An Anthropologist at Work Ruth Benedict, 2017-09-04 An Anthropologist at Work is the product of a long collaboration between Ruth Benedict and Margaret Mead. Mead was Benedict's student, colleague, and eventually her biographer. Here she has collected the bulk of Ruth Benedict's writings. This includes letters between these two seminal anthropologists, correspondence with Franz Boas, Benedict's teacher, Edward Sapir's poems and notes from studies that Benedict had collected throughout her life. Since Benedict wrote little, Mead has fleshed out the narratives by adding background information on Benedict's life, work, and the cultural atmosphere of the time. Ruth Benedict formed her own view of the contribution of anthropology before the first steps were taken in the study of how individual human beings with their given potentialities came to embody their culture. In her later work, she came to accept and sometimes to use the work in culture and personality that depended as much upon social psychology as upon cultural anthropology. She came to recognize that society, made up of persons or organized in groups, was as important as a subject of study as the culture of a society. This volume, greatly enhanced by Mead's contributions, is a record of what was important to Benedict in her life and work. It is expertly ordered and assembled in a way that will be accessible to students and professionals alike. An Anthropologist at Work Ruth Benedict, 1959 An Anthropologist at Work Ruth Benedict, 1973 *An Anthropologist at Work. Writings of Ruth Benedict. By Margaret Mead. Writing Anthropologists, Sounding Primitives A. Elisabeth Reichel, 2021-08 Writing Anthropologists Sounding Primitives re-examines the poetry and scholarship of three of the foremost figures in the twentieth-century history of U.S. American anthropology: Edward Sapir, Margaret Mead, and Ruth Benedict. While they are widely renowned for their contributions to Franz Boas's early twentieth-century school of cultural relativism, what is far less known is their shared interest in probing the representational potential of different media and forms of writing. This dimension of their work is manifest in Sapir's critical writing on music and literature and Mead's groundbreaking work with photography and film. Sapir, Mead, and Benedict together also wrote more than one thousand poems, which in turn negotiate their own media status and rivalry with other forms of representation. A. Elisabeth Reichel presents the first sustained study of the published and unpublished poetry of Sapir, Mead, and Benedict, charting this largely unexplored body of work and relevant selections of the writers' scholarship. In addition to its expansion of early twentieth-century literary canons, Writing Anthropologists Sounding Primitives contributes to current debates about the relations between different media, sign systems, and modes of sense perception in literature and other media. Reichel offers a unique contribution to the history of anthropology by synthesizing and applying insights from the history of writing, sound studies, and intermediality studies to poetry and scholarship produced by noted early twentieth-century U.S. American cultural anthropologists. French, 2020-05-15 Anthropological Lives introduces readers to what it is like to be a professional anthropologist It focuses on the work anthropologists do the passions they have the way that being an anthropologist affects the kind of life they lead The book draws heavily on the experiences of twenty anthropologists interviewed by Virginia R Dominguez and Brigitte M French as well as on the experiences of the two coauthors Many different kinds of anthropologists are represented and the book makes a point of discussing their commonalities as well as their differences Some of the anthropologists included work in the academy some work outside the academy and some work in institutions like museums Included are cultural anthropologists linguistic anthropologists medical anthropologists biological anthropologists practicing anthropologists and anthropological archaeologists A fascinating look behind the curtain the stories in Anthropological Lives will inform anyone who has ever wondered what you do with a degree in anthropology Anthropologists profiled Leslie Aiello Lee Baker Jo o Biehl Tom Boellstorff Jacqueline Comito Shannon Dawdy Virginia R Dominguez T J Ferguson Brigitte French Agust n Fuentes Amy Goldenberg Mary Gray Sarah Green Monica Heller Douglas Hertzler Ed Liebow Mariano Perelman Jeremy Sabloff Carolyn Sargent Marilyn Strathern Nandini Sundar Alaka Wali American Anthropologist, 1899

Engaging Anthropological Theory Mark Moberg, 2024-09-30 The updated third edition of this book critically reconsiders the history of anthropological theory Covering key concepts and theorists in a lively style Engaging Anthropological Theory examines the historical context of anthropological ideas and the contested nature of anthropology itself The book illustrates how anthropological ideas about human diversity are rooted in historical conditions including the West's relationship with colonized societies and the politics of scholarly inquiry itself Exploring anthropological ideas in context helps students understand how they evolved and how they relate to society and history This new edition pays close attention to non canonical figures and scholars of color whose contributions are too often bypassed in disciplinary histories Students and instructors will also appreciate the open ended review questions for each chapter that stimulate critical thought and discussion Extensively illustrated throughout this engaging text moves away from the dry recitation of past viewpoints in anthropology and shows their continued relevance to modern life An Anthropological lifetime in Japan Joy Hendry, 2016-12-05 Joy Hendry's collection demonstrates the value of an anthropological approach to understanding a particular society by taking the reader through her own discovery of the field explaining her practice of it in Oxford and Japan and then offering a selection of the results and findings she obtained Her work starts with a study of marriage made in a small rural community continues with education and the rearing of children and later turns to consider polite language especially amongst women This lead into a study of wrapping and cultural display for example of gardens and theme parks which became a comparative venture putting Japan in a global context Finally the book sums up change through the period of Hendry s research Conversions and Visions in the Writings of African-American Women Kimberly Rae Connor,1994

The subsequent achievement of selfhood is then based on the interplay of individual and community identities Connor suggests that the distinctiveness of African American women s experiences and writings can transcend their immediate communities and be brought to bear on women s experiences in general making their individual stories more accessible and meaningful to the whole of humankind A Bibliography of the Anthropology of Peru George Amos Dorsey,1898
