Quinn,1996 The aim of Recharting the Thirties is to revitalize the awareness of the reading public with regard to eighteen writers whose books have been largely ignored by publishers and scholars since their major works first appeared in the thirties The selection is not based on a political agenda but encompasses a wide and divergent range of philosophies clearly the contrasts between Empson and Upward or between Powell and Slater indicated the wide ranging vision of the period Women writers of the period have largely been marginalized and the writings of Sackville West and Burdekin for example not only present distinct feminine voices of the period but also illuminate how much good literature has been forgotten Anthony Powell Neil Francis Brennan,1995 Since the first edition an additional eight books by the English novelist and critic have appeared including his four volume complete memoirs In this revision Brennan casts light on Powell s fiction by drawing from the author s memory of his own life and times in his memoirs Born just after the turn of the 20th century into the insular world of England s upper class Powell has portrayed its inner workings in his fiction From his first novel Afternoon Men a study of London s Bohemian art scene through his 12 volume work The Music of Time to his last novel The Fisher King a study of an ageing artist Powell has managed to combine ironic wit with a sympathetic awareness of human fallibility to create a body of work Anthony Powell Bernard Bergonzi,1971 A volume in the Writers and Their Work series which draws upon recent thinking in English studies to introduce writers and their contexts Each volume includes biographical material an examination of recent criticism a bibliography and a reappraisal of a major work by the writer Time and Anthony Powell Robert L.
