Anthropology In The Margins Of The State School Of American Research Advanced Seminar Series:

State Violence and Human Rights Steffen Jensen, Andrew Jefferson, 2009-02-13 Addressing how state representatives have to negotiate the tensions between international legal imperatives the expectations of donors the demands of institutions as well as their own interests State Violence and Human Rights addresses how legal practices rooted in global human rights discourse or local demands take hold in societies where issues of state violence remain to be resolved Spatializing Law Franz von Benda-Beckmann, Keebet von Benda-Beckmann, 2016-04-01 Spatializing Law An Anthropological Geography of Law in Society focuses on law and its location exploring how spaces are constructed on the terrestrial and marine surface of the earth with legal means in a rich variety of socio political legal and ecological settings The contributors explore the interrelations between social spaces and physical space highlighting the ways in which legal rules may localise people s rights and obligations in social space that may be mapped onto physical space This volume also demonstrates how different notions of space and place become resources that can be mobilised in social political and economic interaction paying specific attention to the contradictory ways in which space may be configured and involved in social interaction under conditions of plural legal orders Spatializing Law makes a significant contribution to the anthropological geography of law and will be useful to scholars across a broad array of disciplines Sovereignty at the Edge Cathryn H. Clayton, 2020-03-17 How have conceptions and practices of sovereignty shaped how Chineseness is imagined This ethnography addresses this question through the example of Macau a southern Chinese city that was a Portuguese colony from the 1550s until 1999 As the Portuguese administration prepared to transfer Macau to Chinese control it mounted a campaign to convince the city s residents 95 percent of whom identified as Chinese that they possessed a unique cultural identity that made them different from other Chinese and that resulted from the existence of a Portuguese state on Chinese soil This attempt sparked reflections on the meaning of Portuguese governance that challenged not only conventional definitions of sovereignty but also conventional notions of Chineseness as a subjectivity common to all Chinese people around the world Various stories about sovereignty and Chineseness and their interrelationship were told in Macau in the 1990s This book is about those stories and how they informed the lives of Macau residents in ways that allowed different relationships among sovereignty subjectivity and culture to become thinkable while also providing a sense of why at times it may not be desirable to think them Space and Mobility in Palestine Julie Peteet, 2017-01-15 Professor Julie Peteet believes that the concept of mobility is key to understanding how place and space act as forms of power identity and meaning among Palestinians in Israel today In Space and Mobility in Palestine she investigates how Israeli policies of closure and separation influence Palestinian concerns about constructing identity the ability to give meaning to place and how Palestinians comprehend experience narrate and respond to Israeli settler colonialism Peteet s work sheds new light on everyday life in the Occupied Territories and helps explain why regional peace may be difficult to achieve in the foreseeable future Land

Life, and Emotional Landscapes at the Margins of Bangladesh Éva Rozália Hölzle, 2025-10-01 Drawing on two years of ethnographic research in the north eastern borderlands of Bangladesh this book focuses on the everyday struggles of indigenous farmers threatened with losing their land due to such state programmes as the realignment of the national border ecotourism social forestry and the establishment of a military cantonment In implementing these programmes state actors challenge farmers right to land instituting spaces of violence in which multiple forms of marginalisation overlap and are reinforced Mapping how farmers react to these challenges emotionally and practically the book argues that these land conflicts serve as a starting point for existentially charged disputes in which the survival efforts of farmers clash with the political imaginations and practices of the nation state The analysis shows that losing land represents more than being deprived of a material asset it is nothing less than the extinction of ways of life

Making Sense of the Global Raúl Acosta, Sadaf Rizvi, Ana Santos, 2020-06-01 Anthropology is more relevant than ever before to making sense of the constant intercultural encounters taking place around the world Even though the discipline was born out of the need to understand the way humans interact it had for decades been trapped in a counter cultural stance that effectively disarmed it of any direct influence on public affairs Recent global trends however have brought this academic discipline to the attention of governments agencies and social entrepreneurs because of its capacity to create bridges of understanding between people of contrasting cultures This ability is today more necessary than ever before in facing the challenges posed by the shrinking of our world This volume provides reflections on what anthropological research can offer through its thick analyses We are convinced that ethnographic research can contribute to a better understanding of social phenomena in our global times

The Anthropology of the Future Rebecca Bryant, Daniel M. Knight, 2019-03-28 Anticipation Expectation Speculation Potentiality Hope Destiny

The Making of Empire in Bronze Age Anatolia Claudia Glatz, 2020-11-12 This book reconsiders the concept of empire and examines the processes of imperial making and undoing in Hittite Anatolia c 1600 1180 BCE

Bureaucrats and Bleeding Hearts Tess Lea, 2008 This is an anthropological study of the culture of public health governance in the Northern Territory of Australia It asks what it takes to become a helping white bureau professional in Australia's post colonial frontier someone who passionately cares about and resolutely strives toward improved health for Indigenous people and how their determination to help is sustained in the face of a self declared history of failure Provided by publisher

Life at the Center Erica Caple James, 2024-05-28 A free ebook version of this title is available through Luminos University of California Press's Open Access publishing program Visit www.luminosoa.org to learn more In Life at the Center Erica Caple James traces how faith based and secular institutions in Boston have helped Haitian refugees and immigrants attain economic independence health security and citizenship in the United States Using the concept of corporate Catholicism James documents several paradoxes of assistance arising among the Catholic Church Catholic Charities and the Haitian Multi Service Center how social assistance produces and reproduces structural inequalities between providers and recipients how these inequities may deepen aid recipients dependence and lead to resistance to organized benevolence how institutional financial deficits harmed clients and providers and how the same modes of charity or philanthropy that previously caused harm can be redeployed to repair damage and rebuild charitable brands The culmination of more than a decade of advocacy and research on behalf of the Haitians in Boston this groundbreaking work exposes how Catholic corporations have strengthened but also eroded Haitians civic power Logics of Empowerment

Aradhana Sharma,2008 Bringing much needed specificity to the study of neoliberalism Logics of Empowerment fosters a deeper understanding of development and politics in contemporary India Forensic Fantasies Başak Can,2025-08-12

How progressive doctors medical institutions and state forces in Turkey use forensic methods to detect erase and reveal evidence of state violence Forensic Fantasies explores the role of medical documentation and evidence in uncovering human rights violations Anthropologist Ba ak Can examines how progressive doctors medical institutions and state forces in Turkey use forensic methods to detect erase reveal and transform violence exerted against populations deemed to be enemies of the state Through extensive ethnographic fieldwork with doctors engaged in forensic documentation of torture Can shows how the shared belief in the power of medical witnessing to establish truth and justice brings political activists and medical experts into community with each other at the same time this belief or forensic fantasy as Can terms it can actually further entrench state power through its reliance on legal and administrative recognition of the violence it is seeking to document Unpacking the epistemological frameworks political histories institutional and legal structures professional networks and daily practices that give rise to and sustain these forensic fantasies Can exposes the possibilities and limits of radical documentation as a political project Shedding new light on the tensions of our contemporary post truth moment Can demonstrates how forensic fantasies are vital for forming communities of experts who oppose regimes of denial and ignorance but at the same time have limited political efficacy in bringing about change and countering state violence The State in India After Liberalization Akhil Gupta,Kalyanakrishnan Sivaramakrishnan,2010-10-04 This book assesses the changing nature of the state in the period after liberalization in India It includes detailed analysis of its implications for important issues such as inequality poverty basic needs provision citizenship federalism and democratization Framing

Borders Ian Kalman,2021-03-19 Framing Borders is the first book length ethnography looking at interactions between border officers and Indigenous cross border travellers in North America Mobility Makes States Darshan Vigneswaran,Joel Quirk,2015-04-22 Human mobility has long played a foundational role in producing state territories resources and hierarchies When people move within and across national boundaries they create both challenges and opportunities In Mobility Makes States chapters written by historians political scientists sociologists and anthropologists explore different patterns of mobility in sub Saharan Africa and how African states have sought to harness these movements toward their own ends While border control and intercontinental migration policies remain important topics of study Mobility Makes States demonstrates that immigration control is best understood alongside parallel efforts by states in Africa to promote both long distance and everyday movements The contributors challenge the image of a fixed and static state that is concerned only with stopping foreign migrants at its border and show that the politics of mobility takes place across a wide range of locations including colonial hinterlands workplaces camps foreign countries and city streets They examine short term and circular migrations everyday commuting and urban expansion forced migrations emigrations diasporic communities and the mobility of gatekeepers and officers of the state who push and pull migrant populations in different directions Through the experiences and trajectories of migration in sub Saharan Africa this empirically rich volume sheds new light on larger global patterns and state making processes Contributors Eric Allina Oliver Bakewell Pamila Gupta Nauja Kleist Loren B Landau Joel Quirk Benedetta Rossi Filipa Ribeiro da Silva Simon Turner Darshan Vigneswaran Kolor. communities 2007 - Vol. 7 - Nr. 1 , Inside Immigration Law Tobias G. Eule, 2016-05-23 Inside Immigration Law analyses the practice of implementing immigration law examining the different political and organisational forces that influence the process Based on unparalleled academic access to the German migration management system this book provides new insights into the black box of regulating immigration revealing how the application of immigration law to individual cases can be chaotic improvised and sometimes arbitrary and either informed or distorted by the complex politically laden and changeable nature of both German and EU immigration laws Drawing on extensive empirical material including participant observation interviews and analyses of public as well as confidential documents in German immigration offices Inside Immigration Law unveils the complex practices of decision making and work organisation in a politically contested environment A comparative critical evaluation of the work of offices that examines the discretion and client interactions of bureaucrats the management of legal knowledge and symbolism and the relationships between immigration offices and external political forces this book will be of interest to sociologists legal scholars and political scientists working in the areas of migration integration and the study of work and organisations Expressions of the Body Charlotte Baker, 2009 This book contributes to a growing corpus of writing on the body bringing new perspectives to this fascinating and topical subject Feminist psychoanalytic and queer readings among others have demonstrated the extent of the functions and roles fulfilled by the body as well as the number of critical perspectives it can serve However by and large African representations of the body have been overlooked This coherent volume brings together essays on the portrayal of the body in African art film literature photography and theatre The book includes thematically linked contributions which explore issues of power and representation and reflects current trends in the study of the body and more broadly within the field of African Studies Flows and Frictions in Trans-Himalayan Spaces Gunnel Cederlöf, Willem Schendel, 2025-10-01 Flows and Frictions in Trans Himalayan Spaces traces movements and connections in a region known for its formidable obstacles to mobility Eight original essays and a conceptual introduction engage with questions of networks and interconnection between people across a bordered landscape Mobility among the extremely varied ecologies of south western China Myanmar and north eastern India with their rugged terrain high mountains monsoon fed rivers and marshy lowlands is certainly subject to friction But today harsh political realities have created hard borders and fractured this trans Himalayan terrain However the closely researched chapters in this book demonstrate that these borders have not prevented an abundance of movements connections and flows Mobility has always coexisted with friction here but this coexistence has been unsettled giving this space its historical shape and its contemporary dynamism Introducing the concept of the corridor as an analytical framework this collection investigates mobility and flows in this unique socio political landscape Everyday Activists Christina M. Getrich, 2025-04-22 Strategies of resistance by undocumented young adults About 825 000 of the more than two million undocumented young adults in the United States benefited from the Deferred Action for Childhood Arrivals DACA program started by President Obama in 2012 Through DACA these young adults are able to work legally in the United States and have been insulated from deportation However since President Trump s attempted termination of the program in 2017 DACA recipients have endured a rollercoaster of legal battles that have left them in an unimaginable state of prolonged limbo Amid this rapidly shifting political climate many undocumented young adults have joined the large scale high visibility social movement to fight for policy change and immigrant justice Yet often overlooked are the thousands more DACA recipients nationwide who have never participated in immigration related activism As Christina M Getrich argues in less publicly visible ways they are nonetheless fighting for immigrant well being and justice in their everyday adult lives and their more private forms of action should be considered political activism Drawing from five years of rich ethnographic research with a diverse population of thirty DACA recipients living in the Washington D C area Everyday Activists portrays the alternative political engagement strategies they enact in their daily lives as they leverage their unique knowledge bases and skill sets and make a meaningful impact in their communities The volume reveals how these young activists strategies are instructive for thinking creatively about how to show up in our everyday lives for immigrants and others who are systematically subjected to social exclusion
