies Hugh Haughton Marjorie Perloff Andrew Michael Roberts Peter Robinson Michael Wood British Books in Print, 1968 American Literature and the Academy Kermit Vanderbilt, 1989-02 This book is a volume in the Penn Press Anniversary Collection To mark its 125th anniversary in 2015 the University of Pennsylvania Press rereleased more than 1 100 titles from Penn Press's distinguished backlist from 1899 1999 that had fallen out of print Spanning an entire century the Anniversary Collection offers peer reviewed scholarship in a wide range of subject areas Comparative Criticism: Volume 16, Revolutions and Censorship E. Literary History: Towards a Global Perspective Anders Pettersson, Gunilla Lindberg-Wada, Margareta Petersson, Stefan Helgesson, 2011-12-22 Literary History Towards a Global Perspective is a research project funded by the Swedish Research Council Vetenskapsr det Initiated in 1996 and launched in 1999 it aims at finding suitable methods and approaches for studying and analysing literature globally emphasizing the comparative and intercultural aspect Even though we nowadays have fast and easy access to any kind of information on literature and literary history we encounter more than ever the difficulty of finding a credible overall perspective on world literary history Until today literary cultures and traditions have usually been studied separately each field using its own principles and methods Even the conceptual basis itself varies from section to section and the genre concepts employed are not mutually compatible As a consequence it is very difficult if not impossible for the interested layperson as well as for the professional student to gain a clear and fair perspective both on the literary traditions of other peoples and on one s own traditions The project can be considered as a contribution to gradually removing this problem and helping to gain a better understanding of literature and literary history by means of a concerted empirical research and deeper conceptual reflection The contributions to the four volumes are written in English by specialists from a large number of disciplines primarily from the fields of comparative literature Oriental studies and African studies in Sweden All of the literary texts discussed in the articles are in the original language Each one of the four volumes is devoted to a special research topic Catalogue ... 1807-1871 Boston Mass, Athenaeum, libr, 1878 An Encyclopedia of Continental Women Writers
