

AUTONOMY

DEFINITION

Autonomy refers to the capacity of a person or entity to make decisions and act according to their own rules or principles, free from external control or influence. It emphasizes self-governance, independence, and personal freedom. In various contexts, it can pertain to individuals, groups, or machines. Many moral philosophies hold that it's a fundamental human right.

EXAMPLES

- Personal Autonomy: An individual choosing their career path based on passion rather than societal expectations.
- National Autonomy: A country making decisions about its internal policies without interference from external powers.

Autonomy Of History:

The Autonomy of History Joseph M. Levine, 1999-12-15 In these learned essays Joseph M Levine shows how the idea and method of modern history first began to develop during the Renaissance when a clear distinction between history and fiction was first proposed The new claims for history were met by a new skepticism in a debate that still echoes today Levine's first three essays discuss Thomas More's preoccupation with the distinction between history and fiction Erasmus's biblical criticism and the contribution of Renaissance philology to critical method and the way in which Renaissance rhetoric as in Thomas Elyot's Book of the Governor continued to inhibit the autonomy of history He then shows how these issues persisted into the eighteenth century even as critical method developed He concludes with a close description of the great controversy that culminated in Edward Gibbon's day over the authenticity of a biblical text that had been used for centuries to defend the Trinity but which turned out to be a forgery Levine shows how by then all sides were ready to concede the autonomy of history

The Invention of Autonomy Jerome B. Schneewind, 1997-12-13 J B Schneewind's remarkable book is the most comprehensive study ever written of the history of moral philosophy Its aim is to set Kant's still influential ethics in its historical context by showing in detail what the central questions in moral philosophy were for him and how he arrived at his own distinctive ethical views In its range analyses and discussion of the subtle interweaving of religious and political thought with moral philosophy this is an unprecedented account of the evolution of Kant's ethics

The Invention of Autonomy Jerome B. Schneewind, 1997-12-13 This remarkable book is the most comprehensive study ever written of the history of moral philosophy in the seventeenth and eighteenth centuries Its aim is to set Kant's still influential ethics in its historical context by showing in detail what the central questions in moral philosophy were for him and how he arrived at his own distinctive ethical views The book is organised into four main sections each exploring moral philosophy by discussing the work of many influential philosophers of the seventeenth and eighteenth centuries In an epilogue the author discusses Kant's view of his own historicity and of the aims of moral philosophy In its range in its analyses of many philosophers not discussed elsewhere and in revealing the subtle interweaving of religious and political thought with moral philosophy this is an unprecedented account of the evolution of Kant's ethics

The Invention of Autonomy: a History of Modern Moral Philosophy, 1998 Collingwood's The Idea of History Peter Johnson, 2012-12-20 An invaluable guide to this classic text surveying the book's composition and central arguments the intellectual context of its composition and its continuing influence

The Contested History of Autonomy Gerard Rosich, 2018 The Contested History of Autonomy examines the concept of autonomy in modern times It presents the history of modernity as constituted by the tension between sovereignty and autonomy and offers a critical interpretation of European modernity from a global perspective The book shows in contrast to the standard view of its invention that autonomy re-emerged as a defining quality of modernity in early modern Europe Gerard Rosich looks at how the concept is first used politically in opposition to the rival concept of sovereignty as an attribute of a collective self in struggle against imperial domination Subsequently the book presents a range of historical developments as significant events in the history of imperialism which are connected at once with the consolidation of the concept of sovereignty and with a western view of modernity Additionally the book provides an interpretation of the history of globalization based on this connection Rosich discusses the conceptual shortcomings and historical inadequacy of the traditional western view of modernity against the background of recent breakthroughs in world history In doing so it reconstructs an alternative interpretation of modernity associated with the history of autonomy as it appeared in early modern Europe before looking to the present and the ongoing tension between sovereignty and autonomy that exists This is a groundbreaking study that will be of immense value to scholars researching modern Europe and its relationship with the World Bloomsbury Publishing

The Oxford History of Historical Writing: 1800-1945 Daniel R. Woolf, Andrew Feldherr, Grant Hardy, Ian Hesketh, 2011 A chronological scholarly survey of the history of historical writing in five volumes Each volume covers a particular period of time from the beginning of writing to the present day and from all over the world Art History After Modernism Hans Belting, 2003-08 Art history after modernism does not only mean that art looks different today it also means that our discourse on art has taken a different direction if it is safe to say it has taken a direction at all So begins Hans Belting's brilliant iconoclastic reconsideration of art and art history at the end of the millennium which builds upon his earlier and highly successful volume The End of the History of Art Known for his striking and original theories about the nature of art according to the Economist Belting here examines how art is made viewed and interpreted today Arguing that contemporary art has burst out of the frame that art history had built for it Belting calls for an entirely new approach to thinking and writing about art He moves effortlessly between contemporary issues the rise of global and minority art and its consequences for Western art history installation and video art and the troubled institution of the art museum and questions central to art history's definition of itself such as the distinction between high and low culture art criticism versus art history and the invention of modernism in art history Forty eight black and white images illustrate the text perfectly reflecting the state of contemporary art With Art History after Modernism Belting retains his place as one of the most original thinkers working in the visual arts today New Terrains in Southeast Asian History Abu Talib Ahmad, Liok Ee Tan, 2003 Annotation Southeast Asian scholars may have special insights into their respective countries but they are just as easily infected by political and didactic functions of their national histories as any historian The editors a professor and former professor with the School of Humanities U Sains Malaysia present 15 papers in which Southeast Asian scholars turn a critical eye on their national historiographies Five of the papers explore broad methodological issues while others examine particular historiographic traditions from Burma Myanmar Singapore Malaysia and Thailand The final group consists of case studies of the application of new methodologies and understandings to particular historical events or periods Annotation c 2003 Book News Inc Portland OR booknews com Nationalism and Imperialism in South and Southeast Asia Arnold P.

Kaminsky, Roger D. Long, 2016-09-13 This volume is a festschrift for Damodar Ramaji SarDesai b 1931 Professor Emeritus of History at the University of California Los Angeles UCLA His work for over fifty years at UCLA has been an inspiration to generations of students and he has made major contributions in his chosen areas of specialization of India its foreign policy with regard to southeast Asia imperialism and the history of the modern European empires Please note Taylor Francis does not sell or distribute the Hardback in India Pakistan Nepal Bhutan Bangladesh and Sri Lanka The Principles of History R. G. Collingwood, 1999-03-18 Published here for the first time is much of a final and long anticipated work on philosophy of history by the great Oxford philosopher and historian R G Collingwood 1889 1943 The original text of this uncompleted work has only recently been discovered It is accompanied by further shorter writings by Collingwood on historical knowledge and inquiry selected from previously unpublished manuscripts held at the Bodleian Library Oxford All these writings besides containing entirely new ideas discuss further many of the issues which Collingwood famously raised in The Idea of History and in his Autobiography The volume includes also two conclusions written by Collingwood for lectures which were eventually revised and published as The Idea of Nature but which have relevance also to his philosophy of history A lengthy editorial introduction sets these writings in their context and discusses philosophical questions to which they give rise The editors also consider why Collingwood left The Principles of History unfinished at his death and what significance should be attached to the fact that it contains no reference to the idea of historical understanding as re enactment This volume will be a landmark publication not just in Collingwood studies but in philosophy of history generally

Personal Autonomy in Society Marina Oshana, 2016-12-05 People are socially situated amid complex relations with other people and are bound by interpersonal frameworks having significant influence upon their lives These facts have implications for their autonomy Challenging many of the currently accepted conceptions of autonomy and of how autonomy is valued Oshana develops a social relational account of autonomy or self governance as a condition of persons that is largely constituted by a person's relations with other people and by the absence of certain social relations She denies that command over one's motives and the freedom to realize one's will are sufficient to secure the kind of command over one's life that autonomy requires and argues against psychological procedural and content neutral accounts of autonomy Oshana embraces the idea that her account is perfectionist in a sense and argues that ultimately our commitment to autonomy is defeasible but she maintains that a social relational account best captures what we value about autonomy and best serves the various ends for which the concept of autonomy is employed

The Cambridge History of Southeast Asia Nicholas Tarling, 1999 Volume 2 discusses Southeast Asia's interaction with foreign countries during the period c 1500 to c 1800

The (vexed and Contentious) History of Autonomy, 2011

The Cambridge History of Southeast Asia: From early times to c. 1800 Nicholas Tarling, 1992 The Cambridge History of Southeast Asia is a multi authored treatment of the whole of mainland and island Southeast Asia from Burma to Indonesia Unlike other histories of the region it is not divided on a country by country basis and is not structured purely chronologically but rather takes a thematic and regional approach to Southeast Asia's history aiming to present the current state of historical research on Southeast Asia as well as stimulating further thought and investigation Publisher description Knowing History in Schools Arthur Chapman ,2021-01-07 The knowledge turn in curriculum studies has drawn attention to the central role that knowledge of the disciplines plays in education and to the need for new thinking about how we understand knowledge and knowledge building Knowing History in Schools explores these issues in the context of teaching and learning history through a dialogue between the eminent sociologist of curriculum Michael Young and leading figures in history education research and practice from a range of traditions and contexts With a focus on Young's powerful knowledge theorisation of the curriculum and on his more recent articulations of the powers of knowledge this dialogue explores the many complexities posed for history education by the challenge of building children's historical knowledge and understanding The book builds towards a clarification of how we can best conceptualise knowledge building in history education Crucially it aims to help history education students history teachers teacher educators and history curriculum designers navigate the challenges that knowledge building processes pose for learning history in schools

Past Sense – Studies in Medieval and Early Modern European History Constantin Fasolt,2014-04-03 The twenty studies collected in this volume focus on the transition from the Middle Ages to the modern world The method leads from technical investigations on William Durant the Younger ca 1266 1330 and Hermann Conring 1606 1681 through reflection on the nature of historical knowledge to a break with historicism an affirmation of anachronism and a broad perspective on the history of Europe The introduction explains when and why these studies were written and places them in the context of contemporary historical thinking by drawing on Wittgenstein's Philosophical Investigations This book will appeal to historians with an interest in historical theory historians of late medieval and early modern Europe and students looking for the meaning of history The Historical Construction of Southeast Asian Studies Park Seung Woo,Victor T King,2013-06-17 At a time when Southeast Asian Studies is declining in North America and Europe this book serves to remind us of the fresh constructive and encouraging view of the field from Asia On behalf of Taiwan's Southeast Asian research community I sincerely congratulate Professors Park and King for making such a great and timely contribution to the making of Southeast Asian Studies in Asia Hsin Huang Michael Hsiao Director of Institute of Sociology Academia Sinica and former President of Taiwan Association of Southeast Asian Studies The Historical Construction of Southeast Asian Studies Korea and Beyond is an important and long overdue step in the task of bringing Southeast Asian Studies to where it rightfully belongs the Asian region At the same time it avoids being narrowly regionalistic and instead views Southeast Asia as an open system that transcends national units or fixed territorial categories and welcomes the contributions of both Asian and non Asian scholars in crafting a fresh post colonial approach to the study of the region's societies and peoples Eduardo Climaco Tadem Professor of Asian Studies University of the Philippines Diliman An insightful and systemic analysis of the intriguing trajectories

evolving themes and multi lingual scholarship of Southeast Asian Studies in Asia and beyond this book serves as an important foundation in setting future research agendas as well as for closer global collaborations in knowledge production in Asian Studies Liu Hong Tan Kah Kee Professor and Chair School of Humanities and Social Sciences Nanyang Technological University Singapore Fragments of Home Tom Scott-Smith,2024-09-03 Abandoned airports Shipping containers Squatted hotels These are just three of the many unusual places that have housed refugees in the past decade The story of international migration is often told through personal odysseys and dangerous journeys but when people arrive at their destinations a more mundane task begins refugees need a place to stay Governments and charities have adopted a range of strategies in response to this need Some have sequestered refugees in massive camps of glinting metal Others have hosted them in renovated office blocks and disused warehouses They often end up in prefabricated shelters flown in from abroad This book focuses on seven examples of emergency shelter from Germany to Jordan which emerged after the great summer of migration in 2015 Drawing on detailed ethnographic research into these shelters the book reflects on their political implications and opens up much bigger questions about humanitarian action By exploring how aid agencies and architects approached this basic human need Tom Scott Smith demonstrates how shelter has many elements that are hard to reconcile or combine shelter is always partial and incomplete producing mere fragments of home Ultimately he argues that current approaches to emergency shelter have led to destructive forms of paternalism and concludes that the principle of autonomy can offer a more fruitful approach to sensitive and inclusive housing Morality Vasil Gluchman,2013-09-01 This book of essays focuses on the new approaches to moral issues from two perspectives The first part Various Concepts of Morality analyses certain central approaches to moral study and creates the methodological starting point for the more specific enquiries of the second part New Trends in Understanding Morality contains five articles focusing on these new approaches especially as they are related to their conceptions of scientific knowledge This section deals with selected special issues of morality in biology natural sciences but also in humanities
