Fetzter, 2021-08-30 The richness and diversity of poetic voices in France since the mid twentieth century sharpen the challenge of charting the poetic landscape in ways that are accessible and cohesive Since poetry in France has long demonstrated a predisposition to philosophical questions Palimpsests of the Real in Recent French Poetry reads the work of six poets through the lens of the Pre Socratics The poets discussed range from the well known Jacques Dupin Andr du Bouchet Eug ne Guillevic to the lesser celebrated Jean Louis Chr tien C line Zins and Emmanuel Hocquard What binds these six together is an interest in the real and a fascination with the ways of sensing one s world of experiencing time unity memory and change For each poet the aesthetic character of the work takes precedence and its presentation is informed by the philosophical groundwork laid by ancient thinkers Written not only for specialists but also for students and all readers with a general interest in literature and poetry this book provides introductory material to each poet considered as well as offers critical readings that never stray far from the poetic texts Cultural Diversity in the French Film Industry

Sarah Walkley,2018-09-22 This is the first book to examine whether France s ongoing defence of the cultural exception as a means to maintain cultural policies and defend cultural diversity is justifiable in the digital age It questions whether the arrival of new players such as Apple and Netflix makes defence impossible and whether an explosion in the number of films available makes policies for cultural promotion increasingly unnecessary The book takes a critical look at French film policy to establish whether it promotes cultural diversity across cinema and video on demand and the implications for ongoing defence of the cultural exception Sarah Walkley ultimately makes the case for a more disciplined approach to discussion of the cultural exception and cultural diversity in France supporting ideological arguments about competition freedom of expression consumer choice and national identity with concrete evidence of the success of French policies in countering US film market dominance French National Cinema Susan Hayward,2005 This revised and updated version of a successful and established text French National Cinema offers a thorough and much needed historical overview of French cinema at a time when it continues to grow in popularity with films such as Amelie and Belleville Rendez vous Brought wholly up to date to include political and social developments in French cinema in the 1990s its fresh approach and groundbreaking new writing on the subject offers a much further understanding of French cinema and its relationship with the French national identity New subjects covered include the GATT negotiations of 1993 French cinema s increasing dependence on investment from television the rise of the multiplex the implications of the introduction of digital technology Ideal for all students of cinema film studies and film history this book traces the eco history of the French film and its key figures and movements and it places them in their wider political and cultural context Political Culture in France and Germany (RLE: German Politics)

John Gaffney,Eva Kolinsky,2014-12-17 This book originally published in 1991 assesses how attitudes political orientations and social values changed during the five decades after the Second World War The case studies in the book focus on key sites in political culture in France on the extreme right the cinema the impact of media personalities and changes of political discourse in Germany on the decline of regional identities the emergence of specific issues and the concern of political parties with the effectiveness of language This interdisciplinary study provides new insights into the way French and German people see themselves Resources in Education ,1997 The International Movie Industry

Gorham Anders Kindem, 2000 A comprehensive history of the international movie industry during the 20th century Essays examine the film industries of 19 countries focusing on individual national movie industries economic social aesthetic technological and political ideological development within an international context Culture and Content in French Aurélie Chevant-Aksoy, 2022-03-16 Instructors in today's language classrooms face the challenge of preparing globally competent and socially responsible students with transcultural aptitude As classroom content shifts toward communication collaboration and problem solving across cultural racial and linguistic boundaries the teaching of culture is an integral part of foreign language education This volume offers nontraditional approaches to teaching culture in a complex time when the internet and social networks have blurred geographical social and political borders The authors offer practical advice about teaching culture with kinesthetics music improvisation and communication technologies for different competency levels The chapters also explore multi literacies project based learning and discussions on teaching culture through literature media and film The appendices share examples of course syllabi specific course activities and extracurricular projects that explore culinary practices performing arts pop culture geolocation digital literacy journalism and civic literacy French Cycling Hugh Dauncey, 2012-01-01 French Cycling a Social and Cultural History aims to provide a balanced and detailed analytical survey of the complex leisure activity sport and industry that is cycling in France Identifying key events practices stakeholders and institutions in the history of French cycling the volume presents an interdisciplinary analysis of how cycling has been significant in French society and culture since the late Nineteenth century Cycling as Leisure is considered through reference to the adoption of the bicycle as an instrument of tourism and emancipation by women in the 1880s for example or by study of the development in the 1990s of long distance tourist cycle routes Cycling as Sport and its attendant dimensions of amateurism professionalism national identity the body and doping and other issues is investigated through study of the history of the Tour de France the track racing organised at the Velodrome d'hiver in Paris in the 1920s and 1930s and other emblematic events Cycling as Industry and economic activity is considered through an assessment of how cycling firms have contributed to technological innovation at various junctures in France's economic development Cycling and the Media is investigated through analysis of how cycle sport has contributed to developments in the French press in early decades but also to new trends in television and radio coverage of sports events Based on a very wide range of primary and secondary sources the volume aims to present in clear language an explanation of the varied significance of cycling in France over the last hundred years Metaphysics and the Sciences in Nineteenth-Century France, 2025-07-22 This volume is the first systematic study of the style of reasoning specific to the field of philosophy in nineteenth century France The chapters analyze the often dispersed responses to the fundamental question of the division of the sciences based on the reciprocal relationships of inclusion or exclusion of adversity or sorority between metaphysics and the positive sciences In line with the arrhythmic progress of the different forms of knowledge these responses renew the Condillacian criticisms of the Cartesian order of the relationships between metaphysics and physics Between a pronounced divorce and a successful marriage this volume traces the philosophical history of the various attempts at divorce or union which as the century progressed resulted in original hybridizations that aspired to define a new and ever problematic French philosophy Experimentation and the Lyric in Contemporary French Poetry Jeff Barda, 2019-10-17 Experimentation and the Lyric in Contemporary French Poetry offers a new theoretical approach and historical perspective on the remarkable upsurge in creative poetic practices in France that have challenged traditional definitions of poetry and of the lyric Focusing on the work of Pierre Alferi Olivier Cadiot Emmanuel Hocquard Franck Leibovici Anne Portugal and Denis Roche this book provides an analysis of the most influential poets in French poetry of the last few decades It contextualizes the theoretical models that inform their investigations analyzing them alongside the history of the avant garde and the heated theoretical debates that have taken place over whether to continue or bring an end to the lyric Systematically addressing the various strategies employed by these poets and drawing on reception theory and cognitive studies Jeff Barda argues that French radical poetics re evaluates the lyric in cognitive terms beyond the personal This book is essential reading for anyone interested in twenty first century forms of experimental writing and the connections between literature and the arts today The Development of the Criminal Law of Evidence in the Netherlands, France and Germany between 1750 and 1870 Ronnie Bloembergen, 2020-05-25 This book describes the development of the criminal law of evidence in the Netherlands France and Germany between 1750 and 1870 In this period the development occurred that the so called system of legal proofs was replaced with the largely free evaluation of the evidence The system of legal proofs which had functioned since the late middle ages consisted of a set of strict evidentiary rules which predetermined when a judge could convict someone In this book an explanation is given of the question why between 1750 and 1870 the strict evidentiary rules were replaced with the free evaluation of the evidence The thesis of this research is that the reform was induced by a change in the underlying epistemological and political constitutional discourses which together provided the ideas which inspired a significant reform of the criminal law of evidence Queering Contemporary French Popular Cinema Darren Waldron, 2009 Queering Contemporary French Popular Cinema combines close film analysis with a small scale qualitative investigation of audience responses to examine images of queerness in contemporary French popular cinema and their reception Through its blending of the textual and the empirical this book provides a unique insight into the ways in which sexuality and gender are represented on the cinema screen as well as the spectator reactions they elicit Since the mid 1990s depictions of lesbians gay men and queer forms of sexual desire and identity have shifted to the mainstream of French cinematographic representation as evidenced by the box office success of a series of highly commercial comic films including Gazon maudit Josiane Balasko 1995 P dale douce Gabriel Aghion 1996 Le Placard Francis Ver 2000 and Chouchou Merzak Allouache 2003 Alongside this commercial strand a series of small budget alternative comedies and other genre films have also challenged heteronormative conceptualizations of sexuality and gender Films such as Sitcom Fran ois Ozon 1998 L Homme est une femme comme les autres Jean Jacques Zilbermann 1997 Pourquoi pas moi St phane Giusti 1999 Dr le de F lix Olivier Ducastel and Jacques Martineau 2000 and Les Chansons d amour Christophe Honor 2007 portray desire as fluid and or gender as unfixed With their use of parody and their blending of comedy with the musical melodrama romance or road movie these and other similar films have resonated with a burgeoning viewing public tired of having to seek queerness in connotation of appropriating marginal characters in ostensibly straight narratives and of tragedy and trauma as the principal modes of representation and spectator address
