My Journey with Infiltrating Ductile Carcinoma (Breast Cancer) Anne Anderson,2017-02-16 In the nonfiction story My Journey with Infiltrating Ductile Carcinoma Breast Cancer author W Andranette Anderson uses passion and emotions in order to let her audience know how the challenges of breast cancer affect her and her family Her challenges are compounded when her mother and stepdad are also diagnosed with serious illnesses She is now the primary caregiver not only for her parents but also for herself The story takes place over a period of two and a half years During this time Andranette does her best to live her life as normally as possible do whatever is needed for her parents and use her daily activities as a much needed respite in order to ensure her own self preservation Though she had to stop working as an educator to take care of her parents and herself she would not trade anything for the lessons that she learned from this awe inspiring experience

He Called Me and I Answered Paulette Sawyers,2014-07-14 This story is about a young woman whose relationship with God strengthened after her mother s funeral Whilst establishing this relationship she soon began to realise that her plans were not always the plans that God had in His sights for her After returning to church and being baptized she started to seek support from others who had been baptized in order to share her experiences with them and to have them share theirs with her To her surprise this was not an easy feat leading her to begin her own forum as directed by God Keeping her focus solely on God was not always easy to do but with the support of her husband and Auntie she knew she would make it through

Truth and Secrets Bill Bos,2009-02 Floating on a Malayan Breeze Sudhir Thomas Vadaketh,2012-09-01 What happens after a country splits apart Forty seven years ago Singapore separated from Malaysia Since then the two countries have developed along their own paths Malaysia has given preference to the majority Malay Muslims the bumiputera or sons of the soil Singapore meanwhile has tried to build a meritocracy ostensibly colour blind yet more encouraging perhaps to some Singaporeans than to others How have these policies affected ordinary people How do these two divergent nations now see each other and the world around them Seeking answers to these questions two Singaporeans set off to cycle around Peninsular Malaysia armed with a tent two pairs of clothes and a daily budget of three US dollars each They spent 30 days on the road cycling through every Malaysian state and chatting with hundreds of Malaysians Not satisfied they then went on to interview many more people in Malaysia and Singapore What they found are two countries that have developed economically but are still struggling to find their souls Time Capsules

Tom Sabino,2025-08-13 Told through the voice of Tommy Colozzo Time Capsules is a humorous yet harrowing and imaginative depiction of a young boy struggling to find his place within his family school and the workplace Beginning in the 1980s and spanning five decades Time Capsules speaks to audiences of all ages Easily distracted and often seeking dopamine boosts in the thrills of risktaking Tommy listens to the guidance of an intrusive Voice residing in his mind As he grows up the Voice evolves just as his antics do Thankfully Tommy has allies two unforgettable classmates who balance him with reason empathy and the occasional smack in the head amidst his craziness Tommy s journey reaches a turning point in adulthood as he battles alcoholism drug addiction self hate and ultimately self love Now as an ADHDdiagnosed adult he faces a life altering decision Can he continue living as he is or will he find the courage to seek help from a loving God who is willing to give him another chance That is if he is willing to take a leap of faith A Voyage from England to India, in the Year but Love in God's Water Robert Darden, 2016-09-02 Volume 1 of Nothing but Love in God's Water traced the music of protest spirituals from the Civil War to the American labor movement of the 1930s and 1940s and on through the Montgomery bus boycott. This second volume continues the journey chronicling the role this music played in energizing and sustaining those most heavily involved in the civil rights movement. Robert Darden, former gospel music editor for Billboard magazine and the founder of the Black Gospel Music Restoration Project at Baylor University, brings this vivid vital story to life. He explains why black sacred music helped foster community within the civil rights movement and attract new adherents, shows how Martin Luther King Jr. and other leaders used music to underscore and support their message, and reveals how the songs themselves traveled and changed as the fight for freedom for African Americans continued. Darden makes an unassailable case for the importance of black sacred music not only to the civil rights era but also to present-day struggles in and beyond the United States. Taking us from the Deep South to Chicago and on to the nation's capital, Darden's grittily detailed, lively telling is peppered throughout with the words of those who were there, famous and forgotten alike, activists such as Rep. John Lewis, the Reverend Ralph Abernathy, and Willie Bolden, as well as musical virtuosos such as Harry Belafonte, Duke Ellington, and The Mighty Wonders. Expertly assembled from published and unpublished writing, oral histories, and rare recordings, this is the history of the soundtrack that fueled the long march toward freedom and equality for the black community in the United States and that continues to inspire and uplift people all over the world.

Angel or Not? Ohhh so Not!!! Lori Diez, Angel or Not Ohhh So Not. The Angel or Not Catholic Fiction Book Series is an exciting chapter book series that combines Catholic and family values in a fast-moving story line. Student readers will recognize their own Catholic schooling connection with the main character, Angel, her family, friends, and Sister Rita. The first book in the series focuses on bullying, while the second book focuses on the consequences associated with cheating and lying. Book Two, Angel or Not Ohhh so Not, is an engaging book for preteen children, 3rd-6th grade, that focuses on real-life ups and downs of being a girl in Catholic school. Follow Angel through fourth grade as she learns how to handle her own conflicts while attempting to stay in angel mode, even though her thoughts and actions aren't always so angelic. Stay with her through the stories as she realizes that every action has a consequence. In this, the second book of the series, your favorite characters are back, and the drama continues. As Angel, a fourth grader in Catholic school, discovers why Sonya was a bully from book one and must say goodbye to the Sonya Mystery Dreamboat, Tony is still a dreamboat, and Sister Rita is full of her usual surprises. You'll meet the new neighbors and get an ear full from Angel's Grammy. From Anthony's fender bender with Dad to playing on the Jesuit football field, brother Anthony is back in action after the accident from book one. In this captivating sequel, Angel's world spirals out of control when she makes the worst mistake of her life. Find out exactly what Angel did to earn the book its title, Angel or Not Ohhh So Not. The two-book series make an excellent class and summer reading option as the series reinforces good values, opens the door for discussion on bullying, making good choices, and the consequences of cheating. In addition, both books include bold vocabulary words.
