Antiracist Probation Practice:

Anti-Racist Probation Practice Lena Dominelli, 2017-03-02 The probation service has committed itself to anti racist initiatives and those promoting equal opportunities for some time However the experiences of black people whether as workers or clients indicates that the realities of day to day practice are far removed from this Moreover the picture is just as bleak if not even more so in other parts of the criminal justice system including the judiciary and the prison service Anti Racist Probation Practice addresses this conundrum and drawing on the experiences of black people makes practical proposals for moving forward in non tokenistic ways These include core areas of practice for example court reports monitoring systems resource allocation and working relations Arguing that process procedures and outcomes in the work done must be taken together if individual institutional and cultural racism are to be eradicated the book shows that anti racist probation practice must be taken seriously by both black and white people if it is to materialise Racism and Anti-Racism in Probation David Denney, 2004-01-14 Racism and Anti Racism in Probation analyses the complex processes by which black people are treated differentially by the probation service Drawing on detailed ethnographic material David Denney shows how conventions used by probation officers can discriminate against black people He considers the implications of recent changes in penal policy on the development of probation work and considers how future developments may lead to an anti racist form of probation practice Developing an Anti-racist Probation Practice National Association of Probation Officers (Great Britain), 1987 Racism Albert J. Wheeler, 2005 Of all mankind's vices racism is one of the most pervasive and stubborn Success in overcoming racism has been achieved from time to time but victories have been limited thus far because mankind has focused on personal economic gain or power grabs ignoring generosity of the soul This bibliography brings together the literature Criminal Injustice Robynne Neugebauer, 2000-01-01 This volume examines racism within the process of criminal justice In every society criminal justice plays a key role establishing social control and maintaining the hegemony of the dominant economic classes The contributors to this anthology argue that the differential treatment of people of colour and First Nations peoples is due to systemic racism within all levels of the criminal justice system which serves these dominant classes Ideological and cultural changes are preconditions for the success of anti racist policies and practices within the criminal justice system and within other state institutions Recommendations for transformations in justice policy and practice are provided Developments in Social Work with Offenders Gill McIvor, Peter Raynor, 2007 Explains the organisational and legislative changes that have occurred in social work and probation across the UK in the past 10 years Countering Discrimination in Social Work Bogdan Lesnik, 2017-07-05 Discrimination Isn't there enough talk about discrimination Yes indeed That is why we have to begin countering discrimination We need strategies that will make it inoperative or at least limit its scope But first we need to think how discrimination works and identify it where it works It concerns far more than mere procedural hitches for which a few legal provisions will do Countering Discrimination Volume 1998 of International Perspectives in Social Work yearbook brings papers that analyse mechanisms of social discrimination in a variety of such locations and bring proposals for counter strategies This is essential in social work if causes rather than manifestations of the problems it is concerned with are to be addressed But it is also essential that everybody who opposes discrimination recognise its subtle and dispersed ways of operation in the human services regardless of their own basic field of work In this respect the book will be useful to a very wide audience

Surviving the Academy Danusia Malina, Sian Maslin-Prothero, 2003-09-02 This text brings together writing and research on feminist experience in academia It covers issues such as provision of care maternalism in the academy and dynamics of interaction between women in higher education There are challenging and provocative analyses of many questions how large is the gap between rhetoric and reality in HE institutions how do institutions behave towards disabled staff how far is stereotyping still affecting the roles which women play in academia what do women face when they combine motherhood with teaching or studying coping mechanisms and survival tactics are brought under scrutiny and the effect these have on the behaviour of female academics and their interactions with the institution of each other This text should provide insight and evidence for researchers to further develop their own theories and also many starting points for those wishing to undertake their own research Written in collaboration with the Women in Higher Education Network

Social Work and Minorities R.D. Johnson Mark, Haluk Soydan, Charlotte Williams, 2002-01-31 Social Work and Minorities examines the new challenges presented to Social Workers throughout Europe by the complex problems occasioned by increased migration and settlement and the growing awareness of the specific needs of refugees and asylum seekers Contributors use illustrative examples from throughout Europe to examine key concepts such as globalization assimilation visibility multi culturalism racism marginalization and social exclusion Social Work and Minorities will be an essential resource for social work students practitioners and educators working with migrant communities throughout Europe

the subject matter is presented in a way that makes sense to them with purpose clarity and relevance to their lives This book provides essential content and guidance for professionals to follow and implement for the benefit of SEND pupils and will be key reading for educators working in mainstream education additional resource provisions SMEH provisions and special schools

Ethical Issues in Social Work Richard Hugman, David Smith, 2002-09-09 It has always been recognised that the practice of social work raises ethical questions and dilemmas Recently however traditional ways of addressing ethical issues in social work have come to seem inadequate as a result of developments both in philosophy and in social work theory and practice This collection of thought provoking essays explores the ethics of social work practice on the light of these changes Ethical Issues in Social Work provides up to date critical analyses of the ethical implications of new legislation in community care and criminal justice and of trends in social work thought and policy such as managerialism user empowerment feminism and anti oppressive practice This study provides important and stimulating reading for social work students and their teachers and for all practitioners and managers who are concerned about the ethical dimensions of their work

Tackling Institutional Racism Laura Penketh, 2000-10-11 This challenging book analyses the development of anti racist social work education and training It critically assesses the concept of race offers an historical exploration of the role of social work and provides an assessment of the backlash against the Central Council for Education and Training in Social Work s anti racist developments

Modern Social Work Theory, Fourth Edition Malcolm Payne, 2014-06 This masterly text is a classic in its field and will be a reliable companion throughout the course of your studies and your career as a social work practitioner In this substantially reworked and updated fourth edition of his best selling text Malcolm Payne presents clear and concise evaluations of the pros and cons of major theories that inform social work practice and comparisons between them Modern Social Work Theory is now more accessible and comprehensive than ever offering the most complete coverage of social work theory from classic perspectives to the very latest ideas including a new chapter dedicated to strengths narrative and solutions approaches a host of brand new case examples showing how theories can be applied to everyday practice new analysis of the ethical dimensions of different social work theories and what common values they share Pause and Reflect questions to encourage you to draw on your own experience and develop your thinking and updated Example text sections which summarize the most current thinking and help bridge the gap between introductions to each theory and more specialist writing

Acting Out Philip Moore, 1997 This book explores the theory and practice of using a drama approach in groupwork with a practical emphasis on relationship issues

Researching Violence Raymond M. Lee, Elizabeth A Stanko, 2014-06-11 Violence is a research topic that is fraught with difficulties A notoriously sensitive subject and one that is presumed to be largely hidden researchers have long struggled with the question of how to measure its impact and how to explore its incidence Arising from the ESRC s Violence Research Programme Researching Violence is a practical guide both to theses problems and to the obstacles encountered when negotiating this uneasy terrain Comprising the reflections of researchers who have worked on diverse projects from violence in the home to racial violence and homicide this book demonstrates the ingenuity and at times courageous actions of researchers having to think on their feet It also investigates the ethical and emotional issues arising from working with the victims and perpetrators of violence This book will be indispensable for students and academics doing research projects on violence

Developing an Anti-racist Probation Practice National Association of Probation Officers,1991

Black Women's Experiences of Criminal Justice Ruth Chigwada-Bailey,2003 A personal discourse on the multiple disadvantages of people who are black women and from the margins of society

Anti-Racist Practice in Social Work Kish Bhatti-Sinclair,2011-02-15 A critical introduction to key debates about race and racism this new addition to the Reshaping Social Work series examines race as a social construct It addresses the origins of anti racist practice and analyses practical issues to provide a blueprint for anti racist practice within social work

Equalising Opportunities, Minimising Oppression Dylan Tomlinson,Winston Trew,2005-06-29 Anti Racist Practice ARP Anti Discriminatory Practice ADP and Anti Oppressive Practice AOP form a trinity of concepts nested into one another which have evolved in welfare services over the last fifteen years They tend to have developed as forms of practice panaceas and as a result have been subject to both unrealistic expectations and at times to political ridicule This book clarifies the distinctions between three key concepts ARP ADP and AOP Critically and constructively analysing these three approaches to practice it reappraises their potential in the light of emerging equality issues in the health service With contributions from leading teachers and practitioners in the field Equalising Opportunities provides students and practitioners in health and social care with a clear overview of an area where there is much confusion and imperfect understanding

Racism, Crime and Justice Benjamin Bowling,Coretta Phillips,2002 Racism Crime and Justice offers a broad overview of this challenging and underexplored field The book synthesises a great deal of empirical research evidence documentary accounts and illustrative examples in order to give a minority perspective on the race and crime debate The book looks systematically at the influence of race in determining the prison population in influencing decisions by the courts in the function and behaviour of the police in the extent and nature of crime committed both by and against ethnic minorities The book ends by discussing policy issues and explores the options open in seeking to combat discrimination on racial grounds within the criminal justice system following the findings of the Lawrence Inquiry Although specialist studies have appeared and there have been general texts containing chapter length summaries of the area there is no up to date textbook on this important theme
