Anthropological Praxis Translating Knowledge Into Action:

Anthropological Praxis Robert M. Wulff, 2019-04-05 This book is a collection of original case studies describing anthropological knowledge successfully translated into action It describes the targeted problem or issue his or her role as an anthropologist the specific anthropological skills or knowledge used and the results of the work

Anthropological Praxis Robert M. Wulff, Shirley J. Fiske, This text presents 25 original case studies that show working anthropologists solving problems in government and industry The chapters are expanded versions of the 1981 1983 winning entries from the annual Praxis competition In each chapter the author describes the targeted problem or issue his or her role as an anthropologist the specific anthropological skills or knowledge used and the results of the work These in depth studies demonstrate ways in which anthropological knowledge is applicable to real life situations The introduction by coeditors Robert M Wulff and Shirley J Fiske sets the agenda for understanding the dimensions of applied anthropology today The editors examine the anthropologist s role in public management and the policy process This provocative text is a must for any introductory applied anthropology course graduate or undergraduate used alone as a casebook or used in conjunction with a more theoretically based applied anthropology text It is an excellent guide for anthropologists hoping to work outside academia or the mid career anthropologist thinking of a career switch as well as for students embarking on internships

Profiles of Anthropological Praxis Terry M. Redding, Charles C. Cheney, 2022-05-13 The book Profiles of Anthropological Praxis is something of a sequel to Anthropological Praxis Translating Knowledge into Action published in 1987 Westview Press As a casebook of anthropological projects the new version shares a fascinating breadth of award winning projects undertaken by applied anthropologists to address the needs of an array of stakeholders and situations Each chapter will describe a problem and how a project attempted to address it with the following structure Problem Overview Project Description Anthropologist s Role and Impact Outcomes and the Anthropological Difference that is how the unique approaches of anthropology were effectively applied to address human problems

The Unity of Theory and Practice in Anthropology, 2009-04-22 NAPA Bulletin is a peer reviewed occasional publication of the National Association for the Practice of Anthropology dedicated to the practical problem solving and policy applications of anthropological knowledge and methods peer reviewed publication of the National Association for the Practice of Anthropology dedicated to the practical problem solving and policy applications of anthropological knowledge and methods most editions available for course adoption

Anthropology in Practice Riall W. Nolan, 2003 How can students and scholars effectively prepare for and succeed at a career in the nonacademic world of applied anthropology This comprehensive guide full of practical detail presents the answers Nolan relates how to acquire and use the skills essential for work as a practitioner A key feature of his book is its lifetime focus he systematically moves from preparation to job search and negotiation to research methods and ethics to building a career to maintaining relations with the academy The result is an important reference for current practitioners and a must have handbook for prospective anthropologists Practicing Anthropology in the South James M. Tim Wallace, 1997-01-01 Beyond Homelessness, 15th Anniversary Edition Steven Bouma-Prediger, Brian J. Walsh, 2023-09-12 What would the world look like if everyone had a home The rise in homeless encampments The destruction of our planet The disconnection from place caused by capitalism and technology Beyond the unavailability of housing our culture is experiencing a devastating loss of home In Beyond Homelessness Steven Bouma Prediger and Brian Walsh explore the relationship between socioeconomic ecological and cultural homelessness Bouma Prediger and Walsh blend groundbreaking scholarship with stirring biblical meditations while enriching their discussion with literature music and art Offering practical solutions and a hope filled vision of home they show how to heal the deep dislocations in our society In this fifteenth anniversary edition the authors return to their work with a new postscript in which they discuss the evolution of their ideas and share true stories of home and community built anew This revitalized classic is a must read for any Christian committed to social justice and anyone longing for home A Companion to Medical Anthropology Merrill Singer, Pamela I. Erickson, 2015-04-20 A Companion to Medical Anthropology examines the current issues controversies and state of the field in medical anthropology today Provides an expert view of the major topics and themes to concern the discipline since its founding in the 1960s Written by leading international scholars in medical anthropology Covers environmental health global health biotechnology syndemics nutrition substance abuse infectious disease and sexuality and reproductive health and other topics Tourism Research Methods Brent W. Ritchie, Peter Burns, Catherine Palmer, 2005 Within the tourism industry there is a growing consensus on the need for research to investigate the economic social and environmental impacts of tourism However existing research methods texts are based solely on either the business approach or the social science approach to tourism They often fail to provide real world examples of how to plan implement or analyse tourism related research This book aims to address this divide by integrating theory with practice through the inclusion of specific tourism research case studies alongside research theory It considers a wide range of research issues approaches and techniques with contributions from both experienced and new researchers , Foundations of Empowerment Evaluation David M. Fetterman, 2001 This timely addition to a new genre of evaluation methodology eschews the objectivity of an external evaluation in favor of internal value driven assessments that advance the goal of self improvement through self determination Fetterman offers down to earth clearly written descriptions and explanations of an approach that reconciles the contingencies of organizational practice with the standards and principles of evaluation accountability He adroitly bridges the gap between the subjectivity of self evaluation and the objectivity of external evaluation by showing with case examples and detailed methods forms and narrative why empowerment evaluation extends the reach of standard evaluation practice Dennis Mithaug Teacher s College Columbia University What is empowerment evaluation When is it the most appropriate approach to use in an evaluation How can it best be implemented Aimed at demystifying empowerment evaluation the book shows readers when to use this form of evaluation and how to more effectively use its three steps developing a mission statement taking stock by identifying and prioritizing the most significant program activities and charting a course for future strategies to accomplish program goals Fetterman also illustrates the steps with four case examples ranging from hospital to educational settings In addition he covers how to use empowerment evaluation to meet the standards developed by the Joint Committee on Standards for Educational Evaluation the caveats and concerns about the use of empowerment evaluation the relationship between collaborative participatory stakeholder and utilization focused evaluation with empowerment evaluation the role of the Internet in disseminating empowerment evaluation and an analysis of the strengths weaknesses and conditions of empowerment evaluation This book will guide evaluators exploration of their roles as coaches facilitators and advocates as well as enable them to more effectively use this innovative evaluation technique

Contemporary Marketing and Consumer Behavior John F. Sherry, 1995-05-02 This exploration of marketing and consumer behaviour comprises original articles both theoretical and empirical and serves as a sourcebook for those interested in consumption and managerial consequences Issues discussed include elements of the marketing mix advertising and promotion relationship management managerial intervention and stakeholder response organization behaviour economic development class and gender linked consumer behaviour and the production of consumption They are examined using anthropological perspectives and methods ranging from materialistic to semiotic

Governing Disorder Laura Zanotti, 2011 Examines post Cold War discourses about the use of power to promote international security Uses case studies of United Nations interventions in Haiti and Croatia to highlight the dynamics at play in encounters between local societies and international peacekeepers Provided by publisher

Organizing Innovation Marcel Veenswijk, 2006 New Public Management as an administrative reform ideology as well as conceptual innovation has changed the outlook of public administration during the last ten years Public administration and public administration reform should not only be concerned with the improvement of the efficiency and coherence which play an important role in public administration but also political values like liberty equity and security as well as legal values like the rule of the law The modernization agenda of public administration has a rather internal focus while the ultimate test for the modernization of public administration is the way in which governments are able to respond to changing social cultural and economic conditions and the wicked policy problems which result from them This publication contains interesting contributions to the science and practice of public administration

Does Everyone Want Democracy? Paula L. W. Sabloff, 2016-06-16 This book challenges the conventional wisdom that democracy is a universal desire offering a model case study of Mongolian democratization that ties culture history and values to the study of political systems
