Anthology of modern French poetry Cecil Arthur Hackett, 1976-01-01     An Anthology of Modern French Poetry from Baudelaire to the Present C. A. Hackett, 1981-03-01     Anthology of Modern French Poetry from Baudelaire to the Present Day, by C.A. Hackett, ... Cecil Arthur Hackett, 1952     An Anthology of Modern French Poetry (1850-1950) Peter Broome, Graham Chesters, 1976-07-15 This anthology is the companion volume to The Appreciation of Modern French Poetry the aim of which was to give detailed preliminary help with the problems of poetic appreciation The fourteen poets represented here provide a varied and exciting introduction to what is probably the richest century of French poetry from 1850 to 1950 Hugo the colossus of the nineteenth century whose work gives new resonance and vitality to imaginative vision opens the anthology and Michaux the most individual and modern of twentieth century poets in that he bridges the gap between poetry and contemporary science closes it Almost all the major poets of the period are included Nerval Baudelaire Mallarmé Verlaine Rimbaud and Laforgue from the second half of the nineteenth century Valéry Apollinaire Supervielle and Eluard in the twentieth The lesser known Cros and Desnos fresh and spontaneous poets with an immediate appeal invite a new look at the lyric traditions of French verse and offer an attractive new avenue for study The choice of poems dictated above all by their individual poetic value reflects also the trends of recent criticism and the tastes of present day readers The texts are all accompanied by full notes which not only explain local difficulties of vocabulary syntax and expression but lead the reader directly into the heart of the richness of theme style and interpretation These will prove of value not only to the student who is grappling with the basics of French verse or is anxious to give depth to his familiarity but to the general reader seeking to rekindle his enjoyment of French poetry In addition there are introductions to each poet summarizing the essence of his art useful suggestions for further reading and groups of discussion topics to stimulate comparative insights and a wider responsiveness     French Studies in and for the Twenty-first Century Philippe Lane, Michael Worton, 2011 With contributions from leading scholars across the entire range of French studies this up to date volume examines both the current state of French studies in the United Kingdom as well as its future in an increasingly interdisciplinary world where student demand new technologies and developments in transnational education are changing the ways in which we teach learn research and assess achievements Required reading for French studies scholars worldwide this volume builds upon the findings of the influential Review of Modern Foreign Languages Provision in Higher Education and maps the present and future of the field     French Studies in and for the 21st Century Philippe Lane, Michael Worton, 2011-07-07 French Studies in and for the 21st Century draws together a range of key scholars to examine the current state of French Studies in the UK taking account of the variety of factors which have made the discipline what it is The book looks ahead to the place of French Studies in a world that is increasingly interdisciplinary and where student demands new technologies and transnational education are changing the ways in which we learn teach research and assess Required reading for all UK French Studies scholars the book will also be an essential text for the French Studies community worldwide as it grapples with current demands and plans for the future

The Oxford Guide to Literature in English Translation Peter France,2000 This guide highlights the place of translation in our culture encouraging awareness of the process of translating and the choices involved making the translator more visible Concentrating on major writers and works it covers translations out of many languages from Greek to Hungarian Korean to Turkish For some works e g Virgil s Aeneid which have been much translated the discussion is historical and critical showing how translation has evolved over the centuries and bringing out the differences between versions Elsewhere with less familiar literatures the Guide examines the extent to which translation has done justice to the range of work available

Selected Poems Guillaume Apollinaire,2015 Apollinaire is the most significant French poet of early modernism and the only great First World War poet from France He coined the word surrealism and was at the forefront of literary and artistic experimentalism This new selection covers the full range of his career in facing page translations with some pictorial calligrams

the year's work in modern language studies , Poetry in France Keith Aspley,Peter France,1992 Although organised chronologically POETRY IN FRANCE does not offer an analytical history of an entity that can be called French poetry Rather than presenting the story of a poetic tradition that starts with the Chanson de Roland and the troubadour poets and Passes via the Renaissance Classicism and Romanticism to Baudelaire Mallarme and twentieth century poetry the book describes a plurality of traditions a history of discontinuities and conflicts rejections and re adoptions Within such a rich plurality the reader of this volume will discern recurrent threads of unifying concerns such as the debate over the frontiers of prose song and verse and the question of whether the correct poetic language should be elevated and formal or democratically everyday The nature of inspiration and the centrality of the imagination in poetic creation are also explored along with a consideration of the figure of the poet entertainer or educator prophet or politician maker or madman Discussions of the changing position of poetry in society are also included as is the debate over the nature of a canon in literature The result is not intended to be a formal set of views on poets or a chronological literary history rather it is an exploration of the nature of poetry in France a consideration of its changing conceptions functions and forms

BOOK JACKET Title Summary field provided by Blackwell North America Inc All Rights Reserved Education in France ,1961 French VI William T. Starr,Modern language association,1956 French VI Bibliography , FRENCH VI BIBLIOGRAPHY Critical and Biographical References for the Study of Nineteenth Century French Literature 1964 - 1965 Volume II Number 1 , Rimbaud Cecil Arthur Hackett,1981-06-04 Professor Hackett shows Rimbaud s poetic work had decisive influence on the development of French poetry

An Introduction to the French Poets Geoffrey Brereton,2022-07-10 The French poetry of some five centuries is here surveyed in a series of studies of the work and personality of individual poets from Villon to the present day Each chapter is primarily concerned with establishing the literary identity of the poet or poets with whom it deals the work of each is outlined and related to the historical and biographical circumstances in which it was written and its characteristics are then examined critically in terms relevant to the modern reader Comparisons are made between different poets and more general topics such as the concepts of classic and baroque are discussed This book first published in 1956 had become a standard introductory work for students of French poetry and general readers alike For this revised edition originally published in 1973 new chapters have been added on irregular seventeenth century poets and on various modern poets whose work now enables the Surrealist movement to be seen in clearer perspective The bibliography has been revised extensively     Scrutiny ,1952     Concise Survey of French Literature Germaine Mason,1959-01-01 In this introductory survey Professor Mason offers a bird s eye view of French literature in six chapters each dealing with approximately a century She adopts the views which seem ed to have the assent of the best critics in 1958     Writers Directory NA NA,2016-03-05
