Music in Print Master Title Index ,1999      The Commentarial Transformation of the Spring and Autumn Newell Ann Van Auken,2016-10-24 The Spring and Autumn is among the earliest surviving Chinese historical records covering the period 722 479 BCE It is a curious text the canonical interpretation claims that it was composed by Confucius and embodies his moral judgments but this view appears to be contradicted by the brief and dispassionate records themselves Newell Ann Van Auken addresses this puzzling discrepancy through an examination of early interpretations of the Spring and Autumn and uncovers a crucial missing link in two sets of commentarial remarks embedded in the Zu Tradition These embedded commentaries do not seek moral judgments in the Spring and Autumn but instead interpret its records as produced by a historiographical tradition that was governed by rules related to hierarchy and ritual practice Van Auken s exploration of the Zu Tradition and other early commentaries sheds light on the transformation of the Spring and Autumn from a simple non narrative historical record into a Confucian classic      Autumn Years Robert H.
